

BULL DOG SET AFIRE

Dastardly Crime at Gladstone Brought to Light

CITIZENS ARE AROUSED

Party Who Saturated Dog With Kerosene Is Being Eagerly Sought For

Officers and members of the Clackamas County Humane Society are putting forth every effort to apprehend one who poses as a human being, but who proved their brutality by saturating a bull dog with kerosene, and then igniting the beast's hair with a match one day last week. The dog which was the property of Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler of Gladstone, taking advantage of the fact that Mr. Wheeler was confined to a Portland hospital and Mrs. Wheeler was sick, left the yard, returning a very short time later suffering intensely from its severe burns. Its back enveloped in a mass of flames, Humane Officer D. W. Bradley, of this city was summoned by Mrs. Wheeler, and in order to put the suffering canine out of its misery, it was killed. A storm of indignation has arisen as a result of the outrage, and every possible effort is being made to apprehend and punish the culprit being tried.

All entertaining during the past several days centered on Thursday evening of last week when the Oregon City Commercial Club entertained the teachers of Clackamas county, who were in this city attending the Annual Teachers' Institute. The reception was held in the spacious parlors of the Commercial Club and about 250 people were present to enjoy the impromptu talks, the splendid music and the informal chats with newly made acquaintances.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Thomas F. Ryan, Mrs. Hugh S. Meant, Mrs. Ernest A. Sommer, Mrs. W. A. Shewman, Mrs. Edward Schwab, Mrs. Linn E. Jones, Mrs. Ernest P. Rands, Mrs. George C. The chair was well occupied for the evening by E. J. Gary, county superintendent of schools, whose side remarks on various speakers were of much interest. Hon. Thomas F. Ryan, president of the Commercial Club, warmly welcomed the teachers to our city and to the club rooms and was followed by George A. Harding, chairman of the board of directors of the city schools; Fred J. S. Toole, superintendent of the Oregon City schools; E. D. Reesler, head of the department of industrial pedagogy of the Oregon Agricultural College; Hon. J. H. Ackerman, state superintendent of public instruction; Hon. J. U. Campbell, circuit judge, and R. F. Robinson, superintendent of the Mount Hood county schools.

One of the most pleasing features of the evening was the two groups of songs by Mrs. Imogene Harding Brodie, of Portland, whose extensive acquaintance with the teachers made it doubly enjoyable to the guests. Miss Evieene Galbreath of Portland was her accompanist.

Light refreshments with punch were served, Mr. Portner looking after those much sought for delicacies.

The affair throughout shows the good spirit of the citizens generally in the warm welcome extended those who may be visiting in our city, and it is the intention of the board of governors of the club to entertain to a considerable extent through the winter months.

JENNINGS LODGE DOINGS

By Our Special Correspondent

A petition is being circulated for a five cent car fare from the Lodge to Oregon City which if granted would help this place. Our straight fare to Portland is 50c, and 10c to Oregon City making a discrimination of 5c against our station. Meltram will be only a few blocks away has the same rate to Portland and a five cent fare to Oregon City, and for this reason most of our people buy their Portland ticket books reading from Meltram, and in going to Oregon City ninety-five per cent of our people on their return, and get off there on their return, as they feel that this five cents for a few blocks is unjust, and because of these conditions our people are caused much inconvenience and we feel justified in getting up the petition for the five cent rate.

Mr. Truscott is assisting Mr. Painton with his well drilling and at present they are drilling a well for Mr. Peter Rinehart on Gladstone.

Mrs. Rice has returned from a two weeks' visit at Hood River and is enjoying a visit from her son, Mr. Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Scripture of Oregon City spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Roberts.

Hank Smith of Canby spent a few days at the Lodge last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Boardman transacted business in Portland on Monday.

Miss Helen Painton has returned from a week's visit in Portland at the home of her uncle, G. F. Morse and her cousin, Miss Harriet Conroy. George Morse left on Tuesday for a trip to Lincoln county. He will visit at N. Asville and will be a guest of Mr. Butler of Corvallis, a former Iowa friend.

The following officers were also elected at the meeting: Trustees, Lewellyn Adams and Mrs. M. M. Charnock; treasurer, Mrs. T. L. MRS. BAILEY IS LAID TO REST

Funeral of Well Known Woman Thursday Attended by Many Friends

Last Thursday occurred the funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Bailey, who passed away Tuesday at the family home about two miles south of this city. The funeral services which were largely attended, were held at the Bailey farm, being conducted by Rev. T. F. Bowen, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church of this city. The many beautiful floral offerings received, attested the esteem in which the departed woman was held by her wide circle of acquaintances. The remains were laid to rest in Mountain View Cemetery.

Deceased was born in 1826, in Staffordshire, England, and with her husband and family, came to America in 1861. Arriving in this section, they were pleased with the country, and purchased a farm, where they have since resided. ERNST GIVEN YEAR'S TERM

Defaulting Insurance Agent Is Sentenced Saturday

Embezzled $350 From Continental Casualty Company and "Skiddooed"

Sigmund Ernst, the insurance man whose operations in this county this spring and summer caused a great deal of comment, was sentenced to serve a year in the state penitentiary by Judge Campbell of the circuit court Saturday. Ernst, who served a term in the Oregon penitentiary sometime ago, came to this place last spring in the capacity of special agent for the Continental Casualty Company. Being of German descent, he made out many policies for persons of that nationality, and his collections amounted to a considerable sum. During the summer he married Mrs. Augusta Stewart, a well known and respected lady living at Clackamas Heights, and tried to force her to turn her business and assets over to him.

Falling in his purpose, he treated her in a cruel manner, and one day made himself conspicuous by his absence, taking with him among other things a bottle of wine that had been given to his wife as a wedding present. Following his disappearance, the insurance company found that the absent Sigmund had been negligent in his business affairs, and had failed to turn in about $350 of the company's money. The authorities were notified throughout the valley, but for quite awhile, the artful Sig managed to elude his pursuers. He was finally arrested at Harrisburg, in Linn county, through a clever bit of snuffing on the part of Constable Miles.

Ernst was taken to Salem Saturday evening by Sheriff Beattie. Sigmund was highly indignant at the sentence imposed on him.

CLOTHIERS LOSE TO LOCAL ELEVEN

Game at Canemah Park Sunday Resulted in Victory of 17 to 0

In a hotly contested game at Canemah Park Sunday afternoon the Oregon City team played their first game of the season, and won it, defeating the fast Robinson Clothing Company of Portland by a score of 17 to 0. From the start, the local players demonstrated their superiority in all stages, and although the clothiers played a good consistent game, they were greatly outclassed. All three of the touchdowns were scored by Long, the hard kicking local fullback. Two goals were kicked by Ross. The showing made by the local team, considering the fact that they have had no coach, was remarkable, and with proper discipline, there is no reason why they should not defeat any team of their weight. Manager Bob Kruger is in communication with several classy teams throughout the state, and local football fans are promised some good games.

A number of gifts to be given in the near future by the members of the team.

Following is Sunday's lineup:

Oregon City	Robinson Clo. Co.
Ross	O. De Witt
Smith	R. G. Merrick

Moore	R. E. Peterson
McClure	L. E. Stohly

NO SHOWS IN CHURCH

Evangelist Marshal Says Religion of Christ Sufficient

GOOD SUNDAY SERMON

Revival Meetings Start Sunday Morning at Methodist Church

Sunday morning revival meetings were commenced at the Methodist Episcopal church in this city. Rev. R. C. Blackwell, a noted evangelist, has charge of the meetings which will be continued for an indefinite period. Sunday morning's meeting was very largely attended and the preacher warmed up to his subject in an unusually good manner and sermonized his congregation to "Go on in the highways and by-roads, and bring them in that the house may be full." He gave a practical and enthusiastic talk and stated that the people must work. "God can do nothing alone, he must have instruments, and we are his instruments; he works through us. A carpenter may have brains and strength to build a house, but he could not complete his task without tools. God is helpless to bring about salvation to the world without our assistance. God will call you, and if you don't get a call from God, you don't count."

"I find it is one thing to preach the gospel," said the preacher, "and another thing to practice what you preach. Live a Godly life not only on Sunday, but Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, etc., in the store, office, schoolroom and kitchen. If you do anyone an injustice, ask their forgiveness, humble yourself. Some people are too stiff-necked to do this."

"What we all most need is earnest prayer and supplication, confess your sins, make yourself right with God and you will be happy. God laid down his life for us. We should be willing to sacrifice much for him."

Rev. Marshal is an earnest and able speaker and will hold revival meetings in Oregon City for an indefinite time. It is hoped that the church will be well filled at each meeting. Rev. Marshal will be assisted by the local pastor, Rev. R. C. Blackwell.
