

CHOOSE YOUR XMAS GIFTS From Our Magnificent Stock

LOOKETS
The engraving of monogram or initials is all that is needed to set off the beauty of our Gold Lockets with every appearance of real gold, though they are fine gold-filled. They come in many handsome designs, engraved, engineered and plain. Space for two photos in each.

Gold Filled Lockets $1.50 to $6
Solid Gold Lockets, $4 to $15.00
We engrave these articles free of charge.

BROOCHES
What could be more appropriate for Mother, Sister, or Sweetheart than a nice Gold Brooch or Bar-Pin.

This is a present that the styles can never change. It is something that they will keep and treasure for years to come.

Gold Filled, 75c to $2.50
Solid Gold, $2 and UP
Silver and Enamel Bar Pins, from 40c to $1.00

NEVER IN THE HISTORY OF THIS CITY HAS SUCH AN ATTRACTIVE LINE OF HOLIDAY PRESENTS AS OURS BEEN SHOWN

Here under one roof are assembled Jewels, Gems, Novelties, China Pieces, Cut Glass and Table Silver from every corner of the earth. Here you will find a suitable present for the most hard-to-please friend or relative. And all goods are PRICED RIGHT. It doesn't take a pocketful of money to shop here. Many of the most attractive presents cost but a trifle. The articles listed below represent only a fraction of our great Christmas offering. It would take pages to show them all. The only way you can really appreciate the Christmas buying opportunity at this store is to pay us a visit. Come in today. We are mighty busy but you will find an accommodating, courteous salesman or saleswoman ready to wait on you.

For The Ladies:

- DIAMONDS
- BROOCHES
- RINGS
- LA VALLIERES
- CUFF BUTTONS
- SILVER MESH BAGS
- HANDY PINS
- TOILET SETS
- JEWELRY CASES
- CORAL, PEARL AND GOLD BEADS
- DESK SETS
- EARRINGS
- THIMBLES
- WATCH FOBS
- WATCH PINS
- AGATE PINS
- WATERMAN FOUNTAIN PENS
- KODAKS
- CARD CASES
- VANITY BOXES
- OPERA GLASSES
- STERLING SILVER PICTURE FRAMES
- UMBRELLAS
- CLOCKS
- CUT GLASS
- STERLING, 1847 ROGERS AND COMMUNITY SILVERWARE
- HAVILAND AND HAND-PAINTED CHINAWARE
- LIBBEY AND STAR CUT GLASS
- SILVER DEPOSIT WARE
- WATCHES
- LOCKETS
- BAR PINS
- BRACELETS

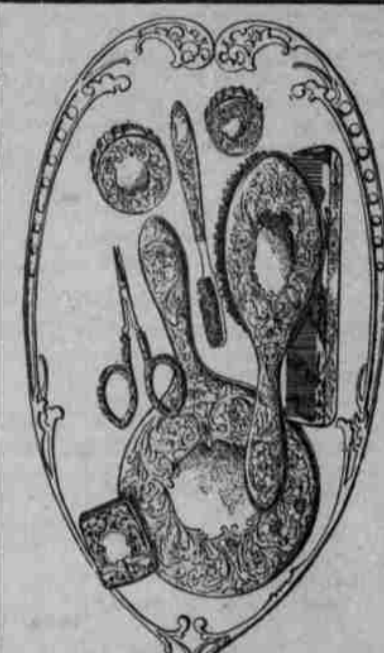

WATCHES
If you want to give him or her a real handsome, life-long remembrance, something that he or she will keep and cherish for a lifetime, a good watch certainly is the proper thing. Our stock includes all the best makes of watches, viz—Waltham, Elgin, Hamilton, Howard, and South Bend.

Ladies Watches, $10.00 and UP
Gents Watches, $6.00 and UP
Ingersoll Watches, $1 and $2.

For The Men:

- WATCHES
- SET RINGS
- SIGNET RINGS
- STICK PINS
- CUFF BUTTONS
- WATCH CHAINS
- WATCH CHAINS
- AGATE PINS
- LODGE EMBLEMS
- TIE CLASPS
- WATERMAN FOUNTAIN PENS
- KODAKS
- MATCH SAFES
- UMBRELLAS
- SILVER AND EBONY HAIR BRUSHES
- CLOTH BRUSHES
- MILITARY BRUSHES
- SMOKING SETS
- SHAVING SETS
- TOBACCO JARS
- EDISON PHONOGRAPHS
- VICTOR TALKING MACHINES
- GILLETTE, DURHAM DUPLEX, AUTOSTROP, EVER READY AND GEM JR. SAFETY RAZORS

TOILET SETS.
We have without doubt the finest assortment of Toilet Sets in Oregon City. In giving a present of this kind you want to know that the article you give is going to wear and keep its color for years to come. That is what we guarantee our sets to do.

Guaranteed Silver-Plated Brush, Comb and Mirror Sets, prices $7, to $10.00.

Sterling Silver Manicuring Sets at $3 to $10.00

We engrave these sets free of charge.

CUFF BUTTONS
We have a fine display of Cuff Buttons in Gold, Gold-filled, Silver & Pearl, that range in price from 50c to $30.00. Our plain Safety Finish Gold Buttons with the monogram engraved is a favorite. Ask to see them.

All articles we sell engraved free of charge

Burmeister & Andresen

Oregon City Jewelers Suspension Bridge Cor.

OREGON CITY.

Miss Cis Pratt is visiting with relatives in Portland.

C. W. Larkins of Clarkes was in the city Saturday last.

Mrs. A. D. Putrow, who has been very ill, is improving.

J. C. Zinser of Salem is in the city to spend the holidays with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Mayfield and wife of Highland were in the city Saturday.

Miss Eva Stout of Clarkes has gone to Yaquina, Ore., to spend the holidays with her grandmother.

A. Stewart, a contractor of Gladstone, who has been at Albany for several months, has returned home.

Mrs. Mary Carver, one of the well known pioneers, who has been ill for the past two weeks, is improving.

Fresh cider, made to order delivered to farmers in Oregon City weekly at 25c per gallon. Send orders to Albert Gasser, Mulino, Rt. 1.

W. B. Shively, an attorney of Portland, formerly an Oregon City boy, passed through this city Sunday on his way to Salem on legal business.

The Carnegie library building is plastered and the finishing work will be short, but it will not be ready for occupancy by January 1 as had been calculated on.

William Myers, who was formerly connected with the Jones' drug store, and who recently returned from California, has again associated himself with the firm.

Miss Emma Quinn, who was taken to St. Vincent's hospital Thursday of last week and who underwent a serious surgical operation Friday, is improving.

These are short days in Oregon, but cheer up. Next Monday they will begin to lengthen and will keep at it until we have 18 hours of daylight out of the 24.

Joe Harless of Molalla, was in the city Saturday attending the meeting of the Ogle Mountain Mining Co. Mr. Harless is one of the early stockholders of the company and has a fine collection of ores taken from the mine.

D. A. Miller of Oregon City, an old Michigan friend of F. D. Erickson, was here on a visit a day or two last week. The "boys" had not met for 32 years and as they were chums during their school days they had a regular love feast—Newberg Graphic.

The football game between the Oregon City team and St. James college team of Vancouver, Wash., played at Portland Sunday afternoon, was largely attended, many going from here. Neither team was able to get to the goal posts and the final score stood 0 to 0.

Mr. and Mrs. Abner Dillman of Powell River, B. C. are in this city visiting at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Myres. They were called here by the serious illness of Mr. Dillman's father of Seventh and Monroe streets, who has been ill for several weeks.

J. Morey of Molalla, was in Oregon City Sunday.

Amos Leck, a well known farmer of Redland, was in Oregon City Monday.

Mrs. H. Madgett of Highland, was in Oregon City on Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Stryker of Eldorado, were among the Oregon City visitors Monday.

Miss Gussie Johnson, residing on Madison street, is very low with typhoid fever.

William J. Wilson and children, went to Mulino on Sunday, where they spent the day.

A. P. Schneider, merchant of Beaver Creek, was transacting business in Oregon City Monday.

Mrs. W. P. Hawley of Portland, was in Oregon City on Monday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Presey.

Charles Beattie, son of Judge and Mrs. Robert Beattie, who has been very ill with blood poisoning, is recovering.

Mrs. Oscar Benson and children, who have been visiting in this city for several days, have returned to their home at Logan.

Miss Clara Weiversick, a teacher of Clackamas county, who has been visiting with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Wiewersick, has returned to resume her position as teacher.

Mrs. Roy Wilkinson of Vancouver, Wash., and Mrs. S. J. Meyer, of Sellwood, were in Oregon City on Sunday, visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Chambers of the West Side.

J. C. Zinser, formerly county school superintendent of Clackamas county, but now of Salem, where he has been engaged in farming since leaving here, is visiting his family on Thirteenth and Washington street.

The Portland Temple of Truth (New Thought) church, contemplates holding a series of lectures and lessons in this city as soon as arrangements are completed. They therefore desire the names and addresses of all people interested in new thought and divine science to be sent immediately to the Temple of Truth, 516 Eilers Bldg., Portland.

A council meeting will be held Saturday of this week, when the matter of the public elevator, which the people recently voted $12,500 for, will come up for discussion and the matter of a location taken up. Plans will be submitted by engineers. The location generally considered is that of Sixth street, opposite the depot.

In the real estate office of Gorbett & Co., in the postoffice building, is a specimen of a rutabaga that has attracted much attention. This was raised by W. L. Gorbett, son of Mr. Gorbett of the real estate firm, and is from Colton. The weight of this vegetable is 26 pounds, and is enough for several large families. Mr. Gorbett, who is engaged in raising apples as well as rutabagas, has on display at the real estate office some fine samples of the Baldwin variety. Although the trees have never been sprayed here by fruit is without blemish. Some of the best apples that are brought to the city markets are from the Colton country.

Miss Mary Belle Meldrum, of Portland, was in Oregon City on Monday visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James Nelson, formerly residents of Oregon City but now of Mulino, were among the Oregon City visitors on Friday.

Mrs. J. C. Kaupisch of Canby, was in Oregon City Monday, on her way home from Portland, where she was transacting business.

Mrs. J. C. Kaupisch, of Canby, was in Oregon City on Monday on her way home from Portland, where she was transacting business.

Miss Mary Mitchell, Miss Clara Mitchell and Miss Ella Howell, well known young ladies of this city, who are ill with typhoid fever at the Oregon City hospital, are improving.

Mrs. Eugene Roberts, who has been very ill with typhoid fever for the past three weeks at her home on Eighth and Madison streets, is improving and was able to leave her room the first of the week.

Mrs. Mary Hurley, one of the early Oregon pioneers, who is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Lakowitch, of Concord, and who has been visiting relatives at Seattle, Wash., returned to Concord a few days ago and is very ill. Mrs. Hurley moved to Coronado Beach, California, several years ago.

William Weismandel, who has made Clackamas county his home all of his life, residing for some time in Oregon City, where he recently sold his business interests on Twelfth and Main street has purchased a grocery store on Williams avenue (East Portland) and he and his wife will move to that city about the first of the year.

Mrs. George Swafford and three little daughters, who have been visiting for the past month with the former's parents at Baker City, have returned to Oregon City and are to make this place their future home. Mr. Swafford having recently accepted a position with Huntley Brothers Company. The Swaffords will occupy the residence owned by Robert Warner on Sixth and Center streets. Their former home was in Eugene.

George E. Sullivan of this city, son of T. W. Sullivan, hydraulic engineer of the P. L. & P. Co., has brought suit against the Portland Power and Transmission Co. for $40,000 for damages he claims to have received in a fall from a scaffolding two years ago, while working for the company. Sullivan is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a bright engineer. The accident has made him a cripple.

Rev. and Mrs. Carl J. Renhard and little son of Colton, were in Oregon City were in the city on Thursday. Rev. Renhard, who is pastor of the Lutheran church of Colton, accompanied his wife and baby from Portland as far as that city, where he remained for a few days looking after the interests of Emanuel hospital of which he is superintendent. This hospital was established a few months ago by the Lutheran church. Mrs. Renhard visited her mother at Mulino on her way home.

R. S. Coe of Canby, was in Oregon City Friday.

Albert Studeman of Shubel, was in Oregon City Friday.

Henry Turner of Mulino, was in Oregon City Saturday.

Frank Mueller of Clarkes, was in Oregon City Saturday.

Monroe Irish of Union Hall, was in Oregon City Saturday.

Mrs. Hoffstader of Clarkes, was an Oregon City visitor Saturday.

Robert Bullard and wife, of Eldorado, were in Oregon City on Saturday.

Messrs. Herman and Erick Dietrick of Carus, were in Oregon City Thursday.

Mr. Larkins, merchant of Clarkes, was in the city on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Guenther of Shubel, were among the Oregon City visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schoenborn of Carus, were visiting relatives in Portland Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Buol and son, Albert of Clarkes, were visiting with relatives in Oregon City Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Cassidy and Robert Cassidy, of Carus, were in Oregon City Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Schuebel and son Walter, whose residence is at Shubel, were in Oregon City Saturday.

Mrs. J. Newton Graham who has been visiting friends in Oregon City has returned to her home in Portland.

John Gard, one of the pioneer farmers of Clackamas county was transacting business in Oregon City Saturday.

Perry Bucknee, a prominent resident of Shubel, accompanied by his son, Louis, also of that place, were in Oregon City on Thursday.

Mrs. G. T. Howard of Mulino, state secretary of the grange, was in this city on Thursday and Friday on business in connection with the grange.

Peter Bohlander, one of the well known farmers of Beaver Creek, was in this city on Saturday. He was accompanied to Oregon City by his son and grandson.

Fred Vollmar, one of the well-known farmers of Highland, was in this city Thursday, coming to this city to meet his wife, who has been visiting in Portland for the past three weeks.

George H. Wischart, one of the well known pioneer merchants of Oregon City, who has suffered from a stroke of paralysis last week, is improving, and the attending physician has hopes of rapid recovery.

Nathan Moody, formerly a resident of Oregon City, but now of Portland, was in this city on Saturday, coming here to attend the meeting of the stockholders of the Ogle Mountain Mining Company.

Fred C. Charman, a former Oregon City boy, but now freight clerk on the Persia, liner plying between San Francisco and Hong Kong, China, will leave San Francisco on Saturday, December 21, for Portland and Oregon City by the steamer Rose City for a short visit.

Mrs. Owens of Carus was in the city Tuesday.

Peter Walker of Mulino, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. William Stewart of Carus was in the city Tuesday.

Ernest Jones and wife of Eldorado, were in the city Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Steiner of Beaver Creek were here Tuesday.

Fred Kamroth of Shubel, was here Thursday.

Herman Smith, of Carus, was in the city Friday.

J. Irish of Union Hall was in Oregon City Friday.

Theodore Miller and brother-in-law of Carus, were here Friday.

Charles Stewart of Carus, was transacting business here Thursday.

Jacob Jossi of Clairmont, was transacting business in this city Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Striker, of Eldorado, were among the Oregon City visitors Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Larkins of Union Mills were in Oregon City Tuesday.

Edward Owens of Central Point was among the city visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Howard of Carus, were in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. Albert Schoenborn of Carus, was transacting business here Tuesday.

Mrs. Snodgrass of Mulino was among the visitors the first of the week.

George Stevens and wife of Highland, were in the city the first of the week.

F. A. Burdon of Gladstone went to Williams Saturday to visit his brother, Ted.

Jacob Studeman and daughter, Miss Lena, of Shubel, were in Oregon City Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles Howard and son, Claude, of Mulino, were in the city on business Tuesday.

Fred Bohlander, a well known resident of Beaver Creek, was in the city the first of the week.

William Jones, of one of the well known families of Beaver Creek, was in the city on business Tuesday.

Mr. Graves, a merchant of Mulino, was in the city in a business way Tuesday. Mr. Graves recently engaged in business at that place.

Mrs. George C. Brownell of Concor was in the city on business Tuesday, and while here visited with friends.

Mrs. Jacob Steiner of Beaver Creek, accompanied by her son, Philip and wife, were in the city Tuesday.

Jacob Grossmiller, one of the prominent families of Clackamas county, whose farm is located at Shubel, was in Oregon City on business Tuesday.

A. Koehler, a well known real estate man of Canby, was in the city Monday on his way from Portland, where he had been on business.

Ernest Wilke of Willamette, who has been very ill for the past three weeks in the Oregon City hospital, has improved so that he has been able to be removed to his home.

Mrs. Harley Stevens of Portland, visited relatives in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. Frances A. Beach of Fort Dodge, Iowa, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore of Greenpoint.

Mrs. A. Nelson of this city was called to Sellwood Tuesday on account of the critical illness of her mother.

Mrs. Ida Coffene, Miss Gladys Beattie and Jack Beattie of Meadbrook, were among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

D. A. Anderson of the Western Stock Journal left Monday for Colton, Forest Grove and other cities on business for that journal.

For sale—fresh milk cows, young pigs, bailed hay and bee supplies. H. C. Wollson, Timber Grove, or George Reddaway, Oregon City.

Miss Flora Brecht and little niece, Ida, who have been visiting the former's sister, Miss Brecht of Corvallis, returned to this city Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles Casto of Carus, was in the city Tuesday. Mrs. Casto has been visiting at Clackamas and in Portland, and was on her way home.

Mrs. Edward Mayor and son of Portland, arrived in Oregon City Tuesday and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Smith of Canemah.

Mrs. Renney and daughter, Aileen, of Tacoma, have arrived in the city and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Martin. Mrs. Kenney is Mrs. Martin's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank White and little grandson, Virgil, of Portland were in Oregon City Tuesday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Green. Mrs. White is a sister of Mrs. Green.

William A. Shesman, editor of the Western Stock Journal, left Tuesday morning for Albany to attend the annual convention of the Oregon Butter and Cheese Makers' Association, returning Thursday morning.

Harry Killogg, who has been employed at White Salmon, Wn., for several months, has returned to Oregon City to spend the winter. Mr. Killogg has been assisting in constructing a concrete dam at that place, but as the ground has become frozen so hard it is impossible to proceed further with the work until spring.

William Parker, representing the Union Metallic Co. of N.Y. was in the city Tuesday visiting his mother, Mrs. Jonathan Parker of Baker, who is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Don Meldrum of Fourth and Washington streets. Mr. Parker will leave for New York on Saturday to attend the annual banquet of the representatives of the company, who will be present from all parts of the country.

Oregon City Aerie, No. 993 Fraternal Order of Eagles, elected the following officers Monday night to serve during the year: W. P., E. A. Osborne; W. V. P., Byron Mayo; chaplain, E. H. Ford; secretary, A. M. Sinnott; treasurer, John T. Soarle; conductor, Clyde Dollar; physician, Dr. C. A. Stuart; P. W. P. and delegate in Grand Aerie, John Lowry. At the close of the meeting a banquet was tendered to the officers elect, in which all participated.

A. McDonald, Veterinary Surgeon and Dentist, Sixth and Water streets, Phone Main 116.

County Clerk Mulvey, who has been sick with typhoid for six weeks, is on the mend, and baring a relapse will soon be back in the office again.

John Scott, who is interested in Ogle Mountain mine, and who attended the meeting of the stock holders Saturday last, returned to his home at Scotts Mills the first of the week.

M. L. Brown of Corry, Pa. who has been visiting relatives at M. E. Bunn's on Center street and M. J. Brown's on Third street, left Tuesday for his return to the forestry college in Pennsylvania, via El Paso, and Kansas City. Of course he will come back when he finishes his college course.

Attorney C. Schuebel, who recently underwent a surgical operation at Portland, and who was reported in a serious condition last week, is improving and it is thought he will be able to come home in the course of two weeks. Mr. Schuebel was ill with typhoid at the time of the operation for the removal of gall stones. One of the nurses has been released and he is doing as well as the doctors could hope for.

John Dambach, one of the well known residents of the city, who received injuries at the Hawley Pulp & Paper Co's plant several weeks ago, when an elevator accidentally struck him in the back, is improving. He was sitting beneath the elevator and did not know it was in operation until it struck him with terrible force. Dr. M. C. Strickland, the company's physician is attending him.

To Organize County Society.
Saturday of this week, December 21, there will be a meeting in the Commercial club parlors in this city to form a county organization of the Farmers Society of Equity.

Funeral of Miss Edna Prater.
The funeral of Miss Edna Prater, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Prater of Gladstone, was held at the M. E. church Friday morning of last week. Rev. T. B. Ford, pastor, officiating. The interment was in the Mountain View cemetery. Many friends of the deceased attended the services. The casket was covered with flowers.

Miss Prater died at the family home at Gladstone from a brief illness of typhoid fever.

Former Resident Weds.
Miss Alice Goettling, formerly of this city, and who recently removed to Seattle, with her mother, Mrs. A. Goettling, was united in marriage in that city December 3 to Mr. Charles Carlson of Billingham, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Carlson will make their home at Billingham.

Miss Goettling was well known in Oregon City, where she was one of the prominent young musicians. Mr. Carlson has visited in this city and is a steamboat man of Billingham.

Accidents will happen, but the best regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for such emergencies. It subdues the pain and heals the hurt.