SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Give Successful Hop.
The dance given in the Armory Hall last Friday night by the Bachelor Girls for the benefit of the McLaughlin home, was more successful than was first thought possible, and the members of the club feel justly proud to say that in addition to the large number attending enjoying a most pleasant evening, enough money was cleared to help materially in the work of moving the residence of the Father of Oregon to its permanent location at the head of Seventh street. The hall was attractively decorated in Oregon grape and Scotch broom, and the walls were covered with a profusion of pennants from all the leading colleges and schools in the nation.

The lights were yellow and green, and shed a soft glow over the dancers as they glided to the strains of Prang's orchestra from Portland, and one is safe in saying that this organization of skilled musicians were at their best on this occasion. Just opposite the music, a punch stand was placed beneath a bower of greenery and pennants, and here the delicious beverage was served.

The patronesses, Mesdames M. M. Charman, G. A. Harding, Dan O'Neill, W. E. Pratt and Miss M. L. Holmes, were seated at the right of the hall, and their place was also attractively decorated. In addition to the Oregon City people, a number of residents of Portland attended and they joined our townspeople in saying that the entertainers, the Bachelor Girls, have few equals and no superiors. The members of the club are Miss Anna Shannon, Miss Nieta Harding, Miss Dollie Pratt, Miss Essie Block, Miss Wynne Haney, Miss Merle Keck, Miss Elizabeth Roos, Miss Maribel Cheney, Miss Applegate and Miss June Charman.

C. T. Howard and crew are making great progress on the road leading east from the Molalla road into the Shaw neighborhood. Considerable blasting has been done, and all the stumps and rocks in the middle of the road have been taken out. We understand that Arthur Mallatt is in the ditch business.

DEFIES THE A.-Y.-P. FORCE

Superintendent Forbids Booth on Oregon Ground.

Seattle—Armed with a revolver and with 35 men held in reserve, F. J. Smith, superintendent of the Oregon building at the A.-Y.-P. Exposition last week stood off the workmen sent by Frank P. Allen, Jr., director of works at the exposition, to place a selling booth on the lawn in front of that building.

Director of Works Allen has planned to piece 100 booths about the grounds, where refreshments may be sold. Among the locations selected were four sites on the lawn at the Oregon building. When it was learned that the Oregon commission refused to allow the booths on the ground under its control, Director Allen threatened to use the exposition guards to enforce his orders.

Postal Officials Aroused.
Washington, May 26.—Stirred as it has not been over a train hold-up in years, the postoffice department has taken vigorous steps to capture the robbers and secure the booty taken by the men who held up and robbed the Union Pacific Overland Limited near Omaha last Saturday night. A picked force of postal inspectors is already on the scene.

Whooping Cough.
This is a more dangerous disease than is generally presumed. It will be a surprise to learn that more deaths result from it than from scarlet fever. Pneumonia often results from it. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, and always with the best results. Delbert McKeig of Harlan, Iowa, says of it: "My boy took whooping cough when nine months old. He had it in the winter. I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy which proved good. I can not recommend it too highly." For sale by Jones Drug Company.

Stafford.
Mrs. Mays, son and daughter, and little grandson, have all had the measles. No new cases are reported. Mr. Powell is also improving.

Zack Ellregeen has been blasting rocks for the foundation of his new barn, and has the one nearly torn away, as he will build upon the site of the old one.

Charlie Tiedeman will have his barn ready to raise next Thursday.

Mr. Gage has been cutting a field of clover to destroy sorrel, and will now let it go to seed, as clover seed always brings a fair price.

Miss Melinda Sharp is still under the doctor's care.
