

Woodburn.

Several Woodburn people spent Thanksgiving out of town this year. Mr. and Mrs. J. Trullinger went to Albany Wednesday and returned home Monday from a visit to the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Groshong.

Mrs. Olive Lewis is visiting her son, Rev. J. T. Lewis, at Houlton.

Miss Josephine Lindahl is having a vacation from school on account of a sprained wrist.

R. H. Snodgrass, the shingle mill man from Millino, was in town on business one day last week.

R. H. Trullinger has accepted a position in J. A. Austin's grocery and commenced work Monday.

Gilbert Cole spent Thanksgiving with friends in McMinnville.

The Woodburn Athletic Club played basket ball with Vancouver Friday, but came home looking down in the mouth.

Rev. Moore received a telegram Sunday morning telling of the sudden death of his father by paralysis.

Prof. Cook and wife spent the last of the week with relatives in Newberg.

Macksburg.

Macksburg is on the Boomerang. We have now a store, a blacksmith shop, a church, and last but not least a saloon. All we now need is an electric line and electric lights.

Mr. Egger is gradually improving from a case of typhoid fever, and he is now preparing to move to his new home near Oregon City. Thus we lose one of our most respected citizens.

Another little girl has come to Frank Klingner's home. This is number eight.

Chris Yost has rented the Latourrette place and will work it in connection with his own. He has also another boy to help him do his work. Chris is a hunter.

Supervisor Smith is preparing to put in stone culverts; another step towards permanent improvements.

Two of our society women went to a masquerade ball at Aurora on Thanksgiving and on their way home (a little before daylight) they took a run down the first grade out of town, breaking the buggy somewhat, but all the injuries they sustained to their persons was a bruised nose.

Mountain View.

Rev. J. W. Ware is making pastoral calls in this berg this week. He is holding a series of meetings in the United Brethren church this week.

The Mountain View Sunday school gave an interesting temperance program last Saturday evening to a crowded house.

The Sunday school had an attendance of 65 last Sunday.

Lou Sager, lately from southern Oregon, was in this berg last week.

Mr. Gillett lost his horse last week.

C. B. Hysom, Jr., has gone into the real estate business.

Mrs. W. A. Sewell, nee Mrs. Dorsey, is visiting in this berg. She recently returned from a visit in Wisconsin.

Lyman Mack was at home a few days last month, and Milo Mack, of Portland, spent Thanksgiving at home.

Jesse Cox, of Elwood, transacted business in this berg last week.

Miss Roma Stafford, who is teaching at Monmouth, spent Thanksgiving here with her parents.

Miss Erna Savage of Portland was the guest of Misses Pearl and Ruby Francis during Thanksgiving vacation.

Mrs. Lottie Fisher and four children visited Grandma Bulhart Sunday.

There are no vacant houses in this berg now. A family moved into John Darling's house recently, and another into Mr. Fellows' house on Pleasant avenue.

Mrs. Nichols is feeling quite proud, as she has another grandson.

Mrs. Crawford is at Maple Lane this week, taking care of her new grandson, Master Parker.

J. M. Gillett is painting the store for Everhart & Hall this week.

John Francis went out to the mine again this week, as J. B. Fairclough has business to attend to here before going to the mines again.

Harmony.

Several sales of land were made by Mr. Parry in the Western part of Harmony lately.

Mrs. Hearst is building a new house on the tract she purchased from Mr. Garner a few weeks ago.

Mr. Harding is also building a new house.

Willis Peck and his pupils of Portland gave an excellent concert at Lent's Thanksgiving evening for the Harmony Improvement Society.

Mrs. Fankhauser and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fankhauser have gone to California to spend the winter.

Miss Julia Spooner spent the Thanksgiving holiday with her brother at Boring.

School Report.

Following is the report of school district No. 28, Concord, Clackamas County, for the month ending November 27, 1908:

No. days taught, 14.
No. pupils belonging, 30.
Average daily attendance, 27.
Those neither absent nor tardy were: Verne and Ethel Bigham, Fred and Bessie Vigles, Mary, Ada, and Hugh Starkweather, Ellen and Ruth Worthington, Willie Frommyer, Lena Keener, Marcus Youngs, and Wayne Arnold.

Visitors present were: Misses Nellie Armstrong, Ida Waddell, Grace Shirley, and Richardson, Mr. R. Richardson, and Mr. H. Starkweather, director.

Visitors are always welcome.
Alice E. Ritter, teacher.

Central Point.
Will Randall and Gilbert Randall and their families and George Randall and Miss Haas, of this neighborhood, ate Thanksgiving dinner with George Randall of Oregon City. L. Crawford and family of Portland were also present.

At school district No. 63 there was a board of directors' meeting held last Tuesday night and they concluded to hire another teacher for at least a month. Mrs. Givens will teach the primary grades and Mr. Givens will teach the larger grade. We hope they will have good success.

Miss Schibner, who has been visiting her parents, returned to Portland Sunday.

The Central Point Telephone Company held a meeting at Brown's school house and new officers were elected as follows: Gilbert Randall, serving his second term as president; Mr. Rettinger as vice-president; George Randall, secretary and Mr. Morgan, Joe Sheehick and Harry Eastman as directors.

Wonder where George was Sunday about noon.

EVERY Holiday Problem SOLVED

From now until Xmas we will be here ready to help you in any and every way possible with your holiday problems; but we want you to come early this year. Many of you may remember how unsatisfactory shopping was at the last minute last year. What is the difference if Xmas is still three weeks away? If you come now you have the cream of the stock to select from and time to decide on just what you want. We never have had such a varied stock as this year and we invite you to make our store your headquarters.

BIBLES

We have by actual count over 100 styles and sizes of Bibles, Testaments and Prayer Books in stock. The prices commence at 10c and go as high as $7.50, and every one priced as low as you could buy equal value for in New York City. We buy our Bibles from the publishers and meet all competition.

We wish to call special attention to our American Revised Bible now coming into use in all churches. Ask to see them.

POST CARD ALBUMS

We have about 50 styles at prices from 10c to $5, holding from 25 cards up to 500. Last year we ran out before Christmas; this year our stock is nearly doubled, but an early selection is advisable for they will be more popular than ever.

PHOTO ALBUMS

Always in demand for gifts, and always acceptable. You will find a big assortment priced at 75c to $5.

AUTOGRAPH ALBUMS

The boys and girls always want these. About 25 styles, and prices in stock at 5c to $1.25.

SCRAP ALBUMS

As long as there are children Scrap Albums will be in demand. We have them from 25c to $1.00.

Book Bargains for Christmas

The splendid stock of books that we have so carefully selected for this Holiday trade goes on sale at bargain prices. It is our intention to sell books just as low as any book or department store in Portland; as low as any mail order house in the East with postage added. If you know of lower prices than we are making tell us, we'll meet them. Books are rightly considered by all the most desirable moderate priced gift for young or old of either sex. We have them from 10c to $5, and whatever price you select the gift does not look or seem cheap, as many other things of equal cost do.

HUNTLEY BROS. CO.
THE QUALITY DRUGGISTS
OREGON CITY, OREGON

Of course you know that an Edison Phonograph, a Victor Talking Machine, or a Columbia Graphophone would make more people happy for a longer time than any other Christmas present you could put into your home. Don't let the price bother you. We will take care of that with our special Holiday Easy Payment Plan. Come in and consult us about it.

Prices $10 to $200

PIPES FOR MEN

Buying a pipe is sometimes a difficult and unsatisfactory job for a lady, but not so at our store. We have hundreds of pipes from 25c to $20.00 and all you need to do is to say how much you care to pay and we can do the rest.

TOILET SETS

Toilet Sets have been acceptable Xmas gifts for time immemorial and probably always will be. This year we have made a special effort to get something better than usual. Brushes and Mirrors that are serviceable—not all box, but brushes such as you would buy if you were selecting something for yourself. An endless variety to select from. Price from 75c to $20.00.

BETTER AND CHEAPER KNIVES

We have another lot of those non-trust knives, bought about 25 per cent. less than the trust price and the discount is passed on to you. Many people find a good knife an acceptable Xmas present and we have what you want at the right price.

HORSESHOEING

The Horse Looks Around in surprise when we shoe him for the first time. Never knew before how comfortable it was to be shod properly. He'll know more yet when he realizes how perfectly the shoes fit, how they give confidence to his gait. Treat your horse to our shoeing. He'll reciprocate in better work and better temper.

Marked for Death.
"Three years ago I was marked for death. A grave-yard cough was tearing my lungs to pieces. Doctors failed to help me, and hope had fled, when my husband got Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. A. C. Williams, of Bac, Ky. "The first dose helped me and improvement kept on until I had gained 58 pounds in weight and my health was fully restored." This medicine holds the world's healing record for coughs and colds and lung and throat diseases. It prevents pneumonia. Sold and guaranteed by Jones Drug Co. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Twenty-Six Received in Lodge.

A special meeting of Oregon City Lodge No. 302, The Fraternal Brotherhood, was held in Willamette Hall Monday evening, and at this time, twenty-six new members were obligated. The members of this lodge intend to initiate a class of 260 in January, and their present efforts make them confident that this number will be exceeded. After the regular work of the order, speeches were made by State Manager F. E. Taylor, John Jeffries of Portland, and other prominent members of the order. The balance of the evening was spent in dancing and card games.

Chapman Team Victorious.

With age and weight in their favor, the Chapman school football team of Portland easily won from the McLaughlin Institute of this city Thanksgiving afternoon, the score being 16 to 0. In less than three minutes after play had begun the visitors scored a touchdown and made two more and kicked a goal before the end of the first half. In the second half, the Catholic lads braced up, and try as they might, the Chapmans were unable to cross their goal line.

Undertakers Consolidate.

R. L. Holman and Thomas J. Myers, who have conducted separate undertaking establishments in this city, have consolidated, and hereafter will be known as the firm of Holman & Myers. Mr. Myers purchased the parlors formerly owned by Shank & Bissell last May. The new firm will occupy the building in which Mr. Holman has been located.
