Why Druggists Recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy
Mr. Frank C. Hanrahan, a prominent druggist of Portsmouth, Va., says: "For the past six years I have sold and recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a great remedy and one of the best patent medicines on the market. I handle some others for the same purposes that pay me larger profit, but this remedy is so sure to effect cures, and my customer so sure to appreciate my recommending it to him, that I give it the preference." For sale by the Jones Drug Co.

Webb-Fazackerly
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Wray in Canamal Saturday evening a pretty wedding occurred when Miss Ada Alice Webb became the wife of Joseph Fazackerly, the ceremony being performed by Rev. T. F. Bowen, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church of this city. The bride was tastefully decorated for the occasion with China Ast-ers, ferns and evergreens, and presented a pretty appearance. Promptly at 7 o'clock, the ceremony took place. The bride was handsomely attired in a gown of white satin. Mrs. Wray was the maid of honor while Samuel Wray acted in the capacity of best man. After the ceremony the guests partook of excellent refreshments.
The nuptials were the result of a pretty romance, which had its beginning in Eugene, where both of the contracting parties resided. Mr. Fazackerly has lived in this place for the past two or three years, while the bride has been here but a few weeks.
The happy couple received many beautiful and valuable presents from their friends. Those who were present at the ceremony were: Mrs. Jack Baker, Mrs. Edna McIsaac and Miss Ruth McIsaac, of Portland; Miss Hamilton, of Tacoma, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. James Wray, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Fazackerly, Samuel Fazackerly, William Fazackerly, A. F. Stokes, W. B. Stokes, S. Stevens, Mrs. Clara Fields, Mr. and Mrs. Biggin, of Lanchashire, England; Miss Minnie L. Rakel, Miss Ada Frost, Mrs. James Lindsay.
Mooney-Kuppenbender Nuptials
St. John's Catholic Church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 9:30 Tuesday morning when Miss Anna Mooney was united in matrimony to Herbert Kuppenbender. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. A. Hillebrand, and was witnessed by quite a number of friends of the contracting parties. The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of white silk, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor, Miss Antonette Kuppenbender, a sister of the groom, wore blue silk, and also carried a bouquet. The best man was Michael Walsh, a cousin of the bride's. After the ceremony, the party repaired to the home of the bride's parents at Clackamas, where a reception was held and where the wedding breakfast was served. Mrs. Kuppenbender has resided in Oregon City for several years, and her charming disposition and winning manner has gained a host of friends. The groom is also well known both in this city and in Maple Lane, where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kuppenbender, have a fine farm, and he is a favorite among his acquaintances, all of whom join with the Courier in wishing the happy couple a happy and prosperous voyage over the matrimonial sea. It is the intention of Mr. and Mrs. Kuppenbender to make their home in Maple Lane.
DAVIES WILL PROBATED
Late Maple Lane Resident Leaves Property to Children
The will of the late Thomas Davies, a well known resident of this county, who died recently at his home in Maple Lane, was probated last week. In it he bequeaths his property, valued at $8000 to his five children: John R. Mary I., Thomas H., Lewis M. and Sarah E. Gwillell, the estate to be equally divided. In the will, Mr. Davies named his son, John K. Davies, as administrator; William Anderson, J. D. Renner and George Wishart have been named as appraisers.
