

"South Bend" Watch

Men of The Hour

meet the hour by the time of a South Bend Watch. Poor time has its ending—good time its beginning in a South Bend Watch—the Standard for pocket timepieces. These master "minute men" are marvels of accuracy. Every South Bend Watch must pass 411 inspections and run on-the-dot in freezing cold and boiling heat before leaving the factory. This takes a full year. But the result is chronometer like accuracy.

Buy A South Bend Watch and end forever the incessant annoyance of an inaccurate watch. South Bend are the watchwords among men who know. When you buy a South Bend watch from us you secure our expert regulation service. This is important for watches don't run the same for everybody. They've got to be regulated to one's personality. If you will come in we will tell you why.

Prices Very Reasonable

Don't think that because the South Bend Watch is high class in every respect that the prices are "way up." On the contrary the cost of a South Bend Watch is very reasonable. Come in and look over our stock and prices. Both will prove a pleasant surprise. Today's a good day to drop in.

A lazy liver leads to chronic dyspepsia and constipation—weakens the whole system. Doan's regulents (25 cents per box) correct the liver, tone the stomach, cure constipation.

The other day J. E. Seelye sent a marked copy of a paper to this office with request to please copy. We refuse for two reasons. We can't make out what it says, and it may be contrary to our politics. All hands have had a try at it, but nothing doing. We tried to read it sitting standing and standing on our heads. But it's Yiddish, and we simply can't get the drift of the argument. Here are a few lines, just to show Seelye that we are not using the censor and want to stand in with him during the fruit season, but we wish to emphatically state that we do not endorse a single word of it. As nearly as we can translate it it starts off like this:

Let us see what kind of a Democrat you are this year. The Courier has started a campaign fund to help along the election of a candidate for president who has no "barrel" to open. Give just what you feel like giving and what you can afford to give. If you can't give a hundred dollars, give a hundred cents, and if you can't give twenty-five dollars, we will gladly add your two-bits to the fund. This movement is endorsed by the Democratic organization of this county, and every cent will be published and turned over to the committee. Be a loyal Democrat this year, and help a little to make Woodrow Wilson our next president.

Three weeks ago the Courier had an item that fifty cases of typhoid were reported at Powell River. B. C. Edward Sheehan writes that we were misinformed and says:—"In reality there were nineteen cases, all but one being of a mild type. There has not been any new cases for the past four weeks. None of the afflicted persons lived in the village of Powell River. In fact there has never been a case of typhoid in the village or the hotels located there. The trouble originated in one of the construction mess houses, located below the village on the ocean beach where two hundred and fifty men are fed. The cause was quickly found and corrected. And there has been no recurrence of the trouble."

Grange Endorses Governor West.

Be it resolved by Harding Grange in regular convention assembled, that we heartily endorse the law enforcement and anti-vice crusade inaugurated by Governor Oswald West. We are hoping for a great measure of success at present and a greater measure in the future, in the way of better laws and better enforcement.

Resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to Governor West and also to the Oregon City Courier and Enterprise and the Portland Oregonian, Telegram and Journal.

Jim Partlow Wants to Know.

Jim Partlow wants to know where this difference comes in. He says a man will come to his farm and buy a chicken for 35 cents, eat all the chicken and have the wishbone to pull.

But the other man will go to a restaurant where a chicken dinner is served, get one leg or a wing of the hen and pay 50 cents for it.

And Partlow says fuel is cheap in Oregon.

OREGON CITY DRUGGIST DESERVES PRAISE

The Jones Drug Co. deserve praise from Oregon City people for introducing here the simple buckthorn bark and glycerine mixture, known as Alder-laka. This simple German remedy first became famous by curing appendicitis and it has now been discovered that A SINGLE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY.

$80,000,000.00 Lost Annually By Wage Earners.

Dr. Sadler estimates that about $80,000,000.00 in wages is lost annually to the American people as a direct result of colds. Lost time means lost wages and doctoring is expensive. Use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound promptly. It will stop the cough, and heal and soothe the sore and inflamed air passages. — Huntley Bros. Co.

TRACK LAYING MACHINE.

Device Places Ties and Rails in Position For the Spikers.

The modern track laying machine should not be confused with track laying tools, as this machine is not a tool, but a real machine that actually lays tracks, says the Scientific American. The machine moves steadily forward over the track it lays at a rate of from twelve to forty feet per minute. At the rear of the track laying machine are cars loaded with ties and rails. The cars which carry the ties are in advance of those carrying the rails. The rails are drawn forward on rollers and are connected temporarily one to the other. As the rails pass under the cars which carry the ties the latter are distributed upon the rails and spaced apart uniformly. The chain of rails thus serves to transport the ties toward the track laying machine. As the rails enter the machine the ties are picked up by a conveyor and carried overhead. They are distributed on the roadbed at the end of a truss that reaches far in advance of the main body of the track laying machine. The rails in the meantime are carried forward and deposited upon ties previously laid. The truss may be swung to one side or the other in order to allow for passing around curves.

The track laying machine is self-propelling. It hauls a train of twenty-five cars of material, more or less depending upon the grade. A train of twelve cars will carry enough material for a mile of track. This machine, with eighteen men, including spikers, can lay and bolt and spike a half a mile of track per day. With a larger force of men two miles of track may be laid in a single day.

KEEPS AUTO IN ROAD.

Spring Attachment Prevents Wheels From Turning Aside Easily.

An ingenious device designed to prevent the front wheels of an automobile from being easily turned aside by obstructions or unevenness in the road is being marketed by an eastern automobile accessory concern.

A spiral spring about three feet long, made from specially prepared oil tempered steel wire, with a center clip and end attachments made from steel forgings, is attached between the front spring seats and the steering rod. It is claimed to correct automatically any tendency of the wheels to turn aside from a straight path.—Popular Mechanics.

Poison From Frogs.

The arrow poison used by the Indians of Columbia has been found to be the secretion of the skin of a small frog. The arrows are eight inch palm spines, which are shot from a blowgun about fourteen feet long, and the hunter carries the frog along in a hollow bamboo in order that he may have the poison in a fresh condition. A simple prick of the skin yields the poison drop when needed. When one of the arrows enters the body of even a large animal, such as a jaguar, monkey or deer, paralysis quickly follows, and the victim is then easily killed. The use of the poison, it is said, does not affect the flesh of the animals killed, which is quite harmless when eaten. Two French naturalists have made experiments with the edible frog, Rana osculenta, showing that its skin exudes a similar poison when irritated and that an extract prepared from the skin gives in guinea pigs the same symptoms as inoculation with the arrow poison.

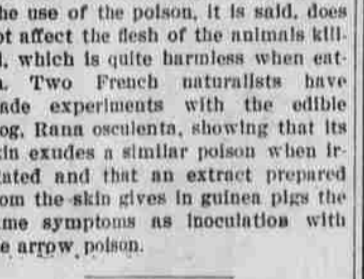

What We Never Forget.

according to science, are the things associated with our early home life, such as Bucklen's Arnica Salve, that mother or grandmother used to cure our burns, boils, scalds, sores, skin eruptions, cuts, sprains or bruises. Forty years of cures prove its merit. Unrivalled for piles, corns, or cold-sores. Only 25 cents at Huntley Bros. Co., Oregon City, Ore.

Miss Pearl Kollermeier has returned from Seattle after a three weeks' vacation visiting friends. She reports a delightful trip and enjoyable time.

W. A. Woodside, of Kings Valley, Benton county, has been in the city on business this week. Mr. Woodside was a former resident of this county, and went to Kings Valley three years ago.

Mrs. Adalyn Davis, saleslady for the celebrated Spirella corset, may be found at her rooms in the Willamette building, over Harding's drug store, Saturdays. Ladies are invited to call.

The Socialist local of Clackamas county will have a meeting at the office of County Secretary Myers, Sunday, September 12 at one p. m. All Socialists are requested to be present. By order of the Executive Committee, W. W. Myers, County Secretary.

And there are yet horse thieves in Oregon. Monday night a saddle horse was stolen from a hitching bar at the court house and ridden away. The horse belonged to Dell McCormack, who lives near Mount Pleasant. The officials are hunting horse and thief.

Deputy Sheriff Miles broke up a honeymoon Monday, when he tagged W. W. Smith, who had just been married at Ganemah, and brought into court. A former wife, it appears, had made a complaint to Judge Campbell, that Smith was in arrears $10 on alimony payments. He deposited $40 with the county clerk.

Chief Shaw received a wire from the marshal of Hood River Wednesday to be on the watch for two youths who had run away from their homes in that city, and in a few hours he made the arrest of the pair. They gave their names as Clay Hepper 15 years and Bert Ledfor, 16. The marshal came after the boys.

Stanley Williams, proprietor of the tonorial parlors on Main street, is taking a preparatory course for the study of medicine in Portland. Next year he will attend the state school at Eugene, after which he will take a regular college course. It will take him six years to complete the instruction. Williams has a big bunch of friends in this city and they will all be glad to see him succeed.

An arrangement was recently made by some of the live members of the commercial club with the Orphium Circuit moving picture company, whereby the five feet panoramic view of Oregon City's "mile of mills," recently taken here, is to be exhibited in New York under a contract for 52 weeks. The contract provides for 3,460 exhibits, and the Orphium people state that there is an average of one thousand people to the exhibits daily. Just size this up: During the life of the contract 3,460,000 people will look at Oregon City's great string of industries, and here is betting that a hundred thousand or so will remember Oregon City and a bunch of them come out to see about it—for you know they say back east there is no manufacturing west of the Mississippi. A short explanation goes with the picture display, and all considered it is a splendid piece of advertising.

McLoughlin Institute opened Monday with a large attendance. September 25—the big Canby fair.

The summer vacations are over and the city begins to look natural again.

School opens a week from Monday, the 23d, and the small boy has a face of gloom.

The Prohibition county convention will be held in Knapp's hall Saturday of this week, commencing at 10 A. M.

Today (Thursday) is the Jewish new year and the Jewish places of business in this city are closed in observance.

Four days of the best entertainment Clackamas county ever put up will start at the Canby fair September 25.

Sheriff Mass is working with the sheriffs from Multnomah and Marion Counties in the effort to find the dynamiters who planted several sticks of dynamite on the S. P. track near Brooks last Sunday night.

There is nothing so good for a sore throat as Dr. Thomas Electric Oil. Cures it in a few hours. Relieves any pain in any part.

Miss Elnora Ginther, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Ginther, left for Haines, Alaska last week, where she resumes her work as government teacher. Miss Ginther is delighted with Alaska, and says the people here have little ideas of its beauties and climate.

There is hardly a day in the week that some person does not come to this office and ask if there are any classified ads. of rooms to rent, furnished or unfurnished, houses to rent, etc. A two-bit ad will often save your house standing idle for $15 worth and the little ad. will almost always rent your rooms. Why don't you use them?

High street should be improved. It is easily accessible to downtown, would be rapidly built up, and would make a handsome residence street. In every instance of street improvement the increased value of the property has been far more than the improvement expense. It is simply a solid business investment and will be as long as demand continues.

He was Judge Mass a part of Monday and Sheriff Mass the rest of the day. The case was Tony Durovitz and Sirl Lorenzo against Vinceti Caccconetti, and we don't wonder regular courts dodged the bunch of trouble. The matter was a dispute over wages and Judge Mass gave either the fz, li, or zo a verdict, we were unable to learn which. Just you pronounce the third man's name to the sheriff and he will tell you all about it.

Miss Lenore Steinbough, for a year past librarian at the city library, has presented her resignation to the board, to take effect when the Carnegie library is opened. Miss Steinbough has won many friends for both herself and the library during her year's work. She is splendidly adapted to the work and has given the highest service and satisfaction. She leaves on account of her health, and will take a trip to Lincoln, Nebraska, when her duties are ended.

Another fellow tried the forged check racket Tuesday, and he probably will not get away as easily as Mills did. He passed the worthless check on B. L. Crowley, at the pool room near Fifth street on Main. The check was written to Robert Sears and signed by R. E. Jones. Linville stated that he had been hop picking, and the check was in payment. Subsequently he tried to pass a check on William Gardner, the Main street jeweler, in exchange for a ring. Chief Shaw arrested the young man Wednesday morning. He said his parents lived in Newberg, and that he was 20 years old. Linville used to work in the city but left here something like three months ago, and came back about five weeks ago. He will have a hearing today.
