

News of the County

Redland.
(Too late for last week.)
D. Potts is rushing his bungalow as fast as his men can put it up.
Several of the creditors of the Clear Creek Lumber Co. attended the creditor's meeting in Portland. Mr. Collins was re-appointed trustee and three disinterested parties were named to act as appraisers, by Chester Murphy, the referee. There is some talk about teamsters not getting the preferred claims. The Parkplace outfit and lumber has been sold for $1500 by Mr. Collins as assignee. There will be another meeting August 11 at 10 A. M. at the Panton building.
L. Funk is offering to sell or trade a registered Cotswold buck.
Considerable oat hay is down, which this weather is not benefiting.
Miss Hattie Gaskell of Seattle, Wash., is visiting Mrs. Funk.
Potatoes will be an immense crop and a good quality this year.
Wheat is showing the effect of the dry season as some of the meashes are blighted, but the grain is plump enough to make up for the shortages otherwise.
Oats headed short, but the grain will be good.
Peas are a good crop and corn is doing well.
Apples won't be more than about 40 per cent of a crop.
Grass in new cut fields is coming up nicely making good feed for dairy cows.

Barlow.
(Too late for last week.)
The Barlow Furniture Factory will soon be in operation.
Mr. Sage has his barn completed. Mrs. W. W. Shone and daughter, Bessie, and Will Tull returned from Seattle. All report an enjoyable time.
A number of people from Barlow attended the New Era campmeeting Sunday, among them were Major and Mrs. W. S. Tull, H. T. Melvin, Misses Ida and Olga Howe and Hattie Irwin, Messrs R. E. Irwin, C. G. Tull, D. Shephard, W. Andrews and C. Ogilvie. Colonel and Mrs. R. R. Bratton, of Portland, were visiting friends in Barlow last week.
Mrs. Harry Woods, of Portland, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. King.
George Stratton, of Weiser, Idaho, was visiting his aunt, Mrs. Ed Ogilvie, Saturday and Sunday.
Mrs. J. J. Wurfal has gone to shepherd's Warm Springs for her health. Grandma Assie returned Tuesday from a visit with her daughter in Seattle.
Mr. and Mrs. Berg, Mrs. Howe and Mr. Sandness drove to Silverton Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. White, wife of the Scandinavian minister.
The dance Saturday night given by Wood Andrews was well attended, a number of young people from Woodburn and Aurora being present.
Eugene and Otis Ogilvie, of Needy, attended the dance Saturday night.

Highland.
(Too late for last week.)
Tuesday night's rain and heavy fog laid all the heavy grain flat on the ground.
The farmers in this vicinity got off very lucky again as nearly everyone had their hay in before the rain.
Dot Shocksley is back home from Neely.
Lance Schockley is back home from Crook county.
Will McIntyre is back from the logging camp.

Mecksburg.
(Too late for last issue.)
H. H. Hepler has built a new kitchen to his house which adds greatly to the appearance of his place.
Peter Nertz is building a new house on his fine farm. Keep your ears close to the ground boys.
Rudolph Klans has added a new kitchen to his house and also new sheds to his barn.
Will Holz has purchased a new Deering binder from W. Fry, of Aurora. Macksburg people are going back on Canby dealers.
Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Welch, on the 10th, a son.
The recent rains are doing a great deal of damage to the hay and grain which has been harvested.
Miss Alfreda Sanner of Portland visited her sister, Mrs. F. Yohann Sunday and Monday.
Charles Morris is building a new house. Keep your eyes on him, boys.
William Yohanna, of Portland, is up with his folks for a few days this week.
Mr. Potrats has erected a new barn on his place.
Born, on July 20th, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yohann, an 8 pound boy. All are getting along nicely and Pa wears a smile that won't go away.

Welches.
(Too late for last issue.)
Miss Beatrice Murphy is home again. She has been visiting relatives and friends in Portland the past two months.
Mr. Harold, who has a lot in Yacoltina Villa, is camping on the grounds while her cottage is being built.
The new foot bridge across the Sandy river is nearing completion.
Friends and neighbors numbering about 50 gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Murphy last Wednesday evening. The grounds were beautifully lighted with Japanese lanterns and bonfires, and music and a sociable good time was enjoyed by all.
Mrs. J. Hat and children are camping on the Welch camp grounds.
Henry Aschoff and wife are getting settled in their new home, the ranger's cabin on the main road.
Henry Oakes killed a big chinquapin bear near his home Sunday. A large timber wolf is also very much at home in that vicinity and all will honor the hunter who gets his hide as he is the terror of the neighborhood.
Mr. and Mrs. Espy are in their cottage at Welches camp ground.

Russellville.
(Too late for last issue.)
We have been visited by almost all kinds of weather except a news-storm, which failed to come.
People are playing the jump and grab play with their haying. Some people said after the Fourth there was no danger of rain for there was no signs of rain, but we find it will rain without any notice.
Now it seems like rain is in sight, and every man who can lift a bunch of hay is in the field. Some men are Mountain View.

Messrs Emil Schwack, Will Stromgreen, J. W. Curran and J. M. Gillert are making preparations to go to the huckleberry patch.
Mr. and Mrs. Hall had friends visiting them last week from Kansas and they started Sunday to visit the A. Y. P. Fair.
Miss Gladys Jackson of Portland is the guest of Misses Pearl and Ruby Francis this week.
Miss Ella Darling has a cousin from Iowa visiting her this month.
Mrs. A. H. Torrance who is working in Portland spent last Sunday at home.
Miss Bertha May and sister, Mrs. Jennie Miller and three children went to Estacada Tuesday morning on the car to spend a few days with their sister, Mrs. Olive Exon and family.
A. S. Kishsmith is building an addition to his house.
Mr. Vexley has his new barn finished. Curtis Selby was helping with the work.
Mrs. May Fairclough came home from the A. Y. P. Fair last week very much pleased with her visit with Mrs. Jennie Curran and daughter, Myrtle. She expects to go to the Ogle Mountain Mines the latter part of this week to rusticate for two months.
Charlie Dickey and wife of Gladstone were visiting relatives and friends here Sunday.
Mrs. Vada King of Portland accompanied by her daughter and niece Vivian Jones, spent a few days last week with Mrs. Faust.
Mrs. A. L. Jones and Mrs. Kate Goucher of Eldorado called on friends in this berg last week.

Marks Prairie.
About all the grain here is in the shock and next week threshing will commence.
A great deal of hay has been almost ruined by the rain, and good hay is very high in price.
A party composed of George Oglesby, James Y. Oglesby and wife, Casper Kerr and wife and daughters, Anna and Alice and Frank Rhodes and wife and son have just returned from an outing at Nestucca Bay and Slab Creek. They report a fine time. They encountered lots of rain and mud, but being no tenderfoot did not mind the rain.
Cap Kerr and family of Milwaukie spent several days visiting his brother-in-law, George Oglesby the past week.
John E. Wells and family and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oglesby went up on the Mollala Sunday and caught some fine trout, but did not get the limit.
Charles Oglesby and George Hardisty spent Sunday at Wilhoit Springs. The best crop of grain raised here for years is being harvested at present.
All garden truck is first class, thanks to the rain, if it did spoil some.
Our hop raisers are spraying their hops and big efforts are being made to save the growing hop crop. The Vermilion is the worst ever seen here. Some will spray three or four times if possible. Should hot weather come in a few days we will be all right, but should it continue cloudy, we fear for the crop.
Ye scribe was out inspecting several hop yards to-day, and finds the yards badly infested with Vermilion, 10 cents per box or 80 cents per hundred will be the price paid for picking hops here.

NOTICE TO THRESHERMEN.

The Courier has published and has on sale some very handy order books with time pages attached, for the use of Threshermen. Already several Threshermen throughout the county have called for these books and have expressed themselves as finding the books just what they need to not only have a signed order from their customers, but also to have a handy time record for men in their employ. Call at the Courier and get one of these handy record books.

presented in simplicity and many hearing had faith in God, (no Wood, Stone or any other man or sect) and obeyed the command as exemplified by Christ by going down into the water of the Mollala river, the "Jordan" of this locality and we feel some, even our old friend at Liberal, was made glad.
Dr. Powell's new residence is nearing completion. The new white paint adorning the walls add much to the appearance of the South End.
W. D. Adam's new dwelling on the East End is about all under roof.
Our cheese factory is taking in about 2,000 pounds of milk daily, which is very good for a start.
Hans Larsen upset his woodsawing machine one evening last week, fortunately with little damage.
Miss Evelyn and Blanch Hamilton, stenographers for the Flint Glass Works and the Equitable Life Insurance Company at Pittsburg, Pa., who have been visiting Mrs. Mary B. Lett, at Oak Point Farm for ten days have gone to visit a brother and sister at Nampa, Idaho on their return East. They think the West a delightful place to live in and will feel more enthusiastic with our country when they again come in contact with the sulphurous fumes and soot of the Metallic City.
Fred Watts is building a granary in which to house his prospective bounteous crop.
Kayler and Herman will begin clover hulling this week.
John H. Vick, who sustained a fracture of his arm several weeks ago, is getting along well.
Mrs. E. L. B. and Nanie Thomas returned from Albany the first of the week, where they were visiting relatives for a few days.

KING OF THROAT AND LUNG REMEDIES

DR. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY

FOR COUGHS AND COLDS CURES ALL THROAT AND LUNG DISEASES

SAVED HER SON'S LIFE

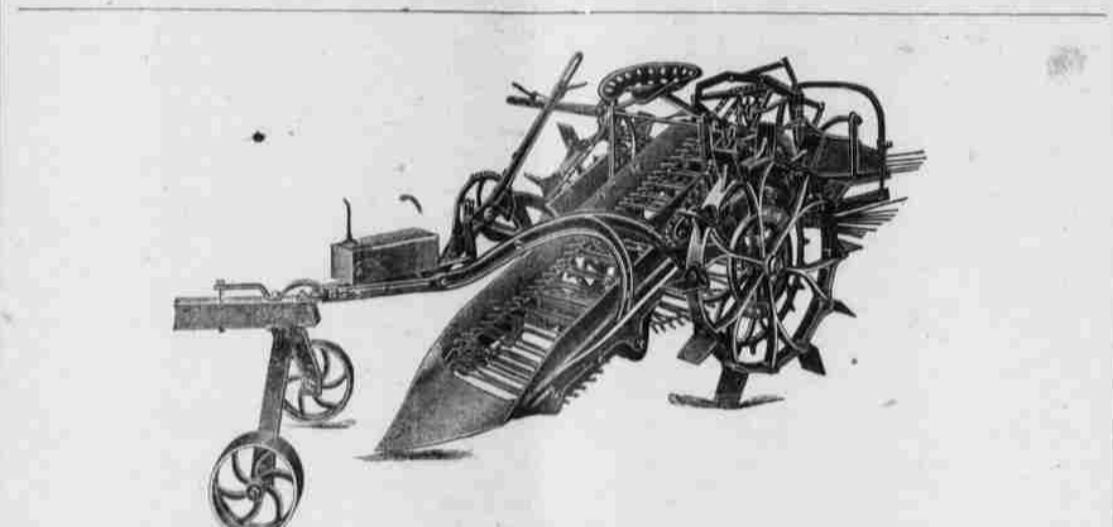

My son Rex was taken down with lung trouble. We doctored some months without improvement. Then I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, and I soon noticed a change for the better. I kept this treatment up for a few weeks and now my son is perfectly well and works every day.

MRS. SAMP. RIPPEE, Ava, Mo.

50c AND $1.00

SOLD AND GUARANTEED BY JONES DRUG COMPANY

THE HOOVER POTATO DIGGER

Digs Them All and Digs Them Right

No farmer would ever return to the old method of digging potatoes after he has once used a Hoover Digger. This digger gets them all. It does not chop or scrape the potatoes but leaves them clean on top of the rows. It is an extremely light draft machine and is exceptionally well made. We also have in stock the Hoover Picker Digger a machine which not only digs potatoes but deposits them in a box or crate fastened to the machine and saves the labor of picking up the potatoes. These are machines which ought to be of interest to every potato grower. Let us know if you are interested and we will send you our catalogue and circulars.

SANDERS Disc Plow FOR Dry or Sticky Land

Ask us about it - Information FREE

Weismandel Bros.
Oregon City Agents.

PORTLAND, OR.
SPOKANE, Wash.
BOISE, Idaho

Logan.
T. W. Foster will build a house for Mr. Allen of Redland.
The Logan ball team defeated the damascus nine on July 24th.
C. C. Robbins and family were out on July 24th and the writer took a fishing trip to Springwater in his automobile. If all our old hayseeds could take a ride in the wind splitters once in a while, we would be more patient when our motive power gets scarce at them. We suggest that owners start a campaign of education by giving us free rides; address on application. Maybe our fortunes will come up and up and prices come down until they meet on the automobile level.
J. C. Kirehem and wife have gone for a few months visit with the latter's brother, John Cubbin, at Lostine, Walla-walla county. Mr. Cubbin has been having poor health of late.
Homer Rowan and family are with P. P. Wilson for the haying season.
Norval Kirehem is delivering peas to store customers, satisfaction guaranteed.
We are in favor of calling the referendum on this haying and harvest weather.

Mollala.
Evangelist Wood organized the Church of Christ with some fifty charter members, baptizing many who were of the M. E. sect.
Some one, jokingly of course, seasoned with some grain of earnestness offered the Evangelist $10 to put the local pastor under water, but the third person said that would never do for the sect to be deprived of a quorum.
Brother Liberal, please allow us to correct your item of last week in regard to the "Rev." converting many to his faith. You probably did not attend those meetings. The word was great deal of his time in our burg trying his automobile.

Several of our people attended the dance at Monitor Saturday evening and report a good time.
Mr. and Mrs. John Nobilt and Mrs. Clifford of Mollala came down Sunday to gather hazel nuts and enjoy an outing on Mr. Nobilt's place here.
John Gahlor, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Askins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nobilt attended the camp meeting at New Era on the 1st.
Martha Hoffman from Hubbard is visiting with her uncle, Charles Hoffman.
Mrs. J. Gahlor and children were guests at the Carother's home Sunday.
Miss Ethel Owens, who has been quite ill, is reported better. Dr. B. F. Giesey is in attendance.
Frank Knopf has returned from Ashland, where he has been working on a house.
Miss Kate Ritter is spending a few days on Mark's Prairie with her cousin, Lizzie Zimmerman.
Ralph Yoder of Smyrna drove through our burg Monday, enroute for Hubbard to meet a friend.
Jesse Mitts, who has been East on a visit returned home Saturday.
Miss Tena Struve and brother, Ernest, accompanied by a friend enjoyed a drive Friday.
Eagle Creek.
Frank Doty and Miss Echo Githens of Currinsville were visiting friends at Highland Saturday and Sunday.
Ed Douglass went to the mountains Sunday and picked about forty gallons of blackberries. Good for you Ed we will have plenty of pie next winter.
Ern Douglass was the guest of Minnie Davis Sunday.
Frank Doty and Jack Nelson are cutting about eight cords of wood a day near Estacada.
Elmer Douglass was seen on the streets of Eagle Creek Sunday.

There will be a wrestling match and dance by Frank Doty and Jack Nelson at Sandy, August 14.
Mr. McQuaid and Luemina Covert were quietly married at Eagle Creek Sunday. The boys gave them a grand serenade.
Grover Judd of Barton was a caller at Mr. Scott's Sunday.
A coyote was seen by Mrs. Fred Ely one day last week down by the Eagle Creek bridge, it chased Lulu Doty and Charlie Sparks up the hill.
Miss Gussie Githens has been busy picking loganberries this week. They had a very large crop this year.

Firwood.
A lecture will be given at the Firwood hall Sunday evening, August 8, at 8:30, by Mr. W. J. Wertz. Every body invited.
Mrs. E. D. Hart was shopping in Portland last Wednesday.
August Stuebel came up from Kelso Saturday to visit his parents.
Miss Ethel Hart spent a few days in Portland last week.
Roy Howe has returned from Forest Grove, where he has been working for some time.

Woodburn.
Woodburn has the paving fever at last and hopes to have Front street paved before winter. Councilman Poorman and Altnow went to Portland last week to consult with the railroad officials who will have to pave half the street.
Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hall returned home Sunday evening from a visit to their daughter, Mrs. C. E. Tyler of Mc. Gowan, Wash. They also visited at Seattle, Tacoma, Long Beach and other Washington resorts and report a fine time.
The small boys have been making quite a bit of money selling cherries at the trains. One boy put $50 in the bank as the result of his work. The passengers were anxious to get the cherries at 5 cents a sack.
Miss Mabel Bitner is visiting friends in Portland this week.
A good many Eastern people are coming to Woodburn to visit old friends. They all fall in love with Oregon and say they intend to move here as soon as possible.
All the Woodburn people need to do to make rain is to engage Seio to play ball here. It never fails.
Mr. Teller Johnson of Mulino spent Sunday in Woodburn with friends.
Several of the Woodburn men have gone to Idaho to register for the drawing on the reservation lands.

Teazel Creek.
Harvest has begun in earnest. Everyone is rushing to get their late hay in before another shower and be ready for the grain. Several are already getting in their fall grain.
Dart, Quint, Judd and Cardill delivered a drove of lambs at Oregon City last Tuesday.
Anthony Moore boarded the auto stage for Oregon City last Tuesday, where he went on business.
Our local auto trains can not be depended upon, as they are laid up for repair so much of the time.
Preaching at Teazel Creek next Sunday all are invited.
Aunt Mary Kaylor of Mollala was visiting friends at Teazel Creek this week.

Clarkes.
Mr. Frank Ringo is visiting friends in Clarkes and Highland.
Sam Elmer purchased a new binder, a mower and hay rake.
Rev. Pepper will preach two more Sundays at this church and then his time will expire.
Hank Grossmiller and Clarence Lee left for Bunch Grass last week. They are going to bring back about five or six hundred head of horses with them.
Frank Nicholas killed a large panther last week.
E. A. Cummins is contemplating shutting his mill down for a while and some of the hands are going to the mountains and get eight or ten panthers and twenty or thirty bear and seventy five or a hundred deer.
W. McIntyre left for the logging camp Saturday, but I don't think he will stay long. I don't see how he can.

Russellville.
After a week's rain and cloudy weather we once more have some sunshine. Much hay has been damaged.
We hope now that we can have some harvest weather.
T. H. Barnes of Liberal has been visiting in Russellville for a week. Mrs. Barnes is on the sick list. While in our country they went to Mr. Lehman's mill and also to the Wilhoit Springs, which we think a treat.
Summer months are passing and the Spring visitors are not so plentiful as in former years.
The rainy days here have been good for all kinds of garden stuff, although potatoes are most benefited. Grass is growing fine. Oats that were cut for hay have taken the second growth and will be fine. Wheat is getting ripe and is of a good quality.
Scott Carter has purchased a new cart for the purpose of training his young horses to work single, which is very useful.
Mr. Davidson of this country had quite a fire which by some means caught on the roof. A fire ran about a fourth of a mile to get help and fortunately the house was saved though by a great effort.
Mr. Fisher of the Big Bend of Mollala was seen passing through our country with his best girl. It looks suspicious, although all signs fall in dry weather and also in wet weather, still we hope for the best.
Mr. Boyles and wife have returned from an extended trip in Linn county. They expect to change locations this fall.
Dudley Boyles, who has been in Eastern Oregon for his health is going to be with us soon. His health is very poor.
P. M. Boyles has been working for Mr. Koehler of Canby setting up blinds.

Eagle Creek.
Again we are enjoying fine weather. Most of the hay in this neighborhood is at last hauled in, but considerable of it was damaged.
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Howlett were visiting with Mrs. Glover last Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Gibson were seen on the hill Sunday afternoon at James Gibson's.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cooke of Damascus accompanied by two young ladies of Damascus passed through here on their way to the blackberry patch last Friday. On their return home

Cochiera Infantum Cured.
"Something like two years ago my baby, which was then about a year old, was taken seriously ill with cholera infantum, vomiting and purging profusely," writes J. F. Demsey of Dempsy, Ala. "I did what I could to relieve her but did her no good, and being very much alarmed about her went for a physician but failed to find one, so came back by Elder Bros. & Carter's store and Mr. Elder recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy. I procured a bottle of it, went home as quickly as possible and gave the baby a dose of the remedy. It relieved her in fifteen minutes and soon cured her entirely." For sale by Jones Drug Company.

Fortune Telling

Does not take into consideration the one essential to woman's happiness—womanly health.

The woman who neglects her health is neglecting the very foundation of all good fortune. For without health love loses its lustre and gold is but dust.

Womanly health when lost or impaired may generally be regained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This Prescription has, for over 40 years, been curing delicate, weak, pain-weak women, by the hundreds of thousands and this too in the privacy of their homes without their having to submit to indecate questionings and offensively repugnant examinations.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. All correspondence held as sacredly confidential. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. PIERCE'S GREAT FAMILY DOCTOR BOOK, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, newly revised up-to-date edition—1000 pages, answers 75 Plain English hosts of delicate questions which every woman, single or married, ought to know about. Sent free, in plain wrapper to any address on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover mailing only, or in cloth binding for 31 stamps.

