

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

CLEAR CREEK.

Rev. J. W. Egan of Dover passed through these parts last week.

Mr. Aiger of Maple Lane is moving to the Weismandel place.

One of John Potter's colts was shot last Wednesday, and although seriously injured, it is expected that the animal will recover.

Tom Anderson is building a residence on his place on Arthur's Prairie.

The prune industry is quite an enterprise in Springwater.

Lucy J. Ewalt, who purchased Mr. G. D. Nicolai's farm, has taken possession, and Mr. Nicolai and family have moved to Montana.

J. L. Mumpower has just built a neat residence on his place at Stone.

James Tracy has improved the appearance of his houses at Logan by giving it a coat of paint and resingling the roof.

One of Loren Tenny's horses was badly cut on the foot by barb wire.

It is reported that William Myers is about to sell his ranch.

The funeral services of Rev. J. P. Rich were held in the Stone church at one o'clock Thursday, the 10th.

Rev. Rich has been minister at Stone and other Christian churches of the country for years.

He was stricken while at his post of duty. He was holding special meetings at Russellville, and while on the road to meeting he received a stroke of paralysis.

He lingered for several days after the stroke unable to speak, but at times conscious. He died Monday morning about five o'clock, and the remains were taken to Damascus for burial.

He resided at Pleasant Home, and leaves a wife and nine children to mourn his loss.

Rev. Sewell, who is holding meetings at Estacada, will conduct the funeral services.

The new Fir Grove school house is complete and furnished, and school opened Monday, the 9th, with Miss Olive Mortimore in charge.

Thirty pupils presented themselves for enrollment, and after speeches by several of the board the new institution was launched, with every promise of a bright and prosperous future.

An educational rally will be held at the Logan Grange hall Wednesday evening. It will be conducted by Prof. T. J. Gary and State Superintendent Ackerman, who will be assisted by local talent.

An enjoyable and instructive meeting is expected.

BEAVER CREEK.

J. Shannon and family moved to Oregon City Monday.

Miss Lizzie Parry and Richard Griffiths were married in Portland Wednesday, Oct. 28.

Otto Mochinke and Miss Thersia Strawn were united in matrimony in Portland. They intend to make their home there in the near future.

Anyone wishing some chapping done may call at August Blum's residence. He and Fred Steiner intend to chop grain on Wednesday of each week.

Mrs. J. Bohlander and daughter Clara spent several days with relatives and friends in Portland last week.

Miss Mabel Clark, who was working for Mr. Babcock, returned to her home at Estacada, Sunday.

Miss Anna Steiner has gone to Portland to work this winter.

Jack Shannon, formerly a resident of Beaver Creek, returned from Alaska last week to spend the winter with his parents at Oregon City.

Walter Knutson of Portland spent Saturday and Sunday with friends here, returning home Monday.

GARFIELD.

If you want to succeed in life, do something, do it well and keep everlastingly at it.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dale visited Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Gill, Sunday.

Quite a number of Garfield people attended church at Estacada, Sunday.

Mrs. J. P. Irvin and granddaughters, Miss Folsom and Elsie Coyne, have returned home after an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Irvin at Boring.

Mrs. H. H. Anders and children visited Miss Grace Davis, Sunday.

The various teachers in this vicinity have returned from the institute, and resumed their duties Monday.

Mrs. Katherine Hunt and Miss King, Hunt, from Illinois, mother and sister of G. F. Hunt, are visiting at the Hunt farm. They expect to remain all winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peterson returned to their home in Mr. Taber last week, after a sojourn of about three weeks in this vicinity.

MEADOWBROOK.

Word has just reached us that the Barlow & Brentwell Milling Co. on Woodbrook creek will soon resume business.

Mr. Holman and family made a business trip to Canby, Monday.

Quite a number of our young people attended the teachers' institute at Molalla Friday evening.

The school board has purchased an addition to the school ground and are preparing to fence the same with a woven wire fence.

The late frosts are bringing the democrats in from the woods.

Mr. Bowman is building a new barn on the block he purchased of Mr. Hall in the Molalla addition.

EAGLE CREEK.

School has reopened after a week's vacation. Miss Meinko, the teacher, returned from Oregon City on the 5th.

The county court has issued instructions to have all wood piled on the county roads at this place removed within 30 days. It works a hardship on a good many farmers who have not sold their wood, as the wood market is very dull. It has been hinted that it is the outcome of a little spookwork on some one's part.

The mill at Alepaugh is being torn down preparatory to being moved to Oregon City.

Robert Curran, who has been in b. d.

Sign Your Letters.

The Courier requests that all communications be signed. We do not wish to publish these signatures, but must know who the writer is, and quite often letters require an answer unless same are signed we are unable to determine who the writer is. Sign your letters.

for the past two months with a broken limb is reported as being very much improved.

J. H. Burnside, manager of the Hawkeye Lumber Company, of Rockport, Wash., was a visitor in Eagle Creek last Tuesday.

Miss Dorris H. Stillwell of Portland has started a large chicken ranch a short distance from this place. Mr. West is looking after the ranch at present.

Warren Forrester fell out of an apple tree last week and cracked two ribs. Dr. Short of Gresham attended the patient.

The weather has been fine the past week, and has given the farmers a chance to get the balance of the potato crop out of the soil. Fall wheat is about all in now.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

Improvements still go on. Mr. Gorbett is giving his house a new coat of paint.

Mr. Mochinke is having the house and lot on Seventh and Taylor improved. He has painted the house and put a new wire fence around the lot.

M. P. Bradley of Scappoose made a business trip to this burg, recently. He is putting a new tombstone on his wife's grave.

Mrs. Seely returned last week from her visit in Seattle.

Mrs. Hickman has sold her cottage. We have not heard the name of the purchaser.

Mrs. F. M. Darling was very pleasantly surprised last Sunday morning by a visit from her sister.

O. W. Griffin, who works in Portland, spent Saturday evening and Sunday with his family in this burg.

F. M. Amos of Kingsley, Oregon, was transacting business in town last Saturday.

Mr. Hamm has received news of the serious illness of his sister in Kansas. The home phones have been installed in this burg lately, one for Mr. Robeson and one for Mrs. Maggie Curran.

Mrs. Thacker has improved in health so much that she went to Salem last week to visit her mother.

Mrs. Hickman is visiting relatives in Portland this week.

Will May is building his new house and has it nearly ready for the shingles.

Mr. Seely is building a new porch on the back part of his house this week.

LIBERAL.

Farmers are about done with their fall seeding and have all of their potatoes dug in this section.

This dry weather makes it fine for the farmers as the ground is in fine shape for plowing and seeding.

Grass is growing nicely.

Hogs are about all fattened and butchering is going on among the farmers.

There will not be the usual amount of seeding this fall on account of such a long dry spell in September and October.

Everybody is getting ready for the masquerade at Liberal hall, November 25. A grand time is expected.

C. G. Miller and a friend were out hunting from Oregon City Sunday, but the birds were all in the heavy timber.

J. O. Morris has recovered from his spell of sickness and is around as usual.

How about the accident Saturday night? No bones broken. Ha, ha! "Willie the cut."

Sick Headache.

This distressing disease results from a disordered condition of the stomach, and can be cured by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Get a free sample at Huntley Bros. drug store and try it.

ESTACADA.

Al Closs, who has been conducting a "blind pig" at Estacada in defiance of the local option law, was placed under arrest Saturday morning and required to appear in court and answer to a charge of selling liquor to a minor and selling liquor in defiance of the local option law. He has, on various occasions we are told, sold liquor to Virgil Wagner, a boy of 16 years.

Julius Krieger, a single manufacturer

Guy Hunt has a force of men at work improving the roads of the Porter neighborhood.

MOLALLA.

The roads are good again. Farmers are getting on well with their fall sowing.

Molalla does not quite govern the presidential election, as we hear that an Ohio man by the name of Taft swallowed the New York "pie," plate and all.

Last Wednesday Mr. Warner of Russellville went out on horseback to salt his cattle, telling his ten-year-old grand-daughter that he would be back for dinner. As he did not show up at noon nor at night nor the following morning, the little girl went to a neighbor's and gave the alarm and a search was made for the missing man. His horse was found with the bridle reins broken. Search failed to locate Mr. Warner until Saturday, when several men went from Molalla to assist. He was found by Otto Boyles betw on two logs with his head washed in. Evidently the horse had jumped a log close to a root of an upturned tree and falling from the horse, Warner struck against the logs, killing him instantly. The body of the unfortunate man was brought to Molalla.

Elder G. P. Rich died at Russellville Monday morning, while on his way to the Russellville school house last Friday evening, where he was holding a series of meetings. He suffered a severe stroke of paralysis when a short distance from the place of meeting. L. E. Trullinger took him in his buggy to his home, where Dr. Powell removed all the medical aid possible. Mrs. Rich of Damascus was notified of her husband's severe illness and the family arrived Saturday. He recognized them but was

NAME YOUR FARM

Throughout the United States there are many farms that are not named, and the Courier believes that it is just as important that the farms should be named as it is important that the various business houses are named. Give your farm a name. Fill out this coupon, and send it to the Oregon City Courier, and your farm name will be placed on the Courier Registered list of Farms. The name sent in will be published together with the name of the proprietor. Use coupon below.

Name of farm
Proprietor
Address

Cape Horn Ranch. Oregon City Courier: We are interested in your suggestion to name farms and have given ours the name of "Cape Horn Ranch." It consists of about 155 acres and includes part of a rocky point called traver of this place, was married last Wednesday to Miss Jennie Linn, daughter of the owner of Linn's sawmill. They will make their home on Mr. Kreiger's homestead about a mile east of Estacada.

Rev. D. P. Rieb, who died November 9th at Boring, was well known here. He had preached here for many years. His oldest daughter is the wife of Frank Irvin of this place.

A revival is being held at the old school building in Estacada by a minister of the Christian church. There has been a large attendance at all of the meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dale called on Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Gill at their home in the Porter neighborhood Sunday.

"Booster socials" are the latest fad in Roseburg.

"Cape Horn," which extends out to the banks of Milk Creek about a mile southeast of Canby. We expect to make a dairy ranch of our place. Yours truly, RUPP & CAVINESS, R. F. D. No. 1, Canby, Oregon.

F. C. Perry is remodeling his windmill tower base and is putting in a gasoline engine to pump between "spells."

Last week was a vacation week in our schools on account of the teachers' institute. The following conversation took place between two pupils: "Hello, Johnny. Where has your teacher gone?" "Oh, her is just gone off to learn some more."

Mr. and Mrs. William Dale called on Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Gill at their home in the Porter neighborhood Sunday.

"Booster socials" are the latest fad in Roseburg.

S. W. Corner 4th and Morrison Streets

A. B. Steinbach & Co

There is an air about this store that seems to win prestige—perhaps its our prices—or the excellence of our styles and the good cloth that is in the garments.

Special values in Suits and Overcoats, $15.00, $18.00, $20.00 and $25.00.

"BROOK HATS" The peer of all $3.00 Hats.

PORTLAND, OREGON

Advertisement for THE HOOSIER DISC DRILL and THE ROSS MANURE SPREADER. Includes images of the machinery and text describing their benefits for farmers.

Advertisement for Mitchell's IMPLEMENTS AND VEHICLES. Lists various items and prices, including Portland, Ore., Spokane, Wash., Boise, Idaho, and Salem, Ore.

Advertisement for Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. Describes the benefits of the syrup for various ailments and includes a testimonial from a child.

Itan hospital in Portland Tuesday night.

W. H. Boring attended court in Oregon City last week.

Oral Hendrickson underwent the misfortune of having his leg nearly broken last week. He is able to be around again.

While holding revival meetings at Molalla, Rev. Rich, of Boring, died very suddenly of paralysis. The funeral was held Tuesday at Stone.

Dodge. The Dodge social Saturday night was a grand success, every one reports a fine time.

Mr. Dana will move his family to Oregon City this week. He recently bought a candy store at that place.

Mrs. Mary Cox and children were visiting her son Samuel Cox in Oswego last week.

The Oswego Women's Club will meet the home of Mrs. Prosser, Wednesday.

Mrs. T. Chuck was visiting relatives in Oregon City this week.

No Case of Pneumonia on Record. We do not know of a single instance where a cough or cold resulted in pneumonia or consumption when Foley's Honey and Tar had been taken.

More, Germany's Foremost Physician, says: "The rapidity and accuracy with which Thompson corrects eye troubles is nothing short of marvelous."

The British Ophthalmic, London, May 29, 1908, says: "The wonderful skill with which Thompson discovers the various defects of the eye has caused quite a sensation among the eye specialists of Europe."

That many of the cases fitted by Thompson are absolutely incurable by methods other than those he employs is a fact that cannot be successfully disputed.

No charge for Expert Examination and advice. Perfect Fitting Glasses as Low as $1.00. All Corrections Guaranteed.

THE INTER-NATIONALLY INDORSED SIGHT EXPERT 2d Floor Corbett Building, 5th and Morrison Streets PORTLAND, OREGON

LARGEST AND BEST EQUIPPED OPTICAL PARLORS IN PORTLAND Bring this ad with you. It is of value.

Goldendale, Washington, has given all the communities of the Pacific coast a record in raising money for advertising purposes, by giving $2 for every man, woman and child within the city limits, or a total of $8500, and this came in at the rate of $125 a minute.

Weighed in the Balance and never found wanting in either quantity or quality. That is what you will say of our groceries after you have tested them in your household.

Give us your first order and if honesty of weight and quality count with you we are sure of many others hereafter.

New season goods arriving daily. New Walnuts, Almonds, Pecans, Filberts, Raisins, Currants and Figs. Home-Made Mince Meat.

A ROBERTSON, The Seventh Street Grocer.

WANTED

Fruit Trees and Specimen Trees that require pruning and better care. Salary healthier and more beautiful trees. Good opportunity for persons who have trees that are in bad condition. If you want them improved write or call on

OTIS RAY DAUGHTERY MOLALLA, OREGON

Large advertisement for Thompson's Fitting Eyes. Features a portrait of a man and text describing the benefits of the eye treatment, including a testimonial from a man who has worn glasses for 27 years.