

WHAT TO BUY FOR CHRISTMAS

CUFF BUTTONS
We have a fine display of Cuff Buttons in Gold, Gold-filled, Silver & Pearl, that Range in price from 50c to $30.00. Our plain Satin-finish Gold Buttons with the monogram engraved is a favorite. Ask to see them.

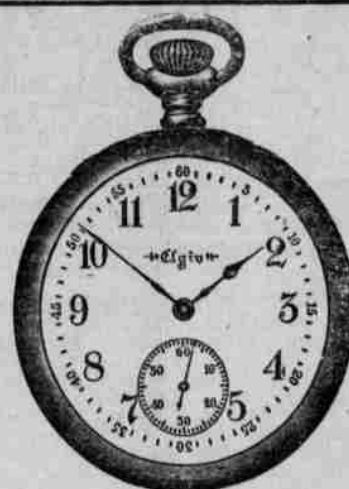

TOILET SETS.
We have without doubt the finest assortment of Toilet Sets in Oregon City. In giving a present of this kind you want to know that the article you give is going to

It Is Not Necessary to Spend a Hatful of Money to give a few Christmas Presents. Our store this year contains any number of beautiful Xmas Gifts at prices within the reach of ever one. Just cast your eyes over the few bargains listed below and remember that they are only an advance guard of an army of bargains camped in our store. Suppose you come in and look them over today, before the best are among the "missing." We will gladly set aside until Xmas any article you may select.

For The Ladies:

WATCHES
DIAMONDS
RINGS
LOCKETS
BROOCHES
BAR PINS
LA VALLIERES
CUFF BUTTONS
SILVER MESH BAGS
HANDY PINS
TOILET SETS
JEWELRY CASES
CORAL, PEARL AND GOLD
BEADS
DESK SETS
EARRINGS
BRACELETS
THIMBLES
WATCH FOLDS
WATCH PINS
AGATE PINS
WATERMAN FOUNTAIN PENS
KODAKS
CARD CASES
VANITY BOXES
OPERA GLASSES
STERLING SILVER PICTURE FRAMES
UMBRELLAS
CLOCK
CUT GLASS
STERLING 1847 ROGERS AND COMMUNITY SILVERWARE
HAWLAND AND HAND-PAINT-ED CHINAWARE
LIBBEY AND STAR CUT GLASS
SILVER DEPOSIT WARE

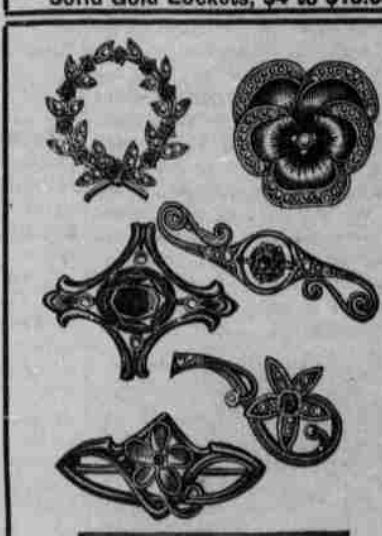

WATCHES
If you want to give him or her a real handsome, life-long remembrance, something that he or she will keep and cherish for a lifetime, a good watch certainly is the proper thing. Our stock includes all the best makes of watches, viz—Waltham, Elgin, Hamilton, Howard, and South Bend.
Ladies Watches, $10.00 and UP
Gents Watches, $6.00 and UP.
Ingersoll Watches, $1 and $2.

For The Men:

WATCHES
SET RINGS
SIGNET RINGS
STICK PINS
CUFF BUTTONS
WATCH CHAINS
AGATE PINS
LODGE EMBLEMS
TIE CLASPS
WATERMAN FOUNTAIN PENS
KODAKS
MATCH SAFES
UMBRELLAS
SILVER AND EBONY HAIR
BRUSHES
CLOTH BRUSHES
MILITARY BRUSHES
SMOKING SETS
SHAVING SETS
TOBACCO JARS
EDISON PHONOGRAPHS
VICTOR TALKING MACHINES
GILLETTE, DURHAM DUPLEX,
AUTOSTROP, EVER READY
AND GEM JR. SAFETY RAZORS

LOCKETS
The engraving of monogram or initials is all that is needed to set off the beauty of our Gold Lockets with every appearance of real gold, though they are fine gold-filled. They come in many handsome designs, engraved, engine-turned and plain. Space for two photos in each.
Gold Filled Lockets $1.50 to $6
Solid Gold Lockets, $4 to $15.00

BROOCHES
What could be more appropriate for Mother, Sister, or Sweetheart than a nice Gold Brooch or Bar Pin.
This is a present that the styles can never change. It is something that they will keep and treasure for years to come.
Gold Filled, 75c to $2.50
Solid Gold, $2 and UP
Silver and Enamel Bar Pins, from 40c to $1.00

WE ENGRAVE ALL ARTICLES WE SELL FREE OF CHARGE

Burmeister & Andresen

OREGON CITY JEWELERS

Suspension Bridge Corner

OREGON CITY.

Mrs. Ball of Clairmont was in the city Tuesday.
Mr. White of Sandy was in the city on business Tuesday.
Fred Jossi of Carus, was in the city on business Monday.
Henry Stevens of Shubel was in Oregon City Tuesday.
Mrs. Annie Toumaine of Beaver Creek was in the city Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. James Emmett of Oswego were in the city Sunday.
Dave White of Sandy was one of the Oregon City visitors Sunday.
Dr. E. A. Summer of Portland, was called here in a professional way Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Josse of Clairmont, were in the city on business Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. George Helvey and family of Mount Angel, were in the city Sunday.
Harry Schoenborn and sister, Miss Elsie, were in the city Sunday visiting relatives.
Miss Hazel Mitchell, who has been at Sandy visiting her parents, has returned to the city.
Eveline Hall, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hall, of the west side, is ill with typhoid fever.
Johnny Erickson of Portland was in Oregon City Sunday, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Erickson.
Nathaniel Smythe, who has been very ill at the city hospital, is improving rapidly and will be able to be removed to his home in a few days.
J. P. Sullivan, who has been making his home in Oswego, has moved to this city, making his home near Bolton.
Paul Burrows, who formerly resided in Oregon City but who is now a resident of Selwood, visited friends here Sunday.
Rose Grafton, Newton Moke, Frank Goodson and Alfred Gauer of Stone, were in Oregon City Sunday, the guests of friends.
Miss Robertson of Couer d'Alene, Idaho, has arrived in this city and is the guest of Miss Myrtle Parker of Fourteenth and Main streets.
Fred Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Baker of Gladstone, is critically ill with typhoid at the family home. Two nurses are in constant attendance.
William and Charles Stewart of Carus, accompanied by their families, were among the Oregon City visitors to witness the driving of the golden spike of the Clackamas Southern Railway.
Miss Louise Deute, a student of the normal school at Monmouth, has returned to that city to resume her duties. While in this city she visited her mother, Mrs. Deute and sister Mrs. Clara Deute.
The lot owned by Dr. L. G. Lee on Twelfth and John Adams streets is being filled, and in the early spring the doctor will build two handsome bungalows to rent. Residences in this city are desirable are scarce.

Mrs. May Keser of Portland was in Oregon City Monday, having been summoned by the serious illness of her father, George Wishart. Mrs. Herbert Thorne of Portland, also daughter of Mr. Wishart, is at her parents home.
Miss Ruth Brightbill has returned to her home in this city after a month's stay in Portland. She has been assisting in the office of Dr. Wiley Jones during the absence of Miss Koernes, who has been enjoying her vacation in San Francisco.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith of Spokane, Wash., have arrived in this city and will remain until next spring at Gladstone as guests of Mr. Smith's sister, Miss Edith Smith. Mr. Smith is a retired capitalist of Spokane and intends investing in this locality.
C. Schuebel, who has been seriously ill, was taken to a Portland hospital Monday where he underwent a surgical operation for the removal of gall stones. Coupled with this complaint Mr. Schuebel was ill with typhoid at the time. He rallied from the operation and his doing nicely.
Don Meldrum, who has been at his wife's bedside in St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, for the past three weeks, returned home Tuesday and resumed his position with the Willamette company. Although Mrs. Meldrum has been critically ill since undergoing the operation, she is now on the road to recovery.
George H. Wishart, one of the well known and respected residents of Oregon City, is suffering from a paralytic stroke, which occurred Monday morning about 1 o'clock. Mr. Wishart, who was enjoying the best of health, at the time he retired on Sunday evening, and during the night his wife was awakened by her husband, who was unable to speak. A physician was hastily summoned and also his two daughters, Mrs. Herbert Thorne and Mrs. Kasar of Portland, who are at his bedside. This is the first attack Mr. Wishart has suffered from. Mr. Wishart is a pioneer merchant of Oregon City, but for the past few years has retired from business.
"Pyramus and Thisbe," a laughable comedy, will be presented at Shiveley's opera house Friday evening, December 13, at eight o'clock, by the Boy Scouts, troupe No. 1 of Oregon City. The proceeds of the entertainment will go toward the gymnasium of the Congregational church. The boys have worked hard to make this a successful affair, and from all indications there will be a large audience. The following is the cast: Bottom, the weaver, Geo. Tucker; Quince, the carpenter, Everett Dye; Flute, the bellows mender, Shelby Shaver; Snout the linker, Wandell Smith; Snug the joiner, Wilbur Roberts; Starveling the tailor, Bert Larsen; Theseus, the duke, Albert Roake; Hippolyta, the dutchess, Herbert Harris; Oleron, the king, Graydon Pace; Titania, the queen, Ted Miller; Puck, the mischief maker, Will Bagley; Peaseblossom, Samuel McLarty; "Colonel" Roderick Porter, "moth" Graeme Strickland; Mustard Seed, Teddy Hendry.

"December's as pleasant as May" in Oregon.
A. McDonald, Veterinary Surgeon and Dentist, Sixth and Water streets. Phone Main 116.
F. C. Steidel and Miss K. Pomfith of Portland, were in the city Sunday, the guests of Miss Nell Derby.
Mrs. Charles Shute, one of the managers of the C. C. store, who has been very ill with typhoid is improving.
Mrs. Kathryn Ward Pope of Portland, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Latourette, has returned to her home.
Jack Loder, young son of Mr. and Mrs. John Loder, who has been ill for some time, is recovering.
R. S. Coe, one of the prominent residents of Canby, was in the city Tuesday. Mr. Coe is one of the well known fruit growers of the county.
H. Sprangler, one of the well known men of Carus, was transacting business in the city Tuesday, and attending the Clackamas Southern railroad celebration.
J. W. Davenport's residence on Washington street, between Second and Third, is enclosed and will soon be finished. It will be a pretty home.
Charles Hyatt of Logan, Ore., who has been in this city visiting his sister, Mrs. Peter Long of Fifteenth and Madison streets, has returned to his home.
Miss Anna Smith, who is taking a course at the state normal school at Billingham, Wash., will return to Gladstone next week to spend the holidays at her home.
Mayor H. E. Cross of Gladstone has purchased a handsome 5-passenger, 40-horse power Carter auto. The wonder to the Courier is how long his daughters will last.
O. D. Anderson, representing the Western Stock Journal, left Wednesday for Washington, where he will visit at Vancouver, Camas and other cities in the interests of the livestock magazine.
G. W. Carleto is gaining a reputation as a first class Spanish cook at the Oregon City restaurant. Fresh, hot tamales and chili every day and night. It is neat and clean. Give us a call. J. Mann, proprietor.
H. Bowers, a representative of the Wiley B. Allen music store in Portland, who has made the city his headquarters for some time, has returned to this city after a two months' stay in Washington and eastern Oregon.
The Pythian Sisters were guests of honor at an affair given by the Knights of Pythias at Woodman hall Wednesday evening. Among the features of the evening was the musical and literary program and the banquet. The Knights proved an entertaining hosts.
Jacob Grossmiller of Shubel Creek, and Mrs. Richard Mueller of Highland, Mrs. Thomas McCarthy and daughter, Mrs. Albert Schoenborn of Carus; Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Schuebel of Shubel, were among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

The faus is of this city are on half time these days.
Mayor Strieb of Milwaukie, was in the city on business on Monday.
George Staben of Shubel, was in Oregon City on Friday last.
Otto Lyman of Beaver Creek, was transacting business in this city on Friday.
Miss Lena Studaman of Shubel, was transacting business in this city on Friday.
A. Newell, a nurseryman of Clackamas, was transacting business in Oregon City on Friday.
Prof. Robert Goetz, principal of the Milwaukie school, was transacting business in Oregon City the latter part of last week.
Miss Georgia Marrs and little nephew, Edwin Whiteman, who have been visiting relatives in Woodburn, have returned to Oregon City.
Neel James, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. James, is another victim of typhoid fever at the James home on Twelfth and John Adams streets.
Miss Elsie Schoenborn and brother, Harry Schoenborn, of Eldorado, were in Oregon City on Friday visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schoenborn.
Mrs. William Stover, who has been visiting for the past two months with her son, Rev. Wm. Stover and family, at Tacoma, returned to her home in this city the latter part of last week.
"Grandpa" Fisher of Carus, one of the well known residents of that place, accompanied by his son, Herman Fisher, and Miss Paula Fisher, were Oregon City visitors on Friday.
B. Gregerson, who formerly resided in Oregon City with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Gregerson, but now of California, arrived in Oregon City on Friday and spent the day in the city visiting friends and relatives.
Mrs. Winnie Rowland and two children, of Couer d'Alene, Idaho, arrived in Oregon City the latter part of last week and will remain in this city until after Christmas visiting Mrs. Rowland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Young.
Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brooks and two children who have made their home in this city for the past four years, have moved to Portland where they will hereafter make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks who have been operating the Electric Theatre during their residence here, have sold their show house.
Mrs. A. E. Frost, who recently underwent a serious operation at St. Vincent's hospital, which was successfully performed by Dr. Sternberger, is rapidly convalescing, and will leave the hospital Saturday of this week. She will remain a few days with her sister in Portland before returning to her home here.
H. G. Huntington of Barlow, was in the city Tuesday, and was a caller at the Courier office. Mr. Huntington said he came in to help heap coals of fire on Oregon City's head—came in to help boost for the Clackamas Southern, after this city had helped to defeat Cascade county. But Mr. Huntington has the right spirit, all right.

County Clerk W. L. Mulvey is seriously ill with typhoid.
Miss Elizabeth Roos has gone to Woodburn where she will spend a month with friends.
Dell James, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. James of Twelfth and John Adams street is very ill with typhoid.
Mrs. Melton, who has been very low with typhoid fever, and with two nurses in constant attendance is improving.
Miss Virginia Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Shaw of Sixth and High streets, is seriously ill with typhoid.
Mrs. O. A. Pace, who recently returned from the St. Vincent hospital in Portland is improving rapidly, and is now able to be about her home.
J. E. Dixon, who was judge at the poultry show at Albany, has returned home. The affair was a most successful one, and 600 birds were shown.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Babcock of Portland, accompanied by Miss Frances Font, were in the city Sunday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Babcock, parents of the former.
Ervin Howell, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Howell of Thirteenth and John Adams street, is seriously ill with typhoid. He has been ill with the dread disease for three weeks and a trained nurse from Portland is in attendance.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the Zion Lutheran church was entertained at the home of Mrs. D. M. Klensen of Canemah last week. The affair was devoted to needlework, followed by refreshments. This society has been making arrangements for its annual bazaar to be given at Knapp's hall.
James Myers, youngest son of the late John Myers, a former resident of Oregon City, was here Saturday, visiting at the home of Judge and Mrs. Robert Beattie and Mrs. Eva Williams. Mrs. Beattie and Mrs. Williams are sisters of Mr. Myers.
The Clackamas County Poultry Association met at the Beaver building last week, where plans for the poultry show to be given in January were discussed. The show will be held on January 30, at the armory. Plans for a much larger show are on foot for this year and from present indications there will be many more fine birds exhibited than last year, although the exhibit of last year was a decided success, as many of the finest birds in the state were exhibited. Mr. Lazelle had charge of last year's show and many compliments were extended to him for its success. Strong attractions will be among the coming show's programme, beside the exhibit of poultry. An orchestra will furnish music during the evening and stereoscopic views will be given—these to show what is being accomplished on some of the farms of the state and on some of the large institutions where work of this kind is being carried on. The following are the officers: President, W. A. Shawman; vice president, George H. Lazelle; secretary, M. J. Lazelle; directors, M. C. Strickland.

Lillian Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. Harris, is one of typhoid's victims.
C. E. Spence of Carus, state Grange master, was in the city Saturday.
Mrs. W. A. Shevman and son, Alon, of Concord, were in the city Saturday visiting friends.
The Courier learns from good authority that there is a strike and lockout at the paper mills at Powell River, B. C.
E. T. Avison, who has for six years held an important position at the woolen mills, has resigned on account of failing health. The family will spend the winter in California.
A warrant for the arrest of the bartender, of the saloon where the recent trouble has been under investigation by the city council, was sworn out by Charles F. Terrill Wednesday, on the charge of having sold liquor to boys under age, and the case will be tried before Justice Samson today.
At the Congregational church next Sunday morning, the Rev. George N. Edwards, will begin a study of the gospel of Matthew, with a sermon entitled "The Generation of Jesus." In the evening he will speak on "How a Blind Man Saw His Way into the Kingdom." Mr. Gustav Flechtner will play two special numbers Sunday evening, accompanied by Miss Walker.
Mr. and Mrs. Elliott of Eugene, who were called here by the critical illness of their daughter, Mrs. Louis Heckman, who is ill with fever, have returned to their home, being accompanied by the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Heckman, Constance, who will remain in Eugene until her mother recovers. Mrs. Heckman is slowly improving.
Henry O'Malley has returned from a trip of inspection of several of the fish hatcheries of the state. Mr. O'Malley is superintendent of U. S. Bureau of Fisheries of Oregon and southern Washington. He visited the Bonneville station, which is in charge of E. C. Greenman, who is one of the well known fish culturists of the state.
Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Young and two children of Youngs, Eastern Oregon, who have been in this city visiting Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Young, have returned to their home. They were accompanied by Mr. Young's mother, Mrs. Lucy Whittington, of Silverton, who has also been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Young. She will remain for several months in Eastern Oregon.
Mr. and Mrs. George Dennis of Seaside were in the city Monday, on their way to Eugene, where they will visit the latter's aunt, and from there they will go to Spokane, remaining there until January 1, when they will return to Seaside. Mr. and Mrs. Dennis are on their honeymoon, having been married at Seaside last week. Their wedding was one of the social affairs of that city. Mrs. Dennis was formerly Miss Mable Woods and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Woods of Seaside, but formerly of this city. While in this city they visited Mrs. W. C. Green.

Mrs. Kennedy, formerly Miss Maude Woodward, was taken with typhoid Wednesday.
Westley and Frank, sons of Rev. Milliken, who have been ill with typhoid for three weeks, are improving.
W. S. U'ren who has been attending the annual single tax conference in Boston, has returned home.
SOCIAL MATTERS.
Miss Emily O'Malley entertained the members of the Gypsy Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry O'Malley. A most enjoyable evening was passed and the hostess, assisted by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Henry O'Malley, served refreshments. Those in attendance were Miss Majoree Caulfield, Miss Ciss Pratt, Miss Zida Goldsmith, Miss Helen Daulton, Miss, Bess Kelly, Miss Isabel Pease, of Portland, Mrs. L. A. Morris, Mrs. Henry O'Malley, Miss Emily O'Malley.
Miss Wynne Hanney was the hostess of the C. P. H. D. Club at her home on Twelfth and Washington streets on Monday evening. The event was devoted to needlework and during the evening Miss Hanney served a delicious luncheon. Miss Myrtle Parker will entertain the club during the holidays. Present were Miss Helen Daulton, Miss Ciss Pratt, Miss Bess Daulton, Miss Myrtle Parker, Miss Katherine Montgomery, Miss Mary Bell Meldrum of Portland, Miss Robertson of Couer d'Alene, Idaho, Miss Dollie Pratt, Miss Netta Harding, Miss Eloine King, Miss Myrtle Parker.
Mrs. E. T. Avison entertained in a most charming manner at her home on Fourteenth and Center streets on Monday evening, when the members of the Fairfax Club were the guests. The evening was devoted to cards. The first prize, a handsome Fairfax salad fork, was won by Mrs. E. T. Fields, and the second prize was awarded to Mrs. Elizabeth Fox. After several hours had been devoted to cards, Mrs. Avison served delicious refreshments. The rooms were very prettily decorated for this occasion when Oregon grape and bright colored Christmas bells were artistically arranged in the living and dining rooms. The electroliers were clustered with bunches of Oregon grape and Christmas bells were centered with electric lights. Mrs. H. P. Brightbill will be the hostess of the club at the next meeting, which will be held during the holidays. Those present were: Mrs. George Hankins, Mrs. A. A. Price, Mrs. E. E. Hendry, Mrs. Rosina Font, Mrs. W. R. Loggie, Mrs. E. T. Fields, Mrs. E. S. Follanshee, Mrs. C. H. Meissner, Mrs. H. P. Brightbill, Mrs. J. J. Tobin and Mrs. Elizabeth Fox.
They Always Help Elderly People
Foley's Kidney Pills give just the help that elderly people need to tone and strengthen their kidneys. John McMaisters, Streator, Ill., says: "I feel better and stronger than I have for many years, and Foley's Kidney Pills did it."
For sale by Huntley Bros. Co.