Dies in Portland Hospital.

H. P. Eastman, a veteran railroad engineer of this city, died early Thursday morning at Good Samaritan Hospital, Portland, after an illness of two weeks, aged 75 years.

Mr. Eastman was a pioneer resident of this city, and his family still reside here. He was one of the first engineers to enter the service of the O. R. & N. C. and had been continuously in its employ until a short time ago.

More Than Enough is Too Much.

To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supply energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again. For sale by Huntley Bros. Co., Oregon City and Molalla.
