

Pacific Coal & Gas Company

INCORPORATED

THE CO-OPERATING COMPANY

ORGANIZED with a view of becoming the strongest company on the Coast, we have inaugurated a campaign of co-operation that insures to us and to you, Mr. Consumer, a price that never changes.

OUR MINES are in the rich lignite district 104 miles from Portland and 1 1/2 miles from the N. P. R. R., and three other transcontinental lines.

OUR COAL has been shown by test to be a distinctly suitable one for domestic, steam and power purposes. OUR LAND is 467 acres of tested and proven coal lands. Each acre of coal land contains 40,000 tons of coal. With an additional 40 acres under option, we have TWENTY MILLION tons of coal! More than we will use in our life time.

CAPITALIZED at $500,000, we feel that we offer to the CONSUMER stock—now at 50 cents—in a company that stands for CONSERVATISM, SAFETY and HONESTY. Stock that not only gives YOU coal at $5.50, but that also gives you large interest returns.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS in this stock means that you receive your COAL—10 tons each year at $5.50 per ton delivered to you.

MANY PEOPLE wait and hesitate! They are the losers! Examine and investigate, then if you HESITATE you at least have seen.

WE ARE HERE TO STAY—We want your help in order that we may help you! EVERY MAN OR WOMAN THAT IS INTERESTED IN KEEPING THE PRICE OF COAL DOWN, can and should spare a half hour to call on us or write us and let us call on you—let us show you! YOU WILL NOT BE IMPORTUNED TO BUY! But do your duty as citizens and men by letting us Prove to you what we say.

SPECIMENS AT LOCAL OFFICE, Freytag & Swafford, 7th Street, near S. P. Depot, Oregon City. LOOK AND SEE.

B. F. MULKEY
Insurgent Republican Candidate
For Congress

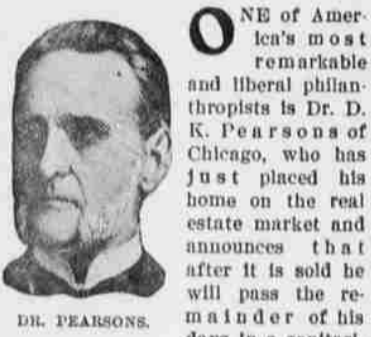

Jacksonville, Oregon, Sept. 4, 1910. In announcing myself a candidate for the high office of Congressman from the First District, it seems proper that I should make the following brief statement of my life.

"I AM 48 YEARS OF AGE, and have been a RESIDENT OF OREGON the past thirty-eight years. Was elected County Clerk of Polk County in 1892, was re-elected in 1894; was elected to the state senate in 1896, and was admitted to the practice of law the following year; was re-elected to the State Senate in 1900. Was teacher in the State Normal School at Monmouth, Oregon, for five years, and was president of the Normal School at Ashland for five years. While a member of the Legislature INTRODUCED THE FIRST CORRUPT PRACTICES ACT in 1897; SECURED THE PASSAGE OF A LAW PREVENTING THE CIRCULATION OF OBSCENE LITERATURE AND BOOKS PORTRAYING THE EXPLOITS OF HIGHWAYMEN; secured the enactment of a law preventing the maintenance of a school within 300 feet of any school or mine; secured an amendment to the law making the interest on school fund loans six per cent, which secured eight per cent as the legal rate of interest for Oregon; during the eight years as Senator and the State, will give my support to measures strengthening the power of the Interstate Commerce Commission to regulate railway rates, and to prevent the inflation of values as a basis for such regulation; shall strive for the revision of the tariff, with the interest of the people in the foreground, while preserving the Republican principle of protection; shall work for the amendment of the Constitution, providing for the direct election of United States Senators, and in general shall give my heartiest support to all measures intended to increase the power of the people in legislation and in government.

Very respectfully,
B. F. MULKEY.

People of Note

What a Few of Our Celebrities Are Doing.

DR. D. K. PEARSON.

ONE of America's most remarkable and liberal philanthropists is Dr. D. K. Pearson of Chicago, who has just placed his home on the real estate market and announces that after it is sold he will pass the remainder of his days in a sanitarium. He proposes to die penniless, and on April 11, when he will be ninety-one years old, he will give away the remainder of his fortune. Dr. Pearson, however, makes no claim to distinction as a philanthropist. He says of himself, with refreshing candor: "I do not pose as a benevolent man. I am a thrifty and frugal old man. I have labored all my life to make money, and I have made it, and honestly too. I have no benevolence in me, not a particle. I am the most economical, close fisted man you ever met. You can see it in my face. I am doing all that I am doing on business principles. After working hard and practicing economy for seventy years to lay up money I said to myself:

"What am I going to do with this? I cannot carry it out of the world in my dead hands. Coffins were not made to carry money in. I have got to leave it; that's the way to look at it. Now, what shall I do with it?"

In this practical frame of mind Dr. Pearson began his course of benefactions, and he has already given away $6,000,000 to colleges to further the education of young men.

In connection with the American tour of Sarah Bernhardt, who will reach this country about midwinter, a story is being published in Paris which is new so far as the French public is concerned and may be so to many here. It relates to the divine Sarah and the great John L. Sullivan.

Once these two celebrities were staying at the same hotel in Australia, and the tragedienne's passionate declamation as she conned her lines at night in her room greatly disturbed the pugilist's repose. Meeting her one day on the stairs, he frowned at her so horribly and gave such an ominous growl that she fainted dead away. Next morning she moved to another hotel.

Mme. Bernhardt was asked the other day whether the story were true.

"Yes," she said in her peculiarly winning English, "but I don't hate him for it. Sullivan is one great big dreadfully splendid man. Such a thrill magnifically as he give!"

Texas has lost Colonel Edward H.

R. Green as a resident. Hereafter he will make his home in New York city, where he will look after and direct the vast interests of his mother, Mrs. Hetty Green, who is now in her seventy-fifth year. When Colonel Green first went to Texas it was to look after his mother's large interests there. Not only has he done that successfully, but he also has acquired a great many of his own. He is said to have his finger in almost every corporation and commercial enterprise in his part of Texas.

E. H. GREEN.

ried, either, and does not hesitate to announce that he is a confirmed bachelor. When he is in New York he gets a bushel of begging letters a day at his hotel. He is wiser than his mother, however, for he never opens them now.

Miss Caroline Hazard, who has been elected as president of Wellesley college owing to ill health, was little more than a child when she began her literary work. Her first published book was a translation of German songs, and later her prose and poetry became very well known. Her ode, "The Great Western Land," formed a part of the opening exercises of the World's fair at Chicago. Her "Memoirs of the Late Professor Dinman" of Brown university made her reputation. Miss Hazard was born in Peacedale, R. I., June 10, 1856, the daughter of Rowland and Margaret Hazard. She was educated by a governess and tutors and at Miss Mary Shaw's school. She also studied abroad and, in addition, owes a great deal to ten years' work at Brown university with Professor J. Lewis Dinman. She has a degree of Lt. D. conferred upon her in 1890 by Brown university and LL. D. granted her in 1905 by Tufts college.

CAROLINE HAZARD

Iness Martin, who alleges that her husband treated her cruelly, has applied through her attorney, E. E. Miller, for a divorce. Another complaint was filed Saturday by Jacob Lehman, who desires to be separated from his wife, as he alleges that she willfully and without cause deserted him.

SCHOOL SUITS

GOOD School Clothes, like good books and good company, have a lasting effect on a boy's life. Clothe the School Boy Well!

Our School Clothes are made for us by a special maker, in accordance with our dictation. The fabrics are very carefully selected for good appearance and for durability. The seams are strongly sewed, and all points, where there is any special strain, are doubly strengthened.

Our good Suits are very much cheaper in the end than the "bargain sale job lot" offerings of School Suits which, in nearly every case, prove to be very disappointing.
