HOW 'BOUT IT NEXT TUESDAY?

GOING TO MAKE YOUR MOTHER LOOK LIKE 30 CENTS?

Going to Still let the Negro and Dago Look Down on Her?

following article was written by the Courier editor and printed in the Courier August 4, 1911, and a subscriber (a man. by the way) sent it in and asks that we reprint it this week—Ed.)

A New York woman suffrage leader says eventually women will rule. They have come pretty near doing so for a long time. Does she mean that all men's "rights" are to be taken away? Nothing less would satisfy some women—Portland Journal.

The above doesn't say much— it is along the usual line of "hen it is along the usual line of "hen suffrage" arguments—but it affords a text to say something, and here it is. You men who won't reason, just skip it.

There is hardly a court held in Oregon that there is not a line-up of foreigners who want to be made citizens. Many of them couldn't distinguish Senator Bourne from President Taft, or know whether our reciprocity treaty is between Canada or Mexico. They are drilled pretty well along certain regular examination lines—know the President's name and the difference between Washington and Salem—but I'll bet a Panama against a tooth bet a Panama against a tooth-pick that half of them do not really know the difference between a session of congress and a horsetraders' convention, as to signif-

But the routine makes them American citizens and they are given the American ballot.

A macaroni-eating Dago can live here the prescribed time, have someone pound a little polit-have someone pound a little political catchism into his head, and he becomes a voting American citizen. His idea of citizenship is to live in a box car and save $500, and his idea of life is to buy cow heads at the butcher shop and exist on fifteen cents a day.

But he can vote—he's a citizen.

A Mississippi negro, whose sole ambition in life is to get a side of razor-back bacon and a pint of nigger gin—a man who can't tell the a, b and e of a nursery primmer from a Hebrew dollar sign; who thinks Abraham Lincoln was God and N'Orleans hell—this man is a citizen of the United States and he can vote.

and he can vote.

Once upon a time when this country was a side door exit of Old England our people rose up and fought like demons for eight long years.

Do you recall what it was all about? Sure you do. We fought like dogs and killed like wolves be-cause we were taxed and not allowed to vote.

When did you get the idea that your mother, wife, daughter or sister was not equal in voting rights with a Dago, or a negro?

How considerate.

Yet these same men will drag bows with the boosters and burns.

We escort them to public dances where a medley of men take turns putting their arms around their waists and holding their hands.

We take them to the circuses and crowds where they have to mix it and mob if with the bums and blisters of every society.

But we CAN'T let them mix up No Wonder Zemo Is GUARANTELD to Stop Itching, and DOES IL. two years on election day—we can't let them go where their sons go, and vote for laws and officials tamale-eating greaser who does-n't know the boundaries of New Mexico.

The time will come when men will want them to vote to keep America for Americans and out of the control of the men who they now give the rights above them.

The Last Chance.

Editor Courier:

I want to call the attention of the voters of the county and state to a few remarks from dif-ferent parties in the last issue of the Courier, in connection with the single tax question and ry and show their inconsistency. You say, "The single tax people contend that the extra tax on the contend that the extra tax on the present tax dodgers, will allow us to exempt improvements from taxation, and then have the same amount of taxes we raise now." Then you say "Even if this did not work out, we would be just the amount ahead that these big eoncerns and speculators pay, and that much less for the present property to pay, wouldn't we? Now this is a peculiar system of reasoning and is certainly very wrong, for it is very evident that we would first have to collect as much from these cornerations. much from these corporations and speculators as we lost from all the exemptions (which in this county would be about $9,000,- we vote. Friend Robbins could surely make his figures come out just right if we would let him attend to the revolution of the land in the county and do the assessing himself. He would only make two dollars an acre difference between the tillable land, and, the nonhe tillable land and the non-illable land Yes, Brother Rob-bins, that would fix it all right.

a fair thought before we vote, be-cause if we don't we will surely be forced to think of them after

Now my friends, I think it is not necessary for me to dwell on this subject any longer. We have aired both sides of it pretty well, and the voters have not been asleep all the time this single tax controversy has been going on, and the most of them have doubtless made up their minds by this time, how they are going to vote, and all I hope is, that the judgement of the people may direct their votes in the way that will be for the greatest good of the county and state.

This will be the last on this subject; vote carefully boys.

GEORGE HIGINBOTHAM.

Give The Boys a Chance.

It is a fact, observes the Westrn Stock Journal, a publication levoted exclusively to the livestock industry, and published at Oregon City, Ore., that the boy on the farm has not been given the grand-father fought the British chance he deserves. He is set to for years for the same right that you fight to keep from your wife, mother or daughter—taxation without representation without representation,

The politicians who do not he stops for breath, and it becomes a drudgery, the whole want women to vote use the very comes a drudgery, the whole weighty argument that the right business becomes distasteful, and weighty argument that the right of the ballot would misex our dear women, that the influence of our election day crowds will contaminate our fair women and have a tendency to ruin our homouragement, teach them modern methods. The thoughts of farm drudgery will soon give place to their exclusive wives and sweet-hearts to ball games to touch el-and the boy will be laying a foun-

A few applications of ZEMO, the remarkable new remedy for ate holdings, would puncture fic- ice. I trust progressive Oregon the man that each one of us individual should at all times be subservient to the general good.

Speaking in reference to the present system of taxation in the United States, Dr. Sheldon declared it to be a "gigantic fraud, unfair," and something that puts a premium on dishonesty. He said:

WHAT REV. CHARLES SHELDON THINKS OF SINGLE TAX.

Author of "In His Steps Gives you Something to Think About.

Single taxers in secret—that is, they practice it by hiding from the assessor their wealth as represented by stocks and bonds, jewelry and kindred things."

"In Oregon I dare say, the rec-

About the biggest argument the fighters of single tax make is to accuse anyone who advocat.

"In Oregon, I dare say, the records will disclose similar instances as the Illinois tax list show. Not long ago an inquiry was made regarding the personal lists subes the reform as being a Fels fund employee, a "paid hireling."
"basking in Fel's sunshine," etc.
Here is a man who advocates it that you can hardly accuse of having sold out. What do you think of the following etracts of what he said?

Last Friday night Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, of Topeka, Kans., the celebrated author of "In His Steps," delivered an address to a large crowd at the Congregational Brotherhood, Ask any man who heard his right millionaires residing on mitted by millionaires residing on Michigan Ave., in Chicago. The lists showed that not one of those millionaires owned such a thing that you can hardly accuse of millionaires residing on Michigan Ave., in Chicago. The lists showed that not one of those millionaires owned such a thing that you can hardly accuse of having sold watch or a painting. In the said of the following etracts of the following etracts of what he said?

Last Friday night Rev. Charles to three times the value listed by the general manager of the same line. These illustrations simply serve to show that the whole system is a gigantic fratid. Men, honest in everything else, will lie straight from the shoulder when it comes to taxes.

Ask any man who heard his splendid address if he thinks this gentleman has "sold out," and then read the following extracts from his speech in Portland:

"Single tax in Oregon would bring about greater prosperity in the State; would open the gates to thousands of tillable acres now shut tight by the big land speculators and would benefit the people as a whole. It is the well being of the whole that we in justice must look out for," he said.

straight from the shoulder when it comes to taxes.

"The land, however, is in plain sight. It cannot be hidden. It is the one thing from which all wealth springs. A tax on it, on public utility franchises, and on natural resources—things belonging to the people—and necessary for their comfort and well—being, as one of the Oregon's tax—ation measures proposes, will not allow of injustice, in my opinion. It means a fairer distribution of the burden of governmental expenses, and the ulti-"The proposed system of tax-ation would break up large priv-

Implements

and Vehicles

of Quality

PAT A 1898

IDENT---WHO?

GEORGE HICINBOTHAM THINKS ROOSEVELT THE MAN.

Thinks he Represents More that The People Stand For.

Editor Courier:-

As you have requested us to send in our preference for Presi-dent, I will try and make my podent, I will try and make my po-sition as plain as I can, in regard to this matter. I don't think the choice of men for the Presidency should have but very little to do in influencing our votes at this election. I think all the candi-dates are highly honorable and dates are highly honorable and intelligent men, and are all worthy of the Presidency, but it does certainly look to me like the people of the United States will never have a better opportunity to put themselves in the saddle, so that they can handle these powerful and corrupt corporatand money kings than they have right now.

mental expenses, and the ulti- think will be for the best inter-

FallGoods

That Never

Fall Down

Hoosier Drills Positive Forced Feed

Bloom Manure

Spreaders

Double Steel Reach

J. I. CASE PLOWS

The Plow a Man Can Pull

Dick's Feed Cutters

A big line, and good

Drew Litter Carriers

A genuine labor saver

HARROWS

Disc, spring, spike-tooth

Water Systems

The Mitchell Wagon

Monarch of the Road

W. J.

WILSON

&

CO.

Oregon City

encouragement that they will ad-vocate the divestment of the President's power to nominate the Federal officers in the differthe Federal officers in the different states.

The Republican party maintains an unnecessary high protective tariff and the Democratic wants entire free trade, both of which I think is wrong. But the man we elect for President cannot govern this matter wholly himself. Therefore we need to be careful about our Senators and Representatives. Representatives.
Mr. Roosevelt is a powerful and

Mr. Roosevelt is a powerful and an aggressive leader and in a fight like the one we are now entering into, to break up the power of these mighty and extremely corrupt trusts and corporations. I think we could get no better leader to help put the thing in shape.

Some Warm Ones for the People to Think About.

Editorial writers on the Portland papers seem very young or right now.

TWILIGHT.

I believe the laboring people and the middle class of the United States are almost a unit in shipped them to Portland by express, receiving 14 cents per lb. After paying commission and transportation charges they network the party that endorses the principles that we like and that we think will be for the best interests of the people, as a whole, is the man that each one of us the man that the mathematician, we also have laws without each of the man that the mathematician, but the mathematician, we also have laws without each of the man that personners on and them to Portland by express the mead of a local produce market. The Portland weights and plainly indicates the need of a local produce market. The Portland weights and plainly indicates the need of a local produce market. The Portland weight them to Portland by expression and tents of them to Portland by exercity and t satisfied with a profit of one dollar and thirty-nine cents, for five per cent of the transaction, while you Oregon City tradesmen demand twenty-five per cent. Still more disparaging comparisons than the above could be quoted as having taken place during the past several years. This exortation, pardon the expression, is actually taking place every day as but yery few productions. every day as but very few produc-ers hesitate to investigate the adiceable in this vicinity last. Thursday morning.

Bert MacArthur has traded his 50 acre tract, located in this vicinity for a 160 acre ranch three miles east of Molalla. The transfer will be made immediately after election. We distike very much to see Mr. MacArthur and the family move out of this community as our loss is an excellent family, whom we most heart. ent family, whom we most heart-ily reccomend to their new ac-quaintainces in and around Mo-very interesting session last Sat-urday night. The Literary Enter-on, by a trip to Portland Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Spiger are enter-taining relatives from Spokane, who we hope may not prejudiced against Oregon by the daily dews desceding upon us.

The barn of Bert MacArthur, together with 23 tons of hay, a together with 23 tons of hay, a manure spreader and one or two other farm implements of lesser importance, burned Tuesday night. Some insurance, At this writing the cause is unknown.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hendrickson from near Union Mills, are visiting L. J. Hylton.

The Western Farmer at Fault.

The vast amount of money sent to the middle west each year for hogs and pork products is detrimental to the best interests of the western states, says the Western Stock Journal, published at Oregon City, Ore. We are forced to buy a great many of core buy a great many or our hogs in

The property of the condition of the property of the condition of the property of the property

JOHN STARK'S CAUSTIC CUTS

EDITORIALS THAT THE CON-DITIONS BREED.

no better leader to help put the thing in shape.

The best and strongest men of the nation recognize him as an aggressive and able leader and they are proud of the honor of standing by him in his fight for right and justice.

Let us work for the principles we think are right, irrespective of party name, study this matter carefully and then vote the way we think right.

GEORGE HICINBOTHAM. son's life is secure, no matter in what walk of life, someone is liable to cave in our heads with an ax or club, or shoot us full of A member of this community holes, yet we go about our way recently marketed three dozen old hens. In Oregon Cit yhe was cause we are keeping a lot of al-

I would also remind these editors, notably the Oregonian's, of an inevery day as but very leader of the adjacent markets, accepting the first offer tendered. Talk about your trusts, not only the past but the immediate present indicates a soul in the corporation like a wash tub, compared with the pinheaded conscience of the average local merchant.

A slight skift of snow was noticeable in this vicinity last iceable in this vicinity without a trial. Just draw your own conclusions, you of the sim-ple mind, and you hypocrites snarl.

ainment, so ably arranged by Mr.
W. A. Dodds, and introduced after the business of the Club had been transacted, was highly appreciated by the seventy odd people in attendance.

The Spiger girls introduced Christma, shopping for the seas-

Not yet! but some day we will see those men who bend their backs to productive labor, man the ship of state. Then the high cost of-living will be solved upon the principle of—He that will not work, neither shall he eat. Anything wrong in that? Show me!

At a rotary club dinner in Portland, a chinaman made a sfirring spech—you see the men of affairs never draw the line at color, race, nationality or religion—now don't forget that! In that speech he said the motto on the coin should read "In this god we trust." That "the great European powers were sending to China Christians who would persuade us to turn our plowshare into swords that we may slay and be slain in the most graceful way. That we may kill in the most approved manner." How does that strike you for

At a Republican rally I heard

Farmers Look Up Your FALL Requirements in Farm Tools

NOW

If you need a new Plow or Harrow, Feed Cutter, Wagon, Buggy---ANYTHING in Implements or Vehicles, you will find it in the

Mitchell Line The Best for The West

See Us! CANBY

@ IMPLE-

See Us!