BACK GIVES OUT
 Plenty of Oregon City Readers Have This Experience
 You tax the kidneys—overwork them—They can't keep up the continual strain. The back gives out—it aches and pains; Urinary troubles set in. Don't wait longer—take Doan's Kidney Pills.
 David Campbell, 170 N. Eighteenth St., Portland, Ore., says: "My faith in Doan's Kidney Pills today is just as great as when I recommended them several years ago, the cure they performed in my case having proven permanent. Prior to using them, I suffered constantly from pains in my back and often was so weak and sore that it required quite an effort for me to stoop or lift. I tried various remedies and was treated by a physician, but the relief obtained was only temporary and I was at a loss to know how to dispose of my trouble. I read so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I was finally induced to try them. The contents of this box helped me so much that I continued taking the remedy and was soon cured."
 Plenty more proof like this from Oregon City people. Call at Huntley Bros. drug store and ask what their customers report. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McLburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
 Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

SEEING THE ALPS.
 Tourists Who Do Their Mountain Climbing by Telescope.
 The tourist of today who visits the Alps and who lacks the physical endurance or whose time is too limited to make the ascent of some of the famous peaks nevertheless is able closely to survey the panorama of mountain scenery through the medium of powerful telescopes located at the terminals of the mountain railroads. By this means the rocks and glaciers and peculiar formations of these historic mountains may be carefully studied, though the spectator need not approach them within many miles.
 Each of these mountain telescopes is mounted on a forked cradle and is so nicely balanced that its position may readily be fixed by the tightening of small screws after the focus has been adjusted with a hand wheel. The magnifying power of the instruments varies from 35 to 116 diameters, but is adapted for landscape observation only.
 When weather conditions are suitable, climbers on the Titis may be seen through the telescope at Uetliberg, near Zurich, a distance of forty miles, and the hotel on the Faulhorn, sixty miles away, may be recognized. Every step of the toilers on the slopes of the Matterhorn can be followed by means of the instrument on the Riffelalp above Zermatt. Several lives have been saved by the means of these glasses, for signals of distress on the mountains are seen by the watchers at the telescopes.—Harper's.

Wagner's Swan.
 What interests me about Wagner, says a writer in London Opinion, is his affection for live beasts and animals. In "Siegfried" we have a dragon, and in "Lohengrin" as you are all aware, there is a very beautiful swan. When the late Sir Augustus Harris produced the latter opera something went wrong with the bird. Just before the rise of the curtain, therefore, the audience was considerably surprised and startled to hear the indignant voice of one of the stage hands resounding from the realms behind inquiring with characteristic vigor, "What's the matter with that infernal duck?"

A Bifurcal Supposition.
 Miss Black—Mr. Brown, does you know what a bird of paradise is? Mr. Brown—Well, of course I don't know for sure, but when I get to de nex' world I wouldn't be a bit surprised ter disknaw dat it was a spring chicken.

A Birdseye View.
 The following incident occurred during a terrific thunderstorm at the home of a contractor who lives in the vicinity of Tampa, Fla. The contractor and his family were sitting on the veranda watching the storm when a bolt of lightning struck a tree not fifteen feet from where they were sitting.
 The shock was terrific, but no one was injured, although they were all badly frightened. The young son, with great excitement, was telling that he jumped two feet high.
 "How do you know you jumped a high?" said his father.
 "Why," said Johnnie, "I looked down while I was up."—You're kidding.
