1910 MEET OF CITY COUNCIL

Old Officials Quite Good Enough for Us

MAYOR OUSTS GREEN

New Movements for City Park Street Improvement Will Be Pushed

At the first meeting of the city council for the new year, a mild sensational bomb was exploded when Mayor Carl turned down Street Superintendent John Green and appointed in his place Charles Babcock. In the annual message to the council, the mayor recommended a measure regarding the granting of licenses to the saloons in this city. He don't believe in prohibition, but he suggests that no non-resident be granted a license, and when a saloon changes hands and name, the license be taken away, and when a saloon changes its location the permit be declared void. To offset the difference in cash coming into the city treasury, he suggests raising the license of the other saloons to make the present total.

W. A. Dimick was unanimously elected recorder. Livy Stipp was reappointed city attorney. The present committees were reappointed and the present incumbencies on the police force kept for the next year. The office of city surveyor was given to Henry Meldrum. A Knapp was reelected president.

The routine business of the monthly meeting was transacted, among which was a protest by residents of Main street against the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company's method of putting in new poles to replace the rotten ones that held up the trolley wire. The company has been in the habit of sawing off the old poles a few feet from the ground and splicing stub ones to them, making it dangerous and also unsightly. The recorder was instructed to communicate with the railway company and instruct them to put in their poles to conform with the rules laid down by the street committee.

Reports were handed in. Recorder Dimick's report for the month showed total receipts of $2643.50. His report for the year was accepted and placed on file as also the yearly and quarterly reports of Treasurer M. D. Latourrette and the semi-annual report of the board of water commissioners. A petition for the improving of the street leading up to the siding recently put in by the Southern Pacific between 15th and 17th streets on Washington, was referred to the committee on streets and public property.

Councilman Knapp asked the council to prepare the ground in McLoughlin Park, which is to be beautified by

P. A. MOULDENHAUER VICTIM OF TYPHOID

First Death Resulting From Willamette's Epidemic Occurs Friday

P. A. Mouldenhauer, a well known resident of Willamette, succumbed Friday to an attack of typhoid fever. This is the first death as yet resulting from the epidemic of typhoid that has been raging in the bustling little west-side community. Mr. Mouldenhauer's son is in a critical condition with the same disease.

MRS. VONDERAHE SEEKS DIVORCE

Oregon City Woman Charges Her Husband With Cruelty and Non-Support

Charging cruelty and non support, Mrs. Minnie Vonderahe has filed divorce proceedings against Charles W. Vonderahe, in the circuit court through her attorney, George O. Brownell. She states in her complaint that she has been treating her in a cruel manner and has even refused to talk to her. She states that on account of the condition of her health, she was obliged to spend a part of the summer at the beach, and that during that time her husband never wrote to her. The Vanderahes have been residents of this city for a number of years.

The Woman's Club, for setting out roses, and also for making some provision for sprinkling the lawn in the park next summer.

There will be a meeting of the council next Monday night for the purpose of discussing and passing through a conversion with the new proposed method of improving the streets of this city, which will come before the citizens at a special election in February. Literature on this amendment to the charter will be ready for distribution in a short time.

By the suggestion of Councilman Knapp, a committee of three, consisting of Councilmen Knapp, Petzold and Michels, was appointed to look into the matter of a cheaper car fare to Portland. Mayor Carl was of the opinion that such a committee was not needed, as the line must reduce the rates from this city to Portland when the fare from Oak Grove is changed, but the council thought no harm would come of the movement, and an agitation will be commenced to bring about that end.

They tell us now that the weighing pier of the sugar trust was as elaborately equipped with signals as a football team.

CHANGES IN LOCATIONS

Several Business Houses Get New Quarters

TO BUILD BRICK BLOCK

Tenants Moving From Stevens Building, Which Will Soon Be Demolished

This week marks a change in the location of several Oregon City business houses. J. Levitt will recently purchase the dry goods store of G. Rosestien is busy moving his stock from his store in the Willamette building to his new location at the suspension bridge corner. This is considered one of the best business sites in Oregon City, as all of the workmen going to and from the paper mills on the West Side pass right by.

Mr. Levitt will entirely remodel the front of the building and has plans made for three up-to-date show windows, so his goods may be displayed to good advantage. He will also improve the interior of the store and add up-to-date fixtures.

Misses Celia and Bertine Goldsmith have moved their millinery establishment from the location it held in the Stevens block to the Commercial block, in the building formerly occupied by J. N. Joe.

Cross & Hammond have also moved from the Stevens block, and have taken up new quarters in the Masonic Temple. As soon as the other tenants of the Stevens block find quarters elsewhere, they will also move, as the wooden structure is to be torn down and replaced by a modern brick business block.

The stand in the Willamette building to be left vacant by the removal of the Levitt stock will be occupied by H. E. Brightbill & Company, who will move their grocery establishment from its present location.

Dollar & Fonnal, who are operating a restaurant opposite the Grand theater, will move into the building vacated by Brightbill & Company, where they will open a first class restaurant and chop house.

ATTENTION GRANGERS!

The members of Garfield Grange will meet the members of the Pomona Grange, Wednesday, Jan. 12, coming on the first car at Estacada. Make your arrangements accordingly.

IMPROVEMENT CLUBS MEET

ANOTHER TEACHER CHOSEN

Carl P. Anderson Is Selected as High School Instructor

To relieve the remainder of the over-zealous teachers at the high school, the Board of Directors has selected Carl P. Anderson, an instructor at the high school. Prof. Anderson is well known throughout the Willamette valley as an educator, and for two years past, he was principal of the school at Marquam.

CANEMAH RESIDENCE DESTROYED BY FIRE

House Occupied By Robinson Family Burns to the Ground

Fire from an unknown cause destroyed the house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Robinson and family in Canemah Monday evening. When discovered the flames had gained a good headway on the roof, so the men fighting the fire turned their attention to saving the household effects. All of the furniture was saved, with the exception of that in one of the bedrooms. Several articles of jewelry were also lost. It required a great deal of work to keep the Harvey house, a short distance away, from also catching fire, but in the end the fire fighters were successful.

The burned building was the property of Mrs. Fred Bak and was valued at $600. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

RETURN TO MINES

James Hatman, Charles Earl, John Hale and E. B. and J. B. Fairbairn have returned to the Ogl Mountains after spending the Christmas holidays in this place, and work was resumed on their arrival.

An error occurred in the Courier's issue of January 24 when it stated that the tunnel shaft had been in constant operation for six months. Instead, it should have said that the machine drills have been in constant use during that period.

DEATH OF HARRY SMITH

Harry W. son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Smith of Milwaukie, Ore., died in Ft. Worth, Texas, Dec. 18, 1909, aged 29 years. He was a native of Oregon and spent his life in Sterling, Ill., where he was a farmer. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and died in faith of a blessed immortality.

EVERYBODY IN ON THIS

The civic improvement committee of the Oregon City Woman's Club will give a delightful program and moving picture performance under the direction of Mr. Brooks. The reel of pictures which are to be shown is 3000 feet long and has never before been shown on the Pacific coast. The illustrations of their riding will give you a fair idea of the thousands of thrilling United States army "stunts" at the U. S. Military tournaments held at Camp Tatt, at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., last week of July 5 and which were reproduced in motion pictures—portraying over 4000 trained regulars in the most thrilling presentation of actual battle scenes ever witnessed in this or any other country in times of peace, reproduced with wonderful clearness, the modern artillery in action.

The benefit for which this performance is given is for the beautifying of McLoughlin Park at the head of the hill road. Admission to same is 25 cents.

The public is earnestly requested to be present to aid in the making of our town a beautiful one.

STAFFORD

Pretty long spell-o-weather here in Stafford and we are as surprised, no doubt, almost as Texas and Ariz. as they are at their cold weather. However, we take things as they come, glad they are no worse.

Loney Nimie was kicked by a spring coil and would undoubtedly have been killed had not the vicious little hoof struck square on Loney's new Christmas watch, stopping it and jarring the case so it could not be opened. He sent it back to the jeweler for repairs but we have not heard how seriously it was injured, and while we sympathize with the boy on the loss of his prized new watch, we rejoice that the blow hit the watch instead of the boy.

Mr. B. N. Atty is very sick with pneumonia. Mr. Gage's little grandson who came with his people to spend the holidays, has been quite sick with what was feared at first might be typhoid fever. He is quite a little better at the present writing, but weak yet.

Mrs. Mays visited her mother, Mrs. Wm. Sharp over New Year's.

Miss E. Gage, who is employed in the Meier & Frank store, was out to visit relatives over New Year's. She had spent Christmas with her parents in Sheridan.

Miss Grace Friedman returned Sunday from a week end visit with friends in Hillsboro.

PLEASANT AFFAIR

On December 29th numerous Rosebuds met at the beautiful home of Mrs. H. Bonney. The rooms of which were tastefully decorated with ferns, Oregon grape and cedar.

After the guests were assembled in the parlor the doors of the dining room were thrown open and the gala of the occasion began. Games were indulged in—yo old-fashioned games and games of today. The special feature of the evening was music by the famous Swartz orchestra. After a sumptuous repast the party broke up toward the small hours of the morning, heartily thanking the hostess for her kind hospitality.

A GUEST.

Deceased was 72 years of age and with her husband in her lifetime was well known throughout the western states. Mr. Rugg has the sympathy of many friends here in the separating from all earthly ties the one who, dear to all hearts, watches over and guides our footsteps through many years of early life.

CURED OF A SEVERE ATTACK OF BRONCHITIS BY CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY

"On October 18th, last, my three year old daughter contracted a severe cold which resulted in a bad case of bronchitis," says Mrs. W. G. Gibson, Lexington, Ky. "She lost the power of speech completely and was a very sick child. Fortunately we had a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and gave it to her according to the printed directions. On the second day she was a great deal better, and on the fifth day, October 23, she was entirely well of her cold and bronchitis, which I attribute to this splendid medicine. I recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy unreservedly as I have found it the surest, safest and quickest cure for colds both for children and for adults, of any I have ever used." For sale by Jones Drug Co.

EIGHT DAIRIES ARE INSPECTED

Those Supplying Oregon City Are Scored

AS GOOD AS AVERAGE

Deputy Dairy Commissioner Is Interesting All Dairies in County

Deputy State Dairy and Food Commissioner M. S. Shrook of Hubbard is engaged in inspecting the dairies of Clackamas county. He has inspected the eight dairies supplying Oregon City with milk, and finds their condition on an average with those of other cities of the state.

The commission use the score card system of testing a dairy, with an allowance of 100 for a dairy perfect in every detail. The score is divided into two parts, equipment, for which 40 points is allowed; and methods, which count for 60 points. It will be noticed that more stress is laid on methods, as cleanliness is considered a big factor.

Tests for the dairies supplying Oregon City are as follows:

Dairy	Equipment	Methods	Total
L. Hartke	15.5	23.3	45.8
J. M. Warnock	18.2	20.3	41.5
D. O. Leavens	11.5	21.6	33.1
Gas Englebrecht	15.0	18.9	33.9
Issac Farris	14.5	20.5	35.0
Chris Nageli	23.1	31.7	62.9
Fred Kers g	21.3	29.1	59.4
Star Dairy	19.6	25.4	45.0

In an interview with a Courier representative, Mr. Shrook stated that he has found nearly all of the dairymen to be well acquainted with the rulings of the commission, but perfectly willing and anxious to follow any suggestion that will improve their dairies.

In addition to the dairies near Oregon City, Mr. Shrook has also inspected those between here and New Era, and the results follow:

Equipment	Methods	Total
A. W. Phillips	15.5	26.5	42.0
Wm. McCord	19.1	21.6	40.7
J. A. Faak	18.9	20.7	48.6
O. S. Martin	13.3	17.0	30.3
Lewis & Son	21.2	29.3	51.5
Burt McArthur	23.0	41.0	64.0

Mr. McArthur, the last mentioned, is a living example of the fact that it does not require a great outlay of money to operate a high scoring dairy. As a matter of fact, his scores and other equipment did not cost over $500, showing that will power is a greater factor in the business than is money. Although his dairy scores excellent, high, Mr. McArthur does not mean to be satisfied till he scores perfect. The Lantz dairy scored more than the average dairy throughout the state.

Mr. Shrook will score all of the dairies in the county, and all will be scored again at a later date, at which time a great deal better percentage is expected.

AUSTIN FARM SOLD

R. Petzold Purchases Valuable Farm at Liberal

R. Petzold a well known local butcher, has purchased the Austin farm at Liberal from Ed and W. E. Austin. The place is a well improved dairy farm of 100 acres, and is considered as good as any in that fertile section. The consideration paid by Mr. Petzold was $5000.

It is the intention of Mr. Petzold to make many improvements on the place, including the building of a fine new residence and to stock it with fine horses and cattle. The tract will be right on the Molalla railroad when it is built, and at that time Mr. Petzold and family may make their residence there.

The deal was transacted through E. P. Elliott & Co. of this city, who have made a number of large sales of late.

83 DISTRICTS MAKE SPECIAL TAX LEVIES

Oak Grove Leads With Special Levy of Twenty-Five Mills

Special tax levies have been made by 83 of the school districts of Clackamas county for the coming year, and the largest one is Oak Grove, where a special levy of 25 mills has been made to cover expenses on the large new school house built last summer. The law requires that all districts getting from the county and state fund less than $800 must make special levies, and there are 10 districts in that predicament that have not made the levies.

COUNTY COURT IS AGAIN IN SESSION

First Meeting of New Year Opened Wednesday Morning

The first session of the county court for the year of 1910 opened Wednesday morning and will continue until Friday. The 4 regular and 10 special judges will be appointed and probably some districts will be cut, making the appointing of additional supervisors necessary. The jury list for the year will be appointed also, and the routine business done will in all probability necessitate the calling of a special session for this month, as the three days will not be sufficient time.

COL. HOFER AT MEETING

Salem Editor Addresses Brotherhood

TALKS ON IMMIGRATION

Regular Monthly Banquet Attended by Many Notables. Fine Speeches Delivered

The monthly banquet of the Congregational Brotherhood was held Tuesday evening in the church parlor. The guests sat down to three tables at seven o'clock, and after partaking of a beautiful supper supplied by the Ladies' Aid Society, the members and guests were called to order by President Avison, who in a few words told of the starting of the brotherhood over one year ago with five members, there now being a membership of nearly 100. He announced that Rev. Oakley, pastor of the Congregational church, would address the brotherhood next Sunday evening at the church and he invited all members to be present.

President Avison then introduced Col. E. Hofer, editor of the Journal, of Salem, who was the speaker of the evening. Col. Hofer announced that he had thought to confine his address to the question of immigration, in which he was very much interested, but on account of becoming interested in an article in a current publication on the subject of "Education and Divorce," he had decided to alter his speech somewhat and to include that subject. Col. Hofer gave his reasons for the increasing divorce problem in this country from the lack of proper education for the child and particularly for the girls as the cause. He included child labor and marriage not being union solemnized. He stated that the whole system of education for girls, from the public schools to the universities, was wrong and that an entire re-education must be effected before the greatest ill of our time would be lessened.
