COUNTY FAIR ATTRACTIVE.

Everybody is going to attend the banner fair of Clackamas county at Canby September 29, 30 and October 1. You are invited to camp in the beautiful grove and enjoy the entire session of the fair. Those who cannot bring their exhibits to the fair in time for entry may leave them with the superintendent of this department on Tuesday preceding the opening date, September 29, at the office of E. Freytag, near the S. P. depot.

There will be many really novel features at the fair and any amount of attractions at the pavilion. Every inch of space will be occupied and considerable space on the open ground surrounding.

The showing of fruit will be wonderful. The art department will be well filled. There will be a remarkable showing of field, orchard and garden products, and extensive exhibits in all departments.

This fair will be truly a "great" one, more extensive by far than in previous years. The general appearance of the fair grounds will be more attractive than ever before.

Friday, September 30, will be Oregon City day at the Clackamas County Fair, the entire bunch of business houses will close that day and all will go to the fair. Oregon City day will be a hummer. Many people from Portland will also be present and help swell the crowd. There will be special rates on the Southern Pacific. Special trains will leave Oregon City at 9:15, returning at 6 and 8:50 in the evening.

Death at Beaver Creek.

John L. Landeck died at his home in Beaver Creek, Tuesday, Sept. 20th. He was born in Wenkheim, Baden, Germany, May 14, 1846. He was married to Clara, who died in 1908. He came to the United States and to the state of Oregon in September 1883, in advance of his wife and child, to select a home, to which he was followed the next spring by his family. Ever since that time he has made his home at Beaver Creek, Oregon. He was survived by his wife and daughter, Mrs. Louise Kamrath, and three grandchildren. The funeral was held Thursday from his residence. Mr. Landeck was one of Clackamas county's foremost citizens and farmers, well known and respected by all who knew him.

DOVER

The farmers are rejoicing over the occasional showers we are having. The streams are very low and springs and wells are going dry.

Mr. J. W. Exon lost a valuable horse a short time ago. One of Mr. A. J. Morrison's horses died at o.

Mr. Arthur Evans has returned home after a three months' absence. School commenced in District N. 23 on the 19th of September, with Miss M. F. Bates as teacher.

Mr. G. A. Wolf attended the state fair at Salem and says the fair was just splendid.

Mr. Joe Deshazer and family were visiting at the home of Alex Bews last Sunday.

Mr. Joel Jarl has the wire and plank on the ground ready for fencing his forty acre tract of land in this vicinity.

E. Shirely has the lumber on the ground ready for building a house.

G. A. Wolf has a crew of men clearing land for him.

Mrs. Annie Cooper went to Portland last Saturday on a business trip.

Don Bodley and Birch Roberts and George Roberts went to Portland to see the Buffalo Bill show Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Roberts and daughters Lu and Rildie were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keith last Sunday.

CANBY

Geo. Scheer's father, while visiting in Kansas with his brother and other relatives, was suddenly taken ill and died there. The remains arrived at Canby Monday morning and were interred Monday afternoon in the Zion cemetery. The bereft son has the sympathy of the entire community.

The union temperance meeting held in the city hall last Saturday evening was well attended and much interest was manifested. The lecturer, Mrs. Sleith, treated her subject in an enthusiastic manner and the musical part of the program was well prepared.

Rev. Ross, pastor of the Christian church, sang a solo which won the admiration of the entire audience.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church held another cooked food sale last Saturday in the Ho-ford building, which has recently been the property of the church.

At this sale we understand something like six dollars was cleared.

Rev. O. L. Cressy left for conference, Tuesday morning, which convenes at Hillsboro this fall and will be in session for a period of one week, from Tuesday of this week until next Monday inclusive.

Mrs. Cressy expects to join her husband next Saturday. Rev. Cressy has had a very successful year at Canby, during which time thirty-five additions have been made to the church. It is expected by both congregation and pastor that Rev. Cressy will return to Canby.

DIMICK SHOWS HOFER

counties in her running expenses, and still we have about the same population.

"Now take those same counties from the records and with the secretary of state in 1909: Baker county, $60,172.66; Clackamas county, $33,092.50; Clatsop county, $64,433.50; Lane county, $63,272.29; Marion county, $80,955.05; Umatilla county, $72,485.50.

"You see that Clackamas county has been more economical than your county by over $27,000, and still we had 22 more cases in our circuit court than you had in Marion county. Now I will ask you why you do not begin to fight at home?"

"You say that Beal, of Tillamook, has been grafting on the state, drawing his $10 per day for superintending a building that he knows nothing about. Now if you are such a graft-fighter, why don't you fight him, in fact the entire system, through the columns of your Salem Journal?"

"Now, Colonel, be fair, and when you tell the people about the increased taxes of Clackamas county, show the large amount of special school tax raised which was not raised in 1905 and shown on your abstract, which you exhibit, show the large amount of special road tax that the farmers are raising in many of the districts in our county that was not raised in 1905; show the large amount of increase of our public school children and the increased per capita tax from $6 to $7 by the legislature of 1907, and the increased amount of city tax that has been raised by the different municipal corporations or the improvements of streets and their running expenses that was not raised in 1905, and be fair and honorable in your statements."

FACULTY GIVE RECITAL

Mr. Frank G. Eichenlaub, Miss Nancy A. Beals, Mr. Harry E. Van Dyke, and Mrs. J. O. Kuter, members of the faculty of the Columbia Conservatory of Music in Portland, gave a concert recital at Shirely's hall on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Eichenlaub played a beautiful and valuable violin, said to be the work of Jean Baptiste Vuillaume of Paris, the last of the great masters of violin making. Like Paganini, Mr. Eichenlaub is a tall and slender man and as his music stand refused to rise high enough he was compelled to be seated for his first number, the Sonata by Sjogren, which otherwise was given a most dignified rendition. Miss Beals, soprano, sang "Valse" by Wilson, "Jean" by H. T. Burleigh, and "If All the Young Maidens" by Lohr. She was apparently the chosen favorite of the audience and received a hearty encore.

At his second appearance Mr. Eichenlaub played "La Cygne" by Saint-Saens (con sordino); "Capriccio," Bohm, and "Paroles in Coeur," Radoux-Musin, which were excellently phrased. In the latter number a pretty display of technical ability was required and Mr. Eichenlaub seems quite equal to the occasion.

Mr. Van Dyke does not wear the whiskers usually associated with this name and has his hair cut in the rational modern style—nevertheless he played the piano like a true artist and his selections were pleasing and well chosen. He is a tone conservativist—that is, he does not make a chopping block of the piano, and consequently his music is not blurred by a chaos of overtones.

Mrs. Kuter proved her ability to accompany in an artistic manner. The need of a grand piano for the occasion was conspicuous.

Gladstone Christian Church

A. H. Mulkey, pastor, Services Sunday, September 25, as follows: Merger service of church and Bible school, 10 to 11:30. Workers' counsel at 11:30. Grand temperance rally and address at 7:30. Special program morning and evening.

BEE HILLS

Matt Kandle of Highland has visited his ranch at Bee Hills quite often lately.

The lumber r is being hauled for a new school house.

These hills are pretty lonesome now, with Miss Mary Johnson gone to Portland for a few weeks' stay, Geo Wallace and family staying at Highland for a week or two, Chas. Hunter and family and Gale Hunter gone to the mountains, Ed Spelak and Carr's and Clark young people gone home-picking, and Will Schieffer gone to Oregon City.

Bee Hills people are ambitious. We understand one of them is seeking nomination to the office of county sheriff.

Mr. Morrison has the road to his homestead nearly completed.

LIBERAL

W. J. E. Vick buys all kinds of farm produce and pays cash.

With the pleasant showers stopping all the forest fires the farmers are not so uneasy about being burned out.

The gophers are laying away their potato crop and the farmers are busy to see which will get the most.

Grass is starting in good shape and we will have the normal crop after all. Last spring's clover seems to be starting with vigor after being dried up all summer. The rain will prove a great blessing to the farmers, as there was hundreds of acres sown in spring grain.

Fred H. Burns left yesterday morning to work on the buildings at the Canby race tracks.

Miss Floda Burns leaves Wednesday for her work this winter at Portland.

Miss Alice Moore leaves Friday to work in a bank in Portland, during the winter.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Casper Zin ger, Sunday, a boy. Casper wears the smiles. Set up the cigars, please.

S. Wright is clearing out a new piece of ground for corn next year. The old logs are dry and surely do burn.

A large white hawk is the attraction of the sportsmen in this vicinity. He is still making his rounds, but will get it after while.

Wild geese are going south and probably our rain is near at hand.

The acorn crop is heavy and hogs are doing well.

Grant White of Canby and auto load of traveling salesmen stayed over night in town; recently and all report business good, with roads improving each year.

Miss Grace Tiedeman of Stafford was a town guest the past few days.

Ralph Hoyt of Portland was in town Wednesday.

Latest creations in handsome street hats. Call on Miss C. Goldsmith.

Correct styles in dress hats. Prices reasonable. Miss C. Goldsmith.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wishart and children of Toledo, Oregon, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Wishart. Mr. Wishart was formerly druggist in the Chairman Drug Co. of this city.

Percy Caulfield has returned from an extended trip through California, where he visited all the places most interesting, among them Los Angeles, San Francisco, Santa Catalina, crossed the border and spent some time in Mexico.

For the latest ideas in millinery as they are brought out call on Miss C. Goldsmith.
