

This Girl fell in Love THAT'S HER BUSINESS

This Young Man Fell in Love THAT'S HIS BUSINESS

They got Married THAT'S THEIR BUSINESS

We Furnished Their Home THAT'S OUR BUSINESS

They Saved 25 Per Cent. AND HE, SHE, THEY AND WE ARE ALL HAPPY-- Whose Business is That?

Getting married is an important event in everyone's life--next in importance, in fact, to getting born; but one has little--in fact, nothing--to say about getting born. That's why we put up such a big howl, so soon after the event eventuates. But getting married is the most important event in our lives that is subject to our own control. All the world not only loves a lover, but loves to see them get married--and a furniture man enjoys seeing and hearing of the marriages fully as well as he enjoys getting married himself. Formerly it was the custom for mothers to cry when "Susie" got married, but we have seen no mothers weep at the wedding of their daughters for the past 20 months--not since we went into the furniture business. Has the custom changed? Or is it because they know that most any kind of a man can give his bride an elegantly furnished home at our VERY LOW EAST SIDE NO-RENT PRICES?

In Our Complete Outfits You Make the Greatest Savings--Easily 25 per Cent

Every merchant has his leaders, his special sales. The highest-price furniture man in town may have one article on special sale today at or nearly at cost, and tomorrow have on sale something else on which he will make no profit during the special sale. Everybody understands this, or at least they should understand it. Naturally if you should go to the low-priced house in the city on the same day and priced the same article, you would find it higher than the "Special" price, unless the low priced house should happen to have the same article on special sale at the same time. Therefore Special Sales are absolutely worthless as evidence or proof that any firm is a low-priced house. But special sales oftentimes do furnish proof of High Regular Prices--the prices that the complete house-furnisher goes up against. This is particularly noticeable in "Half-price" sales, for it is plainly evident that goods must first be marked double their cost, or at the rate of 100 per cent profit before they can be reduced one-half, or 50 per cent, unless the merchant is "specializing" his goods below cost, which everyone knows he does not do once in a hundred sales. Now we have been as desirous of making a deep impression with our "Special" bargains as have others, but you never see special reductions exceeding 25 per cent, or one fourth, made by us. Why? our Furniture is regularly priced so much lower than elsewhere that all of our prices are "Special" prices--Extraordinary Bargains. That is why our business has grown so very, very rapidly. The number of complete outfits that we have sold is something wonderful. And the reason is that in a big bill the savings are so evident, so noticeable, that no one can fail to see and appreciate it and to send their friends.

That's the Reason We Had to Erect a Big New Building Our Second Year

In November, we expect to be in our new building. Next month we will begin moving furniture. All our eastern purchases are being timed to go into our new home. And we want to move as little furniture as possible--having a natural pride to have everything new; therefore during September we will cash in thousands of dollars worth of goods at little or no profit. This will particularly apply to all samples, broken lines and heavy furniture. You want to look out for our ads and also visit our store. We show the same courtesy to the person who wishes to price furniture as to the one who comes to buy. In fact, that has been our long suit. We have sold more goods to "lookers" first and last, than any two houses in the city. If they don't buy then, we know that they will return and buy--after getting prices elsewhere--and be even better satisfied; not every body of course, but 90 per cent of them. THEN WHY SHOULDN'T WE BE GLAD TO CAREFULLY SHOW PEOPLE OUR GOODS AND GIVE THEM PRICES?

Carload of Ranges Slaughtered

Ranges are awfully heavy and cumbersome to move. We have about two carloads on hand--steel, cast and malleable--and are anxious to close out at least a carload within the next 20 days. We have therefore placed on sale a complete line of high-class ranges at 25 per cent. Reduction. With some merchants a 25 per cent reduction would not mean that you were then getting an extraordinary bargain, but at the prices our goods are marked it means that we absolutely make no money on them.

Our New Building

Extraordinary Rug Reductions

We have one of the largest stocks of Rugs in the city, hundreds of Rugs that we cannot show in our present cramped quarters. We want to sell several hundred this month. We desire especially to call your attention to the fine Wiltons we have on Sale at $30.00. These are 9x12 ft., new and of the latest designs. Others would call them $45 and $50 Wiltons, but we value them at $40. WILTON VELVET RUGS, Special - - - $30

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

September 19, 1909. Review. Golden Text for the Quarter--So mightily grew the Word of God and prevailed.--Acts xix:20. The following review can be used as a complete lesson in itself, or as a review of the eleven preceding lessons. The date and title of each lesson and where found, the Golden Text, and one question from each lesson follow: July 4--Acts xv:36 to xvi:15 Paul's Second Missionary Journey--Antioch to Philippi. Golden Text: Acts xvi:9. Come over into Macedonia and help us. Verse 87-89--If a man shows lack of courage, or tact, or faithfulness, in one position, does that in any measure disqualify him from getting another, or from access when in another position? July 11--Acts xvi:16-40. Paul's Second Missionary Journey--The Philippian Jailor. Golden Text: Acts xvi:31. Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved. Verse 18--In what class do you put those who, knowingly, either directly or indirectly, profit by the sins of fallen women? July 18--Acts xvii:1-15. Paul's Second Missionary Journey--Thessalonica and Berea. Golden Text: Psalm 119:11. Thy word have I hid in my heart, that I might not sin against thee. Verse 2--Is it necessary for us to adopt all Paul's opinions, deductions, and prognostications in order to be well pleasing to God? July 25--Acts xvii:16-34. Paul's Second Missionary Journey--Athens. Golden Text: John iv:24. God is a Spirit, and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. Verse 18--Which brings the more lasting happiness and "develops the nobler character, and why, the Epicurean philosophy, a life devoted to the pleasures of sense; or the Stoic, Christian philosophy, a life devoted to the service of others, and to self-denial? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.) August 1--Acts xviii:1-32. Gloss of Paul's 2d Missionary Journey. Golden Text: John xvi:24. In the world ye shall have tribulation, but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world. Verses 2-8--A goodly proportion of the membership of the church have the ability to preach; ought not this ability to be developed, thus giving to every local church several preachers who could divide the preaching between them, paying only one a salary, who would thus have time to act as pastor? August 8--I Thess. v:12-24. Paul's Instructions to the Thessalonians. Golden Text: I Thess. v:15. See that none render evil for evil unto any man, but ever follow that which is good. Verse 21--Can the real truth ever be a hurt to a true man, and should not such a man be as glad to change his opinions, when he finds he is wrong, as to change a worn-out garment for a new one? August 15--Acts xviii:28 to xix:22. Paul's Third Missionary Journey--Ephesus. Golden Text: Acts xix:17. The name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. Verse 28--Why is it that God has conditioned all extension of human progress and betterment, including salvation itself, upon the zeal, ability, and goodness of those who already enjoy its benefits? August 22--Acts xix:23 to xx:1. Paul's Third Missionary Journey--The riot in Ephesus. Golden Text: II Cor. xii:9. He said unto me, My grace is sufficient for you; for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Verses 25-27--When the general welfare of the people is injured by the business of the few, is it or not, the duty of the state to make such business illegal? August 29--I Cor. xiii:13. Paul on Christian Love. Golden Text: I Cor. xiii:13. Now abideth faith, hope and love, these three; but the greatest of these is. Verses 4-7--Why is it that love tends to promote patience, politeness, kindness, gentleness, humility and every other virtue?

September 5--Acts xx:23-38. Paul's Third Missionary Journey--Farewell. Golden Text: Phil. iv:13. I can do all things through Christ, which strengtheneth me. Verses 7-12--Why is it that church members will listen, unwearyed, for hours to a political speech and get tired of even a good sermon if it lasts longer than thirty minutes? September 12--Acts xxiii:1-7. Close of Paul's Third Missionary Journey. Golden Text: Acts xxi:14. The will of the Lord be done. Verse 5-9. Should Christian parents train their children from infancy to know God, to be skillful in prayer, in faith and in good works? Lesson for Sunday, September 20--Temperance lesson. I Cor. x:23-33. Louis Funk of Redland spent Tuesday afternoon transacting business matters in this city.
