Last Sunday afternoon at Schnoor's Grove near Willamette occurred the dedication of the American and German flags. A large delegation from Oregon City was there and were assisted in the program by members of the Portland Societies. About 400 in all were present. A very nice program was carried out during the afternoon. The Oregon City Band opened the festivities and was followed by an address by Richard Petzold, of this city, who praised President Schnoor for his good work and untiring efforts in behalf of the organization. The identity of the unfortunate man is not known, as no papers were found on the body. He was about 75 years of age having white hair and a white beard. His height was about 5 feet and 7 inches and he weighed 170 pounds. The coroner's inquest gave a verdict that the man came to his death through natural causes.
