

SPECIALS!

Our Leader in the heating stove line goes during the rest of this month at $7.00. It is an air-tight, steel box, durable heater; takes a 25-inch stick of wood and is worth $10.50. We are offering a High Grade Steel Range for just a trifle more than cost. We have an overstock of them. If you feel that you can afford $10.50 for a Mattress, our Silk Floss will please you. It is equal to the famous $15.00 "Ostermoor." Our $2.75 mattress is good for the money, but the Silk Floss will prove the best investment in the end. Our Eastern shipment of Iron Beds will be in by the time you read this. It will include three styles to be sold at $3.50. This bed is sold ordinarily at $5.00. In the shipment are also four styles of an iron bed that retails in Portland at $15. We can sell it at $12.50. Don't fail to inspect this assortment of beds. If you are not ready to buy now, you will know where to get just what you want when you get around to it.

The foregoing are high-grade articles that we are able, for special reasons, to make special prices on.

If you require an inexpensive heater, we have a little air-tight for $2.00, or a neat little steel box for $4.50.

Spring Beds as low as $2.00, and Iron Beds for $2.75.

You are cordially invited to call and look over our special offers.

Chistensen-Rakel Nuptials.

A pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Chris-tensen in Bolton at high noon Wednes-day, when their daughter, Miss Mae Christensen, became the wife of Au-gust Rakel, the ceremony being per-formed by Rev. E. Clarence Oakley of the Congregational church. The bride was attired in a gown of white silk and lace, and the bridesmaid, Miss Minnie Rakel, a sister of the groom, was dressed in pink silk, and carried a bouquet of red carnations. August Christensen, a brother of the bride, acted in the capacity of ring man. The bridal party marched into the parlor to the strains of a wed-ding march, played by Miss Mabel Dudrow, and stopped before a bower of cedar and roses, and were made as one. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Mabel Dudrow. After the ceremony, 45 guests sat down to a bounteous wedding dinner. The par-lor was decorated in ferns and roses, and the dining room in roses and au-tumn leaves. Mr. and Mrs. Rakel left this city on the 5:04 train for a ten days' visit in southern Oregon cities, after which they will reside here. Both of the principals in the wedding are well known young people of this city, and the Courier joins their many friends in wishing them the greatest success.

Lodge Will Give Dance.

Oregon City Lodge No. 302, The Fraternal Brotherhood held their reg-ular business meeting in Willamette Hall Wednesday evening. The mem-bers decided to give a series of dan-cing parties, one each month. The first will be held next Wednesday night in Willamette Hall. Woodfin's orchestra will furnish music for the occasion.

Rush for Miss Christensen.

A number of friends and neighbors tendered a kitchen rush Saturday night to Miss May Christensen, at her home in Bolton. Miss Christensen's mar-riage to August Rakel will take place in the near future. Musical selec-tions were the main feature of the evening, and a dainty lunch was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Roener, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Forsner, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Draper, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doty, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McLarty, Mrs. Ann Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Christensen, Misses Erma Draper, Melle and Nancy Lind-quist and May Christensen, Messrs. August Rakel, August Christensen and A. Magone. Miss Christensen re-ceived many useful presents.

A deal was completed this week by which 2200 acres of timber land on the Clackamas river in this county passed from the hands of William Weist, of Portland, to those of the Clackamas River Timber Company. The consideration was not made pub-lic.

Bridge Club Meets with Mrs. Clark.

The Wednesday Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. H. L. Clark on Madison street Wednesday. Four tables were filled, and the prizes were won by Mrs. Wm. A. Showman, Jr., Miss Nellie Caulfield and Mrs. Frank Rigler of Portland. The rooms were tastefully decorated with autumn leaves. After the prizes were award-ed, tempting refreshments were served. Present were: Mrs. Frank Rigler and Miss Florence Dudley of Portland, Mrs. E. A. Sommer, Mrs. Mortimer Latourette, Mrs. J. M. Walk-er, Miss Molly Holmes, Mrs. S. Dil-man, Mrs. M. Bollack, Mrs. Lewellyn Adams, Mrs. W. A. Showman, Jr., Mrs. L. L. Pickens, Mrs. Nelson Lawrence, Miss Marjorie Caulfield, Miss Nellie Caulfield, Mrs. Lena Charman, Mrs. Eber Chapman. The next meeting of the club will be held at the residence of Miss Marjorie Caulfield, Wednes-day, October 28.

Entertain Bridge Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Curry entertain-ed the Friday Bridge Club at their home on Washington street last Fri-day night. The popular game of bridge whist was the game of the evening, and refreshments were served. An amusing and interesting feature of the evening was the read-ing of an article from a current pub-lication by Mr. Curry. The article contained a great deal of interesting as well as amusing facts about the game of bridge whist, and was listened to with the greatest interest. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Eber Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Linwood E. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Showman, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Franklin T. Griffith, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Beattie, Miss Cls Barclay Pratt, Mrs. E. A. Sommer and Dr. Clyde Mount.

King's Daughters Market.

The first market of the King's Daughters will be held October 24, and the members of the society are making great preparations for the event. A meeting of the society was held Saturday at the Episcopal church, and the members decided to take up the work of making surgeons' aprons and gowns for use in the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland. It was deemed advisable for the club to hold markets every two weeks. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Marian Lethwaite in West Oregon City on the coming Sat-urday.

Liberal.

Farmers are busy seeding and try-ing to plow. The ground is very dry. This light rain will not help out any only in starting the grass. Clover is starting up anew, and will furnish some pasture for stock.

Cole Bros. have finished chopping grain in this section. A great thing for the farmer, as he doesn't have to handle the grain but once.

Miss Nora Rosenkranz ate some cheese recently and as a result was very sick for three days. Dr. Powell of Molalla was called and she is bet-ter. Ptomazine poison is what the doctor prescribed it.

Longstreet Vaughan was buying young cattle for his market in this section Monday.

S. J. Vaughan has rented the J. Newton place and has moved on the same.

The basket social Saturday night held at the Liberal school house was well attended. Ten baskets brought $12.65. The following program was rendered: Song, Liberal Ladies, "School Days," song by choir, "Home by the Deep, Heaving Sea;" recita-tions by pupils of school; clarinet solo by Arthur Larson; song, "The Liberal Girls," invitation. The song, by Mrs. Fred H. Burns, "Love Me and the World is Mine," was well rendered and she was heartily applauded.

Dr. Morey is on the road all the time, as there are plenty of sick horses in the vicinity. If our rain continues it will clear it all up. Rain is what we all need for health and comfort. Clover seed is being held by a great many farmers. Those who have to buy it get it from their brother farmers, and know what kind of seed they are getting.

Clear Creek.

A. A. Mack, who recently bought the Carlson place near Holcomb, is remodeling his house.

Mrs. William Anderson is moving her house and buildings out to the main road and otherwise improving her place.

The apple crop is very good in quality and quantity, but is falling off very badly. This is supposed to be on account of the continued dry weather.

The Harding Grange fair was a grand success, having good attend-ance and a liberal exhibit of all kinds of farm products and stock. Many prizes were awarded to those offering the best exhibits.

At the road meeting of the Viola road district held at the Redland school house last Saturday, the propo-sition to levy a special tax was voted down, it being the opinion of a ma-jority that the main roads of the district can stand another year's travel before being renewed.

A fire which for awhile last week showed a very threatening aspect in the timber adjacent to Fischer's mill was the cause of quite a disturbance and a great deal of uneasiness, sev-eral buildings had narrow escapes and a number of fences were burned.

The Christian church at Stone held a baptismal service at the Clear Creek bridge last Sunday, six persons receiv-ing baptism.

The Clear Creek creamery will pay 35 cents for last six months' cream.

Mrs. Gobat, who resides near the Jones mill, died Sunday morning, hav-ing been stricken with paralysis the Thursday before. Funeral services were held at the Redland cemetery Tuesday at 2 o'clock p. m.

It is reported that Mr. Smith, the Clear Creek butter maker, has taken unto himself an assistant. Hearty congratulations, Mr. Smith.

The depot at Estacada was entered Saturday night by a burglar, who knocked the agent senseless and es-caped with what funds happened to be on hand, but fortunately the agent had turned in all the funds except about $50. The agent was at first thought to be quite seriously hurt, but is around again. No trace has yet been found of the burglar.

Shively's Opera House—Saturday, Oct. 17.

The attractions of the West, the romance of which is fast dying away, has been a fruitful theme for the American dramatists, and scores of plays have been produced from that source. Among the latest is "The Montana Limited," a strong drama by Charles Ulrich and W. L. Roberts, Chicago playwrights, which is produced by the Klimt & Gazzolo Com-pany.

Scenically, "The Montana Limited" is a marvel of the stage mechanic's art. One of the triumphs it reveals in this regard is a life size moving ex-press train which is robbed by road agents in regulation style. "The Montana Limited" as a play is strictly a comedy drama with brilliant scenic effects that place it on a plane far su-perior to the ordinary shows that are to be seen at popular priced houses.

The scenic investiture of "The Montana Limited" is merely the dress for a story of superior dramatic worth. It deals with the troubles of twin brothers, one of whom is arrested and condemned for the robbery of a train, which crime, in fact, is committed by his twin. The mystery of their rela-tionship is not revealed until the final curtain and the dramatic effect is thrilling. Of course, there is a pretty love story in which the brothers are involved and the unfolding of this, together with much wholesome coun-edy and strong characters with which the play abounds, serve to provide exceptionally fine entertainment.

Kills Prodigious Buck.
E. P. Elliott and sons of this city and Oren Cutting and sons and Bud Robbins of Molalla enjoyed a week's hunting on Pine Creek near Molalla. Several deer were killed, and Mr. Cut-ting secured a very large buck, the largest ever seen in the Molalla coun-try. For some time Mr. Cutting has been regarded as "the champion hunter of Molalla," and his last exploit goes a long way towards proving the right to the title.
