

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

NEW ERA.

Mrs. Bergovins and Mrs. Rief were guests at the Bowman farm recently.

Robert Montgomery is suffering from a severe attack of appendicitis.

Bert Arthur is preparing to build a porch on the front of his house and remodel the interior.

Geo. Brown has purchased a riding plow and will throw the old walking plows in the loft as a memento of olden times.

"The advance agent of prosperity" was through here last Saturday and informed us that wheat had already raised ten cents a day.

Courad Tauscher got his leg caught in the live rollers behind the saw at the mill on Monday and would have lost the limb had not one of the castings broken.

Frank Scheibner purchased a fresh cow from Mr. Tompson on last week, paying $40 for same.

EAGLE CREEK.

Everything in the way of farms is booming here nowadays.

Mr. Murphy sold his 40 acre farm for $3000 cash; Mr. J. E. Burnett as agent, sold the old Van Curen farm for $5000 and also the Herman Horger ranch for $5000.

Mr. Chalker sold the August Horger farm a quarter of a mile from the station for $18,000 cash.

There have been several offers for $10000 acre made for land in and around the postoffice the past week.

Edward Fleming, a city detective of Seattle, Washington, is visiting his brother, D. S. Fleming, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Malon were Eagle Creek visitors this week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Neild have closed their summer home and removed to Sellwood for the winter.

Mr. Nixon intends going on a hunting trip to his large timber holdings near Grants Pass.

Reports from Salem state the death of Fred Wilburn, only son of Henry Wilburn, the former proprietor of this place.

The news caused quite a shock here, as Fred was well known and liked by everyone.

The burial took place in Salem on Tuesday last at 2 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Burnett have returned from a ten days' trip to Eastern Oregon.

Misses Reita and Frances McQuade are visiting their father, J. H. McQuade, division road master at this place.

Mr. Coffin is busy planting ten acres of strawberry plants on the old Ballan place. Strawberries do well here.

MULINO.

The sound of the blacksmith's hammer can be heard ringing merrily in our burg again.

Jasper Trullinger made a business trip here this week.

Ed Ball has moved into his new house.

Some of the young folks here attended the entertainment at Mackburg Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Bayne Howard spent Saturday and Sunday in Portland visiting relatives.

Tom Fish is working for Mr. Noon, who is moving his sawmill from Mulino to Corvallis.

Dan Grayson has returned home after a two weeks' stay at Long Creek.

Eph Dodge, who has been sawing shingles for Snodgrass, got some cedar slivers in his wrist, causing him to have to quit work.

The show at the hall was quite interesting.

Mr. Shaw, who has been east for some time, has returned home.

Mrs. Crook spent Monday at Aurora with her daughter.

CANBY.

Allen & Kendall, the Canby butchers, bought a very large hog from Mr. Bennett.

Warren Kendall has returned home.

Irving Wheeler and his uncle are progressing very nicely with the work on their new house.

John Stalinger made a business trip to Aurora Saturday.

Mr. Stalinger reports that the potato market is very dull at present.

Peter Harnig is drilling a well on his place.

"Dad" Rider is plowing and sowing grain on his farm.

Warren Leo is the new mail carrier on the new rural route running out from Canby.

Mr. Meesa is still piling up the wood with his gasoline wood saw.

James Wilkerson and family have moved into the Jack Howard house.

Willard Knight has purchased a house and lot from Mrs. Bacon.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry visited their daughter, Mrs. Claude Baty last Sunday.

John Burns called on Frank Hilton and his mother last Sunday.

MARIS PRAIRIE.

A large amount of fall grain has been sown on our prairie during the past week.

Some of our farmers are sowing a lot of timothy seed for meadows, as fully forty per cent of the clover is dead.

John Wells and Leland Hardesty were callers at Oglesby's Sunday.

Our cream raisers are up against it now, as milk feed is very high.

There is little profit in the cream business now.

Potato digging is all finished here, with the smallest yield ever known.

George Oglesby was taken ill suddenly Thursday. He is a little better now.

Nearly all of our young people were at the big dance at Aurora Saturday evening and report a fine time.

Miss Viola Gribble is teaching a successful term of school at Whiskey Hill. There is a very large attendance.

Miss Lillie Hardesty has been staying with her sister, Mrs. John Wells, the past week.

Abner Cole is backing on his ranch here at present and putting in grain.

Several hop contracts at ten cents per pound for three years are being signed up by our hop raisers.

The wedding of Mr. Frank Oglesby and Miss Lillie E. Hardesty will take place at Oregon City Wednesday, November 20th. Their many friends and relatives wish them a long and happy life.

Mr. Scanlin has been repairing his phone lines for several days.

Sign Your Letters.

The Courier requests that all communications be signed. We do not wish to publish these signatures, but must know who the writer is, and quite often letters require an answer and unless same are signed we are unable to determine who the writer is. Sign your letters.

DAMASCUS.

Grandpa and Grandma Sink left Sunday for Yamhill county to visit their son, George Sink, and their granddaughter, Mrs. Georgia Cuthill.

Mr. Anderson, just returned from the Black Hills, South Dakota, to reside permanently here.

The educational rally held at Elliott's hall Thursday evening was a great success.

St. J. H. Ackerman and Superintendent E. J. Gary addressed a large audience. Damascus, Union, Rock Creek and Stone schools were all well represented.

The stork visited Damascus last Thursday and left a girl with Mr. and Mrs. Lingle and a boy with Mr. and Mrs. Young.

Mrs. David Vincent and Miss Minnie Trullinger called on Mrs. Newton Sunday afternoon.

The farmers are busy hauling potatoes to the cars and plowing.

Will Osborn had a sale Saturday and disposed of his personal property. Everything sold at a good price.

BEAVER CREEK.

V. Bohlander is busy building a fine wire fence along the road. This greatly improves his farm.

H. Richter and Fred Carl of New Era have moved on Jim Shannon's farm. They have rented this place for five years.

Ben Fisher has gone to Eastern Oregon to work for his brothers, John and Joe.

A. Blum has bought J. Shannon's wood saw. He and his brother John sawed wood last Saturday and report a fast work.

Some of the Shabel boys had some more window lights to pay for the other day. Boys, sometimes fun costs money.

Henry Staben purchased a new drill last week. Henry is going to farm right from this on.

C. Steiner is working for V. Bohlander, fixing fences.

All the farmers are busy plowing and sowing this nice weather. There has been more grain put in this fall than for some years past.

Wm. Martin and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Hanson.

H. Hughes sold one of his horses last week for a big price.

P. Steiner and Willie Herman are busy hauling lumber for Dix Bros. Lumber Co.

Mr. Quarrels of Eastern Oregon, who spent several months visiting different parts of California, spent a couple of days with Fred Steiner before, returning to his home.

NEW ERA.

Mrs. M. F. More died at her home one-half mile east of here Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock and was buried in Lums Fir cemetery, Portland.

Death was due to dropsy. Mrs. More was 81 years of age and has been a resident of this place for about 20 years.

Mrs. More was the wife of the late M. F. More, who was killed about three years ago while blowing out stumps.

Mr. Jess of Barlow passed through here Tuesday with a load of apples for the Oregon City market.

John Keimann was badly hurt one day last week. The breaking of one of the rungs of a ladder caused him to hurry back to the ground below.

Earl Wink and Raymond Rief have taken a contract for cutting wood for Mr. Brown and are hauling on the Julius Friedrich place.

Mrs. McClary is gathering produce and clothing for the Thanksgiving offering for the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of Portland.

You are invited to join the Pole Road Club of New Era with no initiation or medical examination fee, but receive benefits by wearing the emblem of the new order, which is a pair of corduroy pants.

Grandpa Vetato, who has been ill for some time, is still suffering with asthma and heart trouble. Dr. Strickland is in attendance. He is reported a little better at present.

John Bradl is building a house on his farm north of town. "Mike" Bowman is doing the work.

New Critson lost control of his whiskers for six months on an election bet. Therefore, accordingly he will be wearing "big whiskers" about May third of next year.

Agnes Rief of Oregon City spent Sunday with her parents at this place.

Sick Headache.

This distressing disease results from a disordered condition of the stomach, and can be cured by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Get a free sample at Huntley Bros. Drug store and try it.

MADRAS.

One surveying crew left Madras and moved farther south last week. The next day the crew, which was in the Dosobates canyon at or near Ed Campbell's place, moved into Madras and are surveying near here now.

Hiram Waterhouse's oldest son met with a serious accident recently while in the engine room at the pumping station. He in some unaccountable manner got his left arm caught in a belt and wound up in such a manner as to break it in three places. Dr. Snook was called and dressed the arm, but it is feared amputation will be necessary, as the break is such that it is hard to get it to knit together.

M. Lonsberry has built a new barn on his claim, which adds to the looks of his place as well as the usefulness.

Rosecoe Gard has been hauling hay for M. Lonsberry.

Mrs. John Peck of Clarks, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ringo for some time, left last Monday for Shaniko to meet her husband, who is quite ill. They expect to return to Oregon City soon.

A. J. Ringo, whose health is much improved, was seen on our streets this week.

Holly North, one of our business men, went to the valley last week to visit friends and relatives.

The Methodist church and parsonage of this place is being painted. The work has been delayed for some time on account of scarcity of the brush and paint.

Otto Strasser is working with the surveying crew which is operating here.

Uncle Sam has a surveying crew at work near Lamonta surveying a water ditch to irrigate this barren country.

NAME YOUR FARM

Throughout the United States there are not named, and the Courier believes that it is just as important that the farms should be named as it is important that the various business houses are named.

Name of farm
Proprietor
Address

our farm the name "The Tigoll" as that is the place where I first saw the light of day.

Very truly yours, MICHAEL KROLL, Oregon City, R. F. D. No. 3.

of ours. This is much more needed than a railroad at this time, as water is very necessary to insure a good crop every year.

John Lockhart intends to commence hauling lumber for his new dwelling this week.

Max Wilson, who is employed at the Warm Spring Agency, was in Madras recently visiting friends.

F. M. Darling is tearing down his barn and erecting it in another place. He will build another hotbed where the old barn stood.

J. M. Gilette and J. T. Francis are papering Mr. Curran's house.

Sunday, returning Monday. Mrs. Everhart of Molalla was the guest of Mrs. Hall Monday evening.

The main subject of conversation this week is Evangelist Dan Shannon. The United Brethren began a series of meetings at their church this week.

Mr. Hall made a business trip to Colton last Sunday.

Mr. Darling is tearing down his barn and erecting it in another place. He will build another hotbed where the old barn stood.

Mr. Gilette and J. T. Francis are papering Mr. Curran's house.

Mr. Darling is tearing down his barn and erecting it in another place. He will build another hotbed where the old barn stood.

Mr. Gilette and J. T. Francis are papering Mr. Curran's house.

Mr. Darling is tearing down his barn and erecting it in another place. He will build another hotbed where the old barn stood.

Mr. Gilette and J. T. Francis are papering Mr. Curran's house.

Mr. Darling is tearing down his barn and erecting it in another place. He will build another hotbed where the old barn stood.

Mr. Gilette and J. T. Francis are papering Mr. Curran's house.

Mr. Darling is tearing down his barn and erecting it in another place. He will build another hotbed where the old barn stood.

Mr. Gilette and J. T. Francis are papering Mr. Curran's house.

Mr. Darling is tearing down his barn and erecting it in another place. He will build another hotbed where the old barn stood.

Mr. Gilette and J. T. Francis are papering Mr. Curran's house.

Mr. Darling is tearing down his barn and erecting it in another place. He will build another hotbed where the old barn stood.

Mr. Gilette and J. T. Francis are papering Mr. Curran's house.

Mr. Darling is tearing down his barn and erecting it in another place. He will build another hotbed where the old barn stood.

Mr. Gilette and J. T. Francis are papering Mr. Curran's house.

Mr. Darling is tearing down his barn and erecting it in another place. He will build another hotbed where the old barn stood.

A.B. Steinbach & Co

There is an air about this store that seems to win prestige perhaps its our prices or the excellence of our styles and the good cloth that is in the garments.

Special values in Suits and Overcoats, $15.00, $18.00, $20.00 and $25.00.

"BROOK HATS" The peer of all $3.00 Hats.

S. W. Corner 4th and Morrison Streets

PORTLAND, OREGON

THE HOOSIER DISC DRILL SAVES YOU MONEY. THE ROSS MANURE SPREADER. BIGGER CROPS. Includes images of the machinery and descriptive text.

MITCHELL'S IMPLEMENTS AND VEHICLES. Honest goods at reasonable prices. Portland, Oregon.

Miss Helen Sealey of Meldrum Station, spent last week with her grandparents in this place.

Kodol For Dyspepsia. Gives rest to the stomach. For indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach, tired stomach, weak stomach, windy stomach, puffed stomach, nervous stomach and catarrh of the stomach.

A Thanksgiving Job you should have done at once is the repairing of your carriage. Storey & Thomas 4th and Main Sts. Oregon Cit.

young couple were tendered a rice shower by their friends, who were present in large numbers to wish them a pleasant trip.

Lewis Shattuck has been very busy the past few days setting up the Tiew safe which is to take the place of the one cracked by robbers a week ago.

A large crowd attended the "Hit or Miss" social given by Miss Alida Culy at her residence last Friday evening.

Ralph L. Shepherd has been elected manager of the Gresham Athletic Club's football team by a unanimous vote.

A new platform is to be erected at the O. W. P. depot. The present one has long since passed the useful stage.

Local duck hunters have had splendid success the past few days.

The potato business is beginning to open up. Several carloads have been shipped from here during the past week, bound for California.

No Case of Pneumonia on Record. We do not know of a single instance where a cough or cold resulted in pneumonia or consumption.

ESTACADA. Miss Ethel Hale has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Nora Looney, for several days past.

Miss Mary Edgerton, who is instructing youthful America at the Garfield school, reports that she had an addition of five new pupils this week.

Mrs. M. K. Irvin visited Saturday at Cherrisville and attended the sessions of the Church of Christ at Estacada Sunday.

The missionary educational meeting, as State Superintendent Ackerman terms it, held at Estacada last Tuesday evening, was a great success.

Nearly 500 people were present and the M. E. church was packed to the doors.

Some even went away. The program was as follows: Solo, Mrs. A. D. Williams, Estacada; recitation, Rose Closser, Springwater; cornet solo, L. E. Bellis, Estacada; recitation, Dorris Lovell, Curriaville; song and drill by primary girls of Estacada.

Mr. Gary spoke a few minutes and State Superintendent Ackerman spoke at length on general school questions.

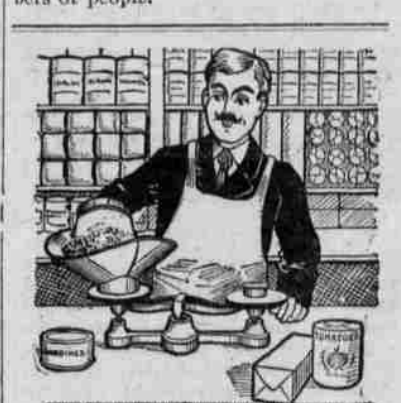

The meeting was closed by singing "America." Mr. Ackerman's address was well received.

It is rumored that Mr. Ackerman is preparing himself for a race for the governorship, he certainly has struck upon a pleasing way of meeting large numbers of people.

Local duck hunters have had splendid success the past few days.

The potato business is beginning to open up. Several carloads have been shipped from here during the past week, bound for California.

No Case of Pneumonia on Record. We do not know of a single instance where a cough or cold resulted in pneumonia or consumption.

Weighed in the Balance and never found wanting in either quantity or quality.

Give us your first order and if honesty of weight and quality count with you we are sure of many others hereafter.

New season goods arriving daily. New Walnuts, Almonds, Pecans, Filberts, Raisins, Currants and Figs.

Home-Made Mince Meat. A ROBERTSON, The Seventh Street Grocer.

Weak Eyes Made Strong. Thompson's reputation for Fitting Eyes has been established by years of Honest Treatment. His first concern is to maintain this to refer. Your Eyes deserve the best. Includes image of a man's face.