

Choose Your Xmas Gifts

From Our Magnificent Stock

WHAT shall I give? That's the question that has been bothering you more or less for the past few weeks. To give a satisfactory answer to that question we have spent months in selecting the finest stock of Holiday goods we have ever had the good fortune to own. From every corner of the earth have been gathered articles of beauty and utility to grace our store—to supply your needs. Here you will surely find something to suit your fancy. Perhaps it will be a gem, or a piece of silverware, or cut glass or a watch.

The only way—the best way to settle this perplexing Christmas gift problem is to visit our store and look over the beautiful array of presents. Goods to suit all—prices to suit all. That's the keynote of the season here. Call in soon before all the choice gifts are gone.

Here's a Few Suggestions

FOR WOMEN

- Watches
- Diamonds
- Rings
- Lockets
- Brooches
- Bar Pins
- La Vallieres
- Cuff Buttons
- Silver Mesh Bags
- Handy Pins
- Toilet Sets

- Jewelry Cases
- Coral, Pearl and Gold Beads
- Desk Sets
- Earrings
- Bracelets
- Thumb Rings
- Watch Fobs
- Watch Pins
- Agate Pins
- Waterman Fountain Pens
- Kodaks

- Card Cases
- Vanity Boxes
- Opera Glasses
- Sterling Silver Picture Frames
- Umbrellas
- Clocks
- Cut Glass
- Stearling, 1847 Rogers Bros. and Community Silver
- Haviland and Hand Painted China
- Libbey and Star Cut Glass

FOR MEN

- Watches
- Set Rings
- Signet Rings
- Stick Pins
- Cuff Buttons
- Waterman Fountain Pens
- Gillette, Durham Duplex, Autostrap, Ever Ready And Gem, Jr. Safety Razors.

- Watch Chains
- Agate Pins
- Lodge Emblems
- Tie Clasps
- Silver and Ebony Hair Brushes
- Autostrap, Ever Ready And Gem, Jr. Safety Razors.

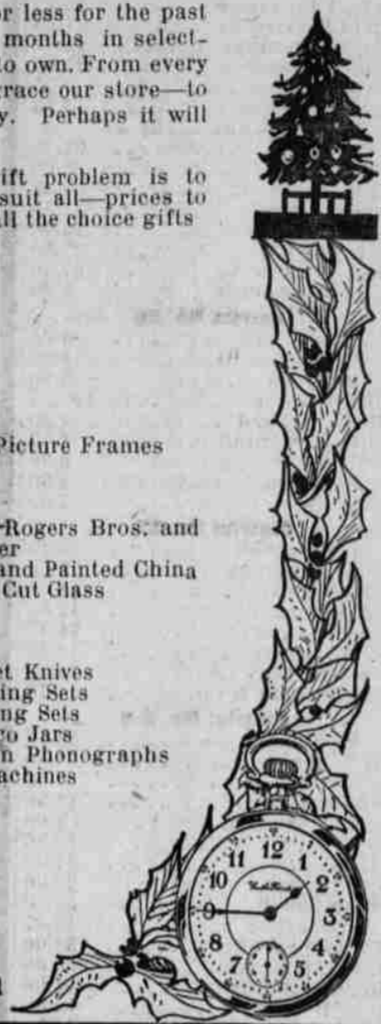

- Kodaks
- Match Safes
- Umbrellas
- Cloth Brushes
- Military Brushes
- Silver and Ebony Hair Brushes
- Autostrap, Ever Ready And Gem, Jr. Safety Razors.

- Pocket Knives
- Smoking Sets
- Shaving Sets
- Tobacco Jars
- Ebison Phonographs
- Victor Talking Machines

BURMEISTER & ANDRESEN

OREGON CITY JEWELERS

Suspension Bridge Cor. Oregon City, Oregon

OREGON CITY.

Mayor Jones, Tuesday, December 10. Come to Oregon City and celebrate.

Mrs. John Kent of Parkplace, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Yoder, of Albany.

Nathaniel Smith, who has been ill with typhoid fever, and who was taken to the Oregon City Hospital last week, is improving.

Aerial Zinsler, son of Mrs. J. C. Zinsler of Thirteenth and Washington Streets, who has been very ill with typhoid fever, is improving.

Miss Gladys Byron, who is attending school in Oregon City, has returned to her home at Tualatin, where she will spend several weeks.

Miss Erm a Petzold has returned to Eugene to resume her studies at the University of Oregon, after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Petzold.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Klostra of Elgin Oregon, have arrived in Oregon City to visit their son, Peter Klostra and family. They will remain here for several weeks.

Mrs. Pauline Schwartz, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Winnie Boylan and family at Cathlamet, Wash., has returned to Oregon City.

Frank Betzel, who spent Thanksgiving and the remainder of the week with his wife and two sons at Corvallis, returned to Oregon City on Sunday evening.

Wallace Caulfield, a student of the University of Oregon, returned to Eugene Sunday evening after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Caulfield of this city.

And after 20 years of agitation, the public elevator proposition won out. Woman suffrage beat it by about 30 days, but it came in ahead of the government locks canal.

It takes the real kind of sand to be a candidate against a woman, but the majority Linn Jones received, shows he is as popular with the lady voters as with the men.

Mrs. Ellen Dempster, who has been ill for the past month, suffering from typhoid fever and complications, has improved so that she was able to resume her position at the C. C. Store this week.

Miss Alice Bollinger and Euphemie Roehat, of Portland, spent Friday and Saturday in Oregon City visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bollinger of Twelfth and Center Streets.

Miss Bess Warner, teacher of the Siefer school, Clackamas Co., who has been spending Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Warner, returned to Siefer on Sunday evening.

Gaylord Godfrey, who is taking a course in medicine at the Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis, who has been spending Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Godfrey, of this city, returned to Corvallis on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wood, who have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Caulfield, have returned to their home in Washougal, Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Henderson of Hood River have also been visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Caulfield.

The James Adkins Lumber Co. will remove the big lumber mill here and start it up as soon as the Clackamas Southern is able to deliver the logs from the mill area country. This means more work and more added to Oregon City's great pay roll.

Deputy Sheriff Bert Staats took William Hardin, the Bull Run ranchman to Salem Tuesday, to commence his 20-year sentence. Hardin was convicted of the charge of intimacy with his stepdaughter, but protests his innocence and declares he will not remain long.

A news item in the Portland Journal says that Herbert Way, son of H. Way, superintendent of the Oregon City power plant, was awarded first prize at the baby show and beauty contest given by the P. R. L. & P. Co.'s contest last week.

A. McDonald, Veterinary Surgeon and Dentist, Sixth and Water streets, Phone Main 116.

Mrs. Julia Haskell, who has been visiting with friends in Portland, has returned to her home in this city.

Miss Ethel Tooze, a student of the University of Oregon, returned to Eugene Sunday evening, after visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tooze.

Everybody is coming to Oregon City to the big railroad day celebration Tuesday of next week. Everything is free, a program, music, speeches, parade and the cats.

As M. D. Latourette received more votes than any other candidate on proposition, in the city election, the Courier moves that he file an expense list.

Gus Schuebel, a well known farmer of Shubel, was transacting business in Oregon City Monday, and was accompanied here by his son. They visited the former's brother, C. Schuebel before returning home.

Mrs. Louis Heckman, who has been at her home at Tualatin and Center streets suffering from typhoid fever, is slowly improving. Mrs. Heckman's mother, Mrs. Elliott, arrived in Oregon City on Sunday evening, and will remain here until Mrs. Heckman's condition is more favorable.

County Clerk Mulvey was one of the real busy ones on the elevator proposition, and every minute he was out of his office he was doing missionary work. And the handsome majority was in a large measure due to his energetic work.

After visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Daulton of the west side for several weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Reno and daughter, left for their home in California on Monday evening. Mr. Reno visited in Oregon City during the summer and is much impressed with Oregon.

Was that voters' amendment, the people buried Tuesday a mistake or a joker? If a mistake, what was it and who made it? There is a splendid opportunity for explanation, for the amendment had the caption over it: "Proposed by the council of Oregon City, and if it was a mistake, the city council should explain and clear itself."

"Now it is but a matter of the city council working out the details of the public elevator and getting the work started. The elevator under consideration at the former election had a capacity of 20 persons and would make the one-way trip in one minute. As soon as the plans are settled work will begin on the project.

Mrs. J. L. Ashton of Clackamas, was in Oregon City visiting with friends on Saturday. Mrs. Ashton will leave the latter part of this week for Seattle, Wash., where she will join Mr. Ashton, who left several weeks ago for that place which will be their future home.

Mr. Ashton was a well known teacher of Clackamas County, and Mrs. Ashton a musical instructor.

Mayor I. R. Wishart, of Toledo, Oregon, who has been in Portland on business and also visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Wishart, of Oregon City, returned to Toledo on Friday morning.

Mr. Wishart was formerly in the drug business in this city being connected with the Charman Drug Store. He is the owner and proprietor of a large drug store in Toledo.

Mrs. James McFarland, who with her husband left Oregon City in the early summer for Powell River, B. C., where they are making their home, Mr. McFarland being employed with the Powell River Paper Co., arrived in Oregon City the latter part of last week, and will remain in Oregon City visiting with relatives until Christmas. Mrs. McFarland is a niece of Mr. Elliott and Mrs. M. E. Dunn.

M. L. Brown of Corry, Pa., is visiting at M. J. Brown's on Third street and M. E. Bunn's on Center street. Young Brown is attending the Pennsylvania state college of forestry and has been for seven months in the Wallawa country in Eastern Oregon, with a governmental corps, gathering statistics for the bureau of forestry. He is twenty years old and six feet, three inches. He will return to Pennsylvania, after a few days' visit here.

Charles Grace of Clarks, was in Oregon City Monday.

Miss Leila Hiatt is very ill at her home at Mt. Pleasant.

William Parry of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

Edward Hornschoch of Home-dale, spent Sunday in Portland.

William Wilson visited friends at Beaver Creek on Sunday.

Albert Linsley of Beaver Creek, was in the city Saturday.

George Holman of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City Monday.

Jacob Jossi of Clairmont transacted business in Oregon City Monday.

W. S. Tull, mayor of Barlow, was transacting business in the city Monday.

Mr. Schmidt and son, George, of Shubel, were in Oregon City on Monday.

Frank Jaggar of Carus, was among those visiting in Oregon City Tuesday.

Born, Saturday, November 30, to the wife of Mortimer Coekrell, of Sixth and Washington streets, a daughter.

James Bison of Shubel, was transacting business in Oregon City Saturday.

Bert Morgan, the popular clerk at Farr Bros. market on Seventh street, is very ill at his home with typhoid fever.

Mrs. Harley Stevens of Portland, was in Oregon City on Monday, visiting relatives.

John Klein, one of the well-known residents of Carus, was in Oregon City Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Massinger and two children, were Oregon City visitors, Saturday.

A. P. Schneider, the merchant of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City on business Saturday.

Mrs. Albert Schoenborn and son, of Carus, were among the Oregon City visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Howard, well known residents of Carus, were in Oregon City on Saturday.

Mrs. W. F. Schooley, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. H. Gaylor of Philomath, Oregon, has returned home.

Charles Nash, who has been in Oregon City for several months, looking after property interests, left Sunday for his ranch in eastern Oregon.

Thomas Lovett, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lovett, is very ill at the family home on Thirteenth and Washington streets, suffering from typhoid fever.

Mrs. G. W. Grace returned to her home in this city Monday, after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Spence at Beaver Creek. Mrs. Grace accompanied Mrs. Grace to this city, returning to her home Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fortune left the early part of the week for Texas, where they will visit with Mrs. Fortune's brother and family at San Antonio. Mrs. Fortune's brother and family visited here during the summer and expect to move to Oregon to make their home in the early spring.

Mrs. George Elliott, of San Francisco, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Devine and two children, Billy and Fred of Portland, were in Oregon City on Sunday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest P. Elliott and family. Mrs. George Elliott is a niece of Mr. Elliott and Mr. Devine is a nephew.

Roy Eaton, Verna Rooke, Everett Dye, Carl Vonderake, Merrill Nelson, Eldon Aldredge, Labron Edwards, Ambrose Brownell and Willis Rickard, who went to Salem a few days ago, where they attended the Boys' Club convention, have returned to Oregon City. Those going from this city are members of the Boy Scouts, and have enjoyed several outings during the summer.

Mrs. Don Meldrum, who has been critically ill at the St. Vincent's hospital, suffering from pneumonia, is improving, and hopes are entertained for her speedy recovery. Mrs. Meldrum was recovering from the effects of a surgical operation when she was stricken with pneumonia. Mr. Meldrum, who has been at his wife's bedside for the past week, will return to Oregon City this week.

Mrs. Jennie Boyles, who has been critically ill for several months, is improving.

Mrs. P. M. Graves of Macksburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Eva Harpen of Wapanita, Wash.

William Christenson of Beaver Creek was among those transacting business in Oregon City on Saturday.

Mr. Dietrich of Eldorado, accompanied by Herman Dietrich, of Eldorado, were in this city on business Monday.

Miss Alice Bailey, who is suffering from nervous prostration, is slightly improved, although she is still seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. James Petty, who have been spending the past month in Oregon City, have returned to their home at Seaside.

George Kirbyson, one of the prominent farmers of Clackamas county, whose home is at Schubel, was in Oregon City Monday.

Miss Clara Mitchell, who is one of the victims of typhoid fever, and who is at the city hospital, is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Cummins, of Barton, the former a well-known sawmill man of Clackamas county, were in the city on business Monday.

Mrs. Mary Freeman, who recently went to Camas, Wash., where she has been making her home with her son, has returned to Oregon City for a visit.

Henry Dainbach of Pendleton, has arrived in Oregon City and will remain here visiting his park until March.

Miss Mable Mills, who has been spending the past week, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Mills of Sandy, has returned to Oregon City.

Mrs. Clara Weiversik, a teacher of this county, has been attending the teachers' institute and also visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Weiversik.

Miss Wilhelmina Kleinson, who left Sunday morning for Barton, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cummings, returned to the city Monday.

Dr. Eleanor Beaty, who has been visiting her brother at Caldwell, Idaho for the past five weeks, has returned to this city and has taken apartments in the Farr building.

Roy Tobin, of Powell River, B. C., returned to Oregon City last week and after visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Tobin, will return to Powell River the latter part of this week.

There is in the Courier's display window a skin about a yard long that was brought to this office by Sam Smith. The first person who correctly guesses the animal from which this skin was taken, will be given a year's subscription to the Courier.

Among those in this city who are suffering from typhoid fever and complications, are: Mrs. Clara Mitchell, Miss Ella Howell, who are at the Oregon City hospital; Joe Justin and a brother, sons of Matthew Justin, of Eleventh and Center street, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Parberry of Eleventh and Washington; Miss Florence White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. White, Eighth and Jefferson; Aerial Zinsler, son of Mrs. J. C. Zinsler of Thirteenth and Washington streets; Mrs. Heckman of Twelfth and Center streets, two little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Andresen of Sixth and Jefferson streets, Ot- to Erickson, Fourth and Jefferson; Miss Alberta Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Dunn, Fifth and Main; G. Schuebel, Seventh and Jefferson; Mrs. J. R. Landsborough, Seventh and Jefferson; Gerald Wilcox, Seventh and Main street; Frank Chamption, Jr., Twelfth and Main street; Mrs. Dennemann, of Mt. Pleasant; W. E. Pratt, Seventh and Water street; little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Hedges of High street; Fred Baker of Gladstone, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Baker; Miss Bertha Barry of Fourteenth and Madison street. In many cases nurses from Portland are in attendance. One physician has 23 cases, while others have from 15 to 20 cases. Physicians are working diligently to stamp out the epidemic and several have reported that their cases are under control.

The funeral of J. A. Swanson was held Saturday afternoon. Mr. Swanson was the shoemaker who committed suicide on Thanksgiving day.

Look—100 by 100 lot for sale. A snap. Cor. 7th and Polk St., by owner. Cash on terms. Address—Mrs. Miley, 1190 E. 9th St. N., Portland, Oregon.

Sheep for sale—150 ewes coming with lamb January 1, will sell in lots to suit purchaser. Also fresh cows for sale. F. E. Parker, Oregon City R. 3, Maple Lane.

Tonight at the United Brethren church there will be special music by the blind soloist, Mrs. Snyder. Miss Blitz will speak. A cordial welcome to all.

Miss Sedonia Shaw is slowly improving from her illness. It will be several weeks before Miss Shaw will be able to resume her position with the Abstract company.

Neil Terrill, got the end of a finger lacerated badly, by getting caught in the banding of the woolen mills on Monday. Dr. Meisner is treating him, and the finger is doing nicely.

It is an amusing sight to see the dozens of little tots going to school mornings, each packing his quart of boiled drinking water. Enough fluid is carried to the several schools to fill a swimming pool.

Thornton Howard, a student of the University of Oregon, who has been visiting during the past week with his mother, Mrs. Anna Howard, of this city, has returned to Eugene to resume his studies.

Both, November 27, at Wapanita, Wash., to the wife of Hank Harpen, a son. Mrs. Harpen was formerly Miss Eva Graves, daughter of Macksburg, and was a well known school teacher of Clackamas county before her marriage.

Friends of rural carrier, Frank Whiteman, are keeping a series of six smiles chasing over his good natured face by their contributions of voting coupons on the Howard automobile. Frank says his number is 2 and his route 2, and that 2 and 2 look like a winning combination.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Dambach and son Alfred, of Jersey City, N. J., are in the city visiting the former's brother, George Dambach and family. They have been visiting in California on their way to Oregon, and after their visit here will leave for Germany, where they will make their future home.

The following appears in the Klamath Falls Northwestern about an Oregon City boy, formerly on the Courier staff: "Speculation is rife in local circles as to whether or not Phil Sinnott will resign his position with the Big Basin Lumber company in order to accept a position in Washington, D. C., secured for him by his relative, Nick Sinnott, just elected to congress.

Mrs. R. E. Lawrence of Minneapolis, who was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morris last summer, sends clippings from Minneapolis papers of pictures of the Oregon exhibit at the Northwestern Land show in Minneapolis. Mrs. Lawrence says that Oregon had a splendid exhibit and caused much comment among people who are interested in the development of the country's resources. She says she found Mr. Freytag, who had charge of the Oregon exhibit, a very affable gentleman and fully capable of enlightening visitors regarding the state of Oregon.

Roy Thomas of Union Hall was in the city Monday on business. Gilbert Erickson is very ill with typhoid.

Thomas Fish of Mulino, was in the city on business Tuesday. Miss Kathryn Sinnott, of Portland is visiting her aunt, Mrs. T. L. Charman.

Thomas Jones of Beaver Creek, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lake Casto of Carus, were in the city Wednesday.

Miss Kathryn Sinnott has accepted a position in the office of County Clerk Mulvey.

Miss Esther Moore, residing on Tenth and Main streets, who has been very ill with typhoid fever, is improving.

John Fairclough came in from the Ogle mine last week, and is attending to business matters in connection with the mine.

Richard Davis, one of the well-known farmers of Carus, accompanied by his son, Earl, were among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. S. Oldstein of Victoria, B. C., has arrived in Oregon City and is the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. Price. She is also visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Tolpolar.

Charles Bollinger, who has been very ill at his home on Twelfth street is slightly improved, but it will be several days before he will be able to resume his position in Huntley Bros.

Mark Sturges, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sturges, is very ill at the family home on Sixth and Madison streets. The little fellow has been suffering with typhoid fever for the past two weeks.

Mrs. Charles Larson, who was called to the Pacific coast about two weeks ago, to look after the estate of her father, a California pioneer, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Shewman at Concord a few days last week. She left Saturday for her home in Tidouie, Pa.

Miss Hazel Gunther, whose marriage to Mr. Francis McGahy was solemnized on Wednesday evening, was taken by surprise at the home of her sister, Mrs. Christ Grazier, Monday evening by some of her friends calling in a body, bringing many pretty gifts. The affair was in the form of a miscellaneous shower. During the evening Miss Gunther's sister Mrs. Grazier, served a luncheon to the guests.

Jacob Grossmueller and wife of Beaver Creek, were in Oregon City Wednesday.

Chas. Hazeldale, a farmer of the Hazeldale county, was among the visitors in Oregon City Wednesday.

Mrs. A. L. Blanchard and daughter, Miss Elva, accompanied by Mrs. May Walker, of this city, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Edmiston of Beaver Creek.

Joseph Justin, who has been very ill at his home on Eleventh and Center streets, has recovered and is back at his work with Price Bros.

Fruit trees, rose bushes and fancy shrubbery at half regular price. Best two year fruit trees at ten cents each. H. J. Bigger, 9th and Centre Street, Oregon City.

Miss Mollie Mitchell was taken to the city hospital Wednesday. Miss Mitchell has been ill for the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Ely. She is suffering from typhoid fever.

Ready For Engagements
Flechner's Orchestra, formerly Star Orchestra, is now ready for engagements for concerts, weddings, dances, lodges and club entertainments. Any number of instruments furnished. For information, inquire of Gustav G. Flechner, or Roy Baxter, Pacific phone Main 271.

In Memoriam of D. K. Bill.
Whereas, God in his infinite wisdom has removed from our midst our beloved brother, D. K. Bill, a charter member of Abernethy Grange No. 346
And whereas, as he was a very active and energetic member of this Grange, therefore he is respected; That this Grange feels deeply the loss of Brother Bill, and extends to the members of his family over sympathy and love, also that our charter be draped in mourning and a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes, a copy be sent to the family and to the Oregon City press.
J. F. Apperson,
Jennie Butts,
A. M. Bratton,
Committee
E. C. Hackett, Secretary.

Famous Stage Beauties
look with horror on skin eruptions, blotches, sores or pimples. They don't have them, nor will any one who uses Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It glorifies the face. Eczema or salt rheum vanish before it. It cures sore lips, chapped hands, chilblains; heals burns, cuts and bruises. Unequaled for piles. For sale only 25c at Huntley Bros Co.

COME AND GET IT!
Get your Dollars worth in good Drygoods every time.
Useful Reasonable Slightly Seasonable
Merchandise at prices you can well afford to pay. The "good enough" kind, the kind you will want to buy again.
Ladies' Hats cut to Half Price.
Toys and Gifts now ready for your inspection.
C. I. STAFFORD
Cor. 6th and Main

Calfornia Woman Seriously Alarmed
"A short time ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and caused me a great deal of annoyance. I would have had coughing spells and my lungs were so sore and inflamed I was to be seriously alarmed. A friend recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saying she had used it for years. I bought a bottle and it relieved my cough the first night, and in a week I was rid of my cold and soreness of my lungs," writes Miss Mary Gerber, Sateville, Calif. For sale by Huntley Bros. Co.

Cured of Liver Complaint
"I was suffering with liver complaint," says Iva Smith of Point Blank, Texas, "and decided to try a 25c box of Chamberlain's Tablets, and am happy to say that I am completely cured and can recommend them to every one." For sale by Huntley Bros. Co.

OREGON CITY RESTAURANT and OYSTER HOUSE
Serves Meals, Lunches, Short, Orders
OPEN DAY AND NIGHT
J. Mann, Prop.
8th St. Near Main OREGON CITY

Santa Claus says
"There's no gift to compare with a Victor"

No matter how much or how little you want to pay for a Christmas gift, you won't get anything that will give so much pleasure as a Victor or Victor-Victrola.

There's one of these instruments at a price to suit every purse—Victor-Victrolas $15, $25, $40, $50, $75, $100, $150, $200; Victors $10, $17.50, $25, $32.50, $40, $50, $60, $100—and we'll arrange easy terms if desired.

Stop in any time and we'll gladly demonstrate these wonderful instruments and play any music you wish to hear.

There will be a shortage of Victors this Christmas. Better select yours at once. We'll hold it for you.

HUNTLEY BROS. CO.
Victor and Edison Agents OREGON CITY, OREGON

