curious array,
All sorts of clubs and weights and things in great profusion lay.

Her face was tense, her eyes bulged

out, her bosom rose and fell, While every little white she'd stop
and give an awful yell.
He thought her daffy, asked her what had changed her manner so.

"My Christmas shopping, dear, she said, "must yet be done, you know." With that she biffed a punching bar, then dodged as lack it sped.

And as she grabbed a club he turned, grew pale as death and fled.

Tomorrow she'll go snopping—she de-ciares for all the day; His fondest hope is that none will get in the Dearie's way. -Engene Register

Kicking at railroads for poor services does you as much good as yelling at a deaf man to get out of the way of an automobile.
