

NEWS FROM ROUND ABOUT

CENTRAL POINT

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Chriss and family were visitors at Mr. Staley's, Sunday.

Miss Purse and Miss Weddle, former teachers of the Brown school, spent Sunday in our vicinity. We were glad to have them with us again.

The children's program at the M. E. church was greatly enjoyed. The following program was rendered:

Song by the congregation; responsive reading by Sunday school; prayer by Superintendent Cowhoun; recitation, "He Cometh," Helen Blanchard; recitation, "I Never Knew," Willie Gutperlet; consecration by six primary pupils; song by the congregation, "The Guiding Hand," Zelma Dundas; song, "Sweet Roses," Helen Blanchard; recitation, "If," Alice Quinn; recitation, "Sunshine and Rain," Dora Stanley; "Children's Day," by twelve primary pupils; song, "Birdie's Lullaby," Irene Randall; recitation, "Rays of Sunshine," Florence Randall; song by the primary grade, "Little Rays of Sunshine," a short address by Mr. Geo. Randall of Oregon City; song by congregation, and prayer, which closed the program of the morning.

After a grand dinner was served in the shade of the oaks, which all enjoyed immensely, Sunday school was held, after which Rev. Goshard preached a lovely sermon. Eight additions to the church were received. Rev. Creevy of Canby was present at the services. Church closed in due form and all seemed pleased with the day.

Dr. Wm. Pollard, wife and babe from Springfield, Ore., were visitors at the home of Mrs. Pollard's brother, Geo. Randall during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kellin of this vicinity celebrated their wedding anniversary Saturday evening. Quite a number of wooden presents were received. Games were played, after which a bountiful supper was served. All reported a good time and departed at a late hour in the evening.

Miss Cayton of Portland was visiting with her parents here, Sunday.

Mrs. Ida Montgomery and her daughter, who were visiting Mrs. Montgomery's brother in Portland for a few days last week, returned Friday evening, reporting a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Schibner's daughters of Portland were visitors in this vicinity recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Rettinger were visiting Schibner's one evening last week.

MULINO

Quite a number from this part of the world took the rose show at Portland, and the rose show took them in after a fashion. It is a general consensus of opinion that all of the five or six days of parades, etc., could just as well be had in one or two days at most. People go there expecting to see something worth while every day, but are disappointed. The writer of this heard people from adjoining states say they did expect to see something, but that the decorations were "bum" to say the least. The reporter who says in a Thursday paper that some of the spectators were hogs, evidently overlooked the fact that as a whole visitors to the show are treated like swine and compelled to pay for poor food and seat service at every turn, especially street car service. Strangers to the city have an exceedingly hard time to locate places advertised as attractive points where the parades, etc., can be seen, unless they are guided by a ticket. The policemen on duty were very courteous. Thousands of people waited an hour or more—those who had courage to wait—for the armory to open its doors. Must have been a case of setting the time lock wrong, as in the case of the story of Napoleon, and when the doors were ready to open a loud voiced sergeant or something announced that all would have to pay 25 cents to get in to see the rose show! So it appears to outsiders that the whole affair is simply a "hold up" game to purloin money from suckers. Portland is a beautiful city and many fine people live there, and it is to be hoped the craving for notoriety and gain does not lead the business men to overlook their opportunity to become popular, and make the city a place obnoxious to visitors.

MOUNTAIN VIEW

The small boys enjoy the cherry trees in the back yards of vacant houses. To scribe can see them picking in a tree at this writing, filling on the half ripe fruit, preparing a way for a doctor's call.

Last Monday evening, about fifty friends of Mrs. Jennings congregated at the home of Mrs. Winslow with ice cream, cake and strawberries, then sent for Mrs. Jennings, who is staying with Mrs. Ingram and helping the latter to nurse a sick husband. The surprise was complete and also appreciated. The company spent two hours with her, then went to their homes, each claiming to have had a good time and wishing Mrs. Jennings many happy returns of the day.

Miss Minnie Willoughby is quite ill with a bad foot, the lameness being brought on by too much standing on the member, as she has been working in the woolen mills.

Wins Fight For Life

It was a long and bloody battle for life that was waged by James H. Marshon, of Newark, N. J., of which he writes: "I had lost much blood from lung hemorrhages, and was very weak and run down. For eight months I was unable to work. Death seemed close on my heels, when I began, three weeks ago, to use Dr. King's New Discovery. But it has helped me greatly. It is doing all that you claim. For weak, sore lungs, obstinate coughs, stubborn colds, hoarseness, in grippe, asthma, hay-fever or any throat or lung trouble it's the supreme. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Huntley Bros. Co., prescription druggists, Oregon City, Hubbard, Molalla.

WILLAMETTE

A picnic was held last Wednesday in Schnorr's park. Several Vancouver people were present as the guests of friends. An elegant dinner was served. The Washington people gave the Willamette people great praise for their splendid hospitality. There is no better place to be found for an out-of-door dinner than the above mentioned park.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Myers of Portland were dinner guests last Sunday at the Downey home. They are eastern people and were charmed with the restful, clean appearance of our little city.

Henry Shipley was having a swarm of bees a few days ago. The little honey makers resented his interference and instead of entering their new quarters as all well behaved, civilized bees should, they attacked Mr. Shipley, stinging him very badly, and then departed for the wilderness. H. E. says the ungrateful wretches can go to the place of which we sometimes hear, where the heat is intense, for all

LOGAN

There was a cave-in at the gravel pit last week, but luckily no one was caught. It caused considerable work to get ready for hauling again.

There was a ball game here last Sunday between Logan and Redland, which resulted in a score of 11 to 21 in favor of Logan. It is expected the Clackamas team will be here next Sunday.

A large number of relatives and friends planned and carried out a very successful surprise birthday party for Mrs. L. E. Robbins last Sunday. The party, minus the surprise, served also as a birthday celebration for Miss Effie Kirchem, there being but one day's difference in the dates. A fine dinner was served under the shade of the trees and a merry time was had. Henry Kohl photographed the party.

The Robins are busy harvesting the very short crop of early cherries and they have also been at work on the strawberries.

A great many roses were used and the hall presented a very pretty appearance. J. M. Sleverson was the toast master. Appropriate speeches and addresses were made.

THESE THREE ADVANTAGES ALONE MAKE

THE CHAMPION MOWER

SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHER MACHINES

KNIFE HEAD. The Champion Knife Head has a broad bearing surface. Parts are of case hardened steel to prevent wear. The knife head is long and very strong. Wear caused by the revolving pitman is automatically taken up by means of an adjusting device.

COUPLING YOKE. The coupling yoke is wide and very substantial, making it impossible for the knife to get out of line with the pitman.

COUPLING PINS. The coupling pins are large and case hardened. They provide excellent bearing surfaces. The wide yoke, long pins and the substantial way in which the shoe is attached to the yoke insures positive alignment of the knife and pitman.

With These Superior Features are combined Many Others

Strength of Construction! Ease of Operation! Light Draft!

Some of the hot weather has landed here from the hot and ice cream and shade trees come in good play.

Mrs. Folley of Portland and her sister were here visiting Mrs. A. Durst for a few days last week.

There is rumor of a town site being laid out at Mulino. Let the good work go on. That is what advances a locality. This holding to the acre of land for fear one will not get as much out of it as the other fellow will never boost a place.

Mr. L. Wyant of southern Oregon called on Mr. and Mrs. Husbands last week.

Mr. E. Husbands went on an excursion to The Dalles, Sunday.

Our new sawmill is doing a brisk trade and turning out good lumber. Porter and Husbands are building a barn for O. Davis.

Gas in the stomach comes from food which has fermented. Get rid of this badly digested food as quickly as possible. If you would avoid a bilious attack, HERBINE is the remedy you need. It cleanses and strengthens the stomach, liver and bowels, and restores energy and cheerfulness. Price 50c. Sold by Jones Drug Co.

by the following: Mayor Brownell, Judge G. B. Dimick, Rev. Chas. Robinson, Gilbert L. Hedges, F. J. S. Toose, J. A. Roman, T. G. Clark and G. A. Bickel. Each address was appreciated and heartily applauded by the audience. About 100 people sat down to the banquet which had been prepared by the ladies, and which was highly complimented by all. This was one of the most successful affairs that has been undertaken by the club.

WANTED—A job on a farm as manager for some good man. I am a married man and have one child. Address me at Oregon City, Ore. C. A. Wallace.

I would a great deal rather be put in jail for something I was innocent of or for something that I had not done than to know in my heart that I had done some dishonorable, dirty thing, where I could see the suggestion of it in the eye of every man I looked at.—Governor Wilson of New Jersey in a Recent Speech.
