Considerable interest has been manifested throughout the Northwest this week by the publishing of the list of the winners in the Government land drawing at the Couer D'Alene Indian Reservation, and so far the names of five residents of this county have been drawn. Of these, the best number drawn is that of Peter J. Frey, a well known young man of this city. He has a good chance to get a valuable strip of land, and his many friends in this city are freely giving him the glad hand over his success. Not far behind Frey was Albert Zanders, an Oak Grove resident, whose name was the 278th drawn. E. R. McLain and H. T. Crawford, both residents of this city, drew the former 718 and the latter 950. Lawrence I. Snyder, one of Aurora's well known citizens, was also lucky, drawing number 2680.

Wedding at Leberal.

At the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Bradbury of Liberal, August 8, at noon, Miss Elizabeth Bradbury became the wife of Carl Potwin. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Davenport. The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of cream silk and carried a large bouquet of carnations and bride's roses. The groom wore the conventional color. The rooms were tastefully decorated with wild fern, Oregon grape and a profusion of flowers. After the ceremony was performed and the congratulations of many friends received a sumptuous dinner was served to which each guest did ample justice. At two o'clock the happy couple were whirled away in an automobile to Canby, where they took the train for a short trip to the coast and a visit, on their return, with friends in Portland. Mr. Potwin is a young man of good habits who has spent the greater part of his life near Hubbard. Mrs. Potwin is a popular young school teacher who has taught in the schools of Oregon for the past two years and who has made many friends among her pupils and their parents. The young couple will be at home to their many friends after September first, on a farm near Aurora, Oregon.

Miss Jewell Entertained. Miss Mary Adele Case will have as her guest today Miss Izetta Jewell, of Portland. Miss Case will go to the city and will return with Miss Jewell in her electric car to her home in Falls View addition, where the two ladies, who have become celebrated throughout the west and in fact very largely over the whole world, will enjoy the day. Miss Case will take great pleasure in driving Miss Jewell about this city behind her famous horse showing her how to properly handle the ribbons in driving a fine blooded animal, while Miss Jewell will be equally well pleased to offer Miss Case some information in the handling of a beautiful electric auto. A dainty luncheon is prepared for the afternoon and one or two of Miss Jewell's friends will be present to be entertained by Miss Case.

Stafford. We are having excellent weather for harvest, with very little smut in grain as far as heard from.

The young people of Stafford enjoyed a very pleasant evening at Mr. Scribner's last week.

Quite a number of families are afflicted with measles and the Deikar children have measles and whooping cough, too. This is a great strain on the little tots.

Lonie Schroeder, who is thought to have consumption has been out to the old home.

Farm help is pretty scarce, but the farmers are doing nicely by helping each other.

Threshing has already begun, although some pieces of Spring grain will not be ready to cut for some time yet.

The Hohners' band sent out a couple of young ladies who preached in the school house last Sunday. They were good singers also.

There will be preaching there every second Sunday at 2:30 and 8:00 P. M.
