SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Miss Zumwalt Surprised

A pleasant surprise party was tendered Miss Clarice Zumwalt and her guests at her home on Fourteenth and Jackson streets Friday evening. The evening was spent in a social manner, games and music being enjoyed, and refreshments were served. Shortly after the new year was ushered in, the guests departed. Present were: Miss Alice Goetting, Miss Olga McClure, Miss Ethel Risley, Misses Clara and Bertha Koerner, Miss Evelyn Harding, Harold Swafford, Lloyd Harding, Arden Hickman, Lionel Gordon, Jake Risley and Gaylord G. Godfrey and Andrew Koerner.

Miss Wyman Entertains

A pleasant evening was spent by a number of friends at the home of Miss Hazel Wyman at her home on Fourteenth and Jackson streets Friday evening. The evening was spent in a social manner, games and music being enjoyed, and refreshments were served. Present were: Miss Alice Goetting, Miss Olga McClure, Miss Ethel Risley, Misses Clara and Bertha Koerner, Miss Evelyn Harding, Harold Swafford, Lloyd Harding, Arden Hickman, Lionel Gordon, Jake Risley and Gaylord G. Godfrey and Andrew Koerner.

Watch Party at Bolton

Miss Eva Wash delightfully entertained a number of friends at a watch party Friday night at the home of her parents in Bolton. Games of several varieties were enjoyed and refreshments were served. One of the features of the evening's entertainment was the serving of delicious delicacies, all of which were made by the hostess, who is a past master of the candy-making art. Miss Wash's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wash, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Anna Johnson, Misses Nellie, Nancy and Mary Lindquist, Misses Cleo and Malva Billow, A. Magone, Harry Brooker, by the hostess, James McDonald, Chris Linnquist, August Christensen, and Leon Draper.

Alumni Meeting

The regular semi-annual meeting of the Oregon City High School Alumni Association was held Saturday night in Knapp's hall. The hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion with college pennants and Oregon grape. Much praise is due Miss Una Kennel and Mary A. Scott, the young ladies in charge of the affair. Following is the interesting program read:

Local duet, Miss Una Kennel and Miss Edna Kinney; instrumental solo, Miss M. Marie Hickman; address, "What the High School Needs," City Superintendent Trone; vocal solo, Miss Cis Barclay Pratt; instrumental duet, Miss Morieta Hickman and Leo Borden; "What They Are Doing at the Schools," A. O. Freil; address, O. D. Eby.

In the absence of the president, the vice president, Miss Scott, presided over the gathering. The next meeting of the association will be held in June, and the following committee on arrangements for that time has been appointed: Miss Fannie G. Porter, chairman; Miss Cis Barclay Pratt, Miss Myrtle Buchanan and Gaylord Godfrey.

Military Ball a Success

The military ball given in the Armory New Year's night by the members of Company G, Third Infantry, Oregon National Guard, was a most successful affair, both socially and financially. One of the largest crowds that ever attended a dance in Oregon City was present, many coming from Oak Grove, Milwaukie, Portland, Vancouver and other outside points. Music for the occasion was furnished by Fox's orchestra of Portland. In addition to the decorations of the Oregon City Communal Club, the guardsmen used flags, bunting and other decorative effects to a splendid advantage. Out-of-town people were taken to Portland on a special car furnished by the militia company.

Gypsies Entertained

The Gypsies were delightfully entertained Thursday by Miss Zida Goldsmith at her home on Fourteenth and Main streets. This house was artistically decorated for the occasion in Christmas decorations, a Christmas tree being the principal attraction. When the presents were distributed, it was found that each of the guests had received a gift representative of some particular hobby of theirs, and a great deal of merriment was created. Refreshments were served.

Presbyterians Hold Watch Party

The A. O. U. W. Hall on Seventh street was the scene of a pleasant evening Friday evening, the occasion being the watch night service of the Presbyterian Brotherhood and the Christian Endeavor Society. Vocal selections by a male quartette and by Mrs. Leonas Larsen, a recitation by Miss Estelita Schabel and addresses by Prof. F. J. Toome and O. D. Eby were enjoyed. The remainder of the evening was spent in a most enjoyable manner and at a late hour refreshments were served. After seeing the new year in and wishing their New Year's greetings, the assemblage dispersed.

New Year's Eve Party

One of the most delightful of the numerous affairs during the holiday season was the New Year's party of the Derby Club given at the beautiful home of Mrs. Charles Canfield on the bluff. The rooms were tastefully decorated with fir, holly and Christmas bells. The merry crowd, numbering nearly seventy-five, were highly entertained with a musical program, consisting of solos varied by tableaux and special music by the gentlemen. A delicious buffet luncheon was served, and at midnight a very pleasing and original pantomime effect of the passing of the old year was made by one representing Father Time, who at the passing of the last minute of the old year disappeared from the rear of the dwelling and at the same time was secured in before the guests a dainty little maid dressed in the conventional new year garb, complete, with wings bearing the placard announcing the entrance of the new year, 1910.

Mr. and Mrs. John Adams Entertain

New Year's watch parties were much in evidence last Friday. One of the pleasant social functions was a meeting of the Friday Night Bridge Club, which was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. John Adams. The house was decorated with quantities of Oregon grape and red carnations. The evening passed with the usual game of bridge, Mrs. W. A. Stowman and Mr. E. T. McBean winning the honors. During the party lunch at midnight, all welcomed the new year. The guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Main, Mr. and Mrs. Lumber Jones, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stowman, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Eastham, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newton.

Harding Grange Meets

The New Year's day meeting of Harding Grange was well attended, there being about 50 members present. The new officers were installed by Past Master O. D. Robbins assisted by Mrs. Freda Kirchem. The sisters provided an ample supply of good things for the dinner and it took two of the long dinner tables to seat the assembled Grangers.

Mrs. L. L. Kirchem, the lecturer, had provided a program, mostly of recitations and readings by the little folks and there was a discussion on industrial education which witnessed out to cover almost the whole field of education before it was finished. Louis Funk, Fred Gerber, Mahala A. Gill, W. P. Kirchem, Mrs. Funk, F. P. Wilson and others took part in the discussion and all were of the opinion that the tendency is to crowd too many studies on the rural consumption schools. W. P. Kirchem was selected as fire insurance agent in place of F. P. Wilson, resigned. A strong resolution was passed against the proposed assembly convention and the constitutional convention as being proposed by members of the initiative and referendum and the direct primaries.
