of holding a union Sunday school, which is being held at present in the Shaw store. The following officers were elected last Sunday: Rev. Sharp, superintendent; Mr. A. E. Russell, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Delia Roberts, secretary; Mrs. Ida Russell, treasurer; and Mr. G. D. Boarman, librarian.

A great many of our little folks attended the doll show in Portland on Saturday and were delighted to see the many dolls.

H. C. Painton has finished drilling a well for Mr. Yale at Meldrum and will remove his machine to Fred Terry's property on the river front. Mr. and Mrs. Ricketts and family of Portland spent Sunday at the Wilcox home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Evans have rented their house to Mr. and Mrs. Redmond and will leave about January 1st to make their home in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Evans will be greatly missed in the community. Mrs. Evans has entertained a great deal during the past year with her delightful little teas. It is hoped they will come out often. Rev. Blackwell preached at the school house on Sunday. A number of Gladstone people attended the services.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. James Semple. They are keeping house at their old home in Leavenworth, Kansas. Their many friends will be pleased to hear that Mrs. Semple's health is much improved after her trip and stay in Oregon.
