A DRAMATIC INCIDENT

That Eventually Formed the Plot for a Play.

Several years ago a young man in a small Ohio town conceived the idea of adopting the theatrical profession. He did so and was very successful. He was engaged to marry a girl at his own home, and one June day when the flowers, the trees, and even the very air breathed of love, he came for her, but her parents, descendants of the grim old puritanic stock that burned poor helpless women at the stake through ignorant superstition, refused to allow their daughter to marry an actor. They had nought against the man but would not brook his profession, and the same unpitying relentlessness that steadied the torch in their forefathers' hands caused them to light the fires to funeral pyre of the young couple's hearts. But blooded and impulsive the young man threw everything to the winds and took to drink; soon it had gained such a hold on him that he was unable to retain an engagement with a company. The pace grew faster until one morning he awoke to find himself a tramp—drifting about from place to place. He one day landed in a small Indiana town. There was a little repertoire company billed there. That night they were short an actor, so he dressed up and put on for the part. His first entrance brought him face to face with the leading lady, his old sweetheart. Around this pretty story, Lawrence Russell has woven one of the cleverest plays in "A Millionaire Tramp" that has ever graced the stage and Elmer Walters' magnificent production of it makes the play a delightful oasis in the desert of modern theatrical conventionalities. At Shively's Opera House, Wednesday, November 25.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condiition of the mucous surfaces. We will give one-hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

If you have a few good grade cows and some skim milk for some good brood sows, an orchard that will give you one or two hundred barrels of apples, and a good, large garden to go with your poultry plant, the chances for a successful business ought to be assured. When poultry keeping is thoroughly learned the other lines may be narrowed or dropped and the whole attention centered on poultry with good prospects of success. However it is a business requiring close attention and no one should embark in it thinking he need not exert himself to look around more than once a day. A poultryman's hours are long hours, just as long as from daylight to dark if he gives the birds the attention they need to give him the greatest possible profits. Beginners, paste this in your hats —Tribune.

MAKES ASTONISHING CURES.

Mi-o-na Tablets Cure Dyspepsia by Prompty Removing the Cause, or Money Back.

Mi-o-na is a scientific and effective remedy for the permanent cure of indigestion.

Food is digested in the stomach by means of a churning movement of the walls of the stomach, which thoroughly mixes the food with the gastric or stomach juices.

If the muscular walls are flabby and lack tone or energy, the stomach cannot churn the food properly, and the digestive juices are not properly mixed with the food.

This causes indigestion. The common symptoms are: weight and fullnes after meals, coated tongue, bad taste in the mouth, discharges of wind from the mouth, and belching of sour material. Dyspepsia cannot be cured by taking a disgestor, such as pepsin, because pepsin simply digests your food artificially, and not all of the food either, for it has no effect at all on starchy food, such as potatoes, rice, oatmeal, bread, etc.

There is just one way to cure dyspepsia and stomach disorders, trivial or serious, and that is to tone up or put energy into the stomach walls, so that they will be able to properly mix or churn the food.

Mi-o-na tablets cure stomach troubles by putting strengh and energy into the stomach. They quickly arouse the stomach from its inaction, and in a short time it is able to do its work properly.

And bear in mind that when the stomach is in good condition, constipation disappears, also nervousness, drowsiness, night sweats, heartburn, etc.

Jones Drug Co. sells Mi-o-na tablets under a rigid guarantee to do all that is claimed for them, or money back.

EVER WATCHFUL

A Little Care Will Save Many Oregon City Readers Future Trouble.

Watch the kidney secretions.
See that they have the amber hue of health;
The discharges not excessive or infrequent;
Contain no "brick-dust like" dediment.

Doan's Kidney Pills will do this for you. They watch the kidneys and cure them when they're sick.

N. S. Williams, carpenter, of 239 Liberty Street, Salem, Ore., says: "A number of years ago the doctors told me my kidneys were in bad shape. I came West on account of the trouble, thinking the change of climate would help me, but such was not the case. Nothing I did or took gave me relief and I was about discouraged. On procuring Doan's Kidney Pills I found them the best medicine I had ever used. At the time I procured them I was suffering from an intense burning sensation as if two live coals were placed directly over my kidneys. The secretions from my kidneys were also unnatural in appearance. After using two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills I did not have the least pain in my back or trouble with my kidneys. I give all the credit for the change in my condition to this valuable remedy."
