As most of the typhoid fever patients are on the road to recovery and many of whom have been discharged by the attending physicians, there are many who will continue to boil the water for drinking purposes and for cooking. The serum has been successfully used in this city by the physicians, and only a few days ago Dr. M. C. Strickland, who had under his charge forty typhoid patients during the run, received a message from the surgeon physician at Vancouver barracks asking for his treaty for typhoid and the serum inoculations. Dr. Strickland has been very successful in this treatment, and he immediately informed the army physician as to his method. Each patient is given a bill of fare by the doctor, and this is typewritten in his office before being given to the nurse or attendant. It has been decided by the officers and physicians in the army at Vancouver to use this method. Monday afternoon Dr. Strickland was called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ford of the west side where he found four of the family ill with typhoid.

A most enjoyable evening was devoted to vocal and instrumental music and dancing, followed by delicious luncheon.

The reception hall, parlors and dining room were very attractive with holly, evergreens, beautiful pink chrysanthemums and bright colored poinsettias.

January. The year's last star Within the shadowed West, With phantom sighs, Each bygone lies Hushed to eternal rest.

And all is calm, Beneath the Balm Of January's snows, The dawn grows bright With New Year's light, The world forgets its woes.

In beauty new, With crystal dew, The trees a-glimmer stand, The sun's fair beams Bring New Year's dreams And smiles o'er all the land.

New hope, new life, Is in the strife, And failure's haunting voice, Is swept away, As breaks the day That bids the world rejoice.

Walter Belwood. (Aged 12 years)

WEDDINGS.

One of the prettiest church weddings of the season took place at the Presbyterian church on Christmas evening, when Miss Zita Andrews, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Leod of eastern Oregon, became the wife of Mr. Alexander W. McLeod of eastern Oregon.

The impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Landsborough, Miss Mable Volkman presided at the organ, and as the bridal party entered the church parlors, rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride was attended by Miss Helen Ely, Miss Ruth Pickthorne, Miss Helen Marr of Portland, Miss Eby, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Wilbur Andrews, a bride of the same evening. The best man was William McLeod, brother of the bridegroom. The ushers were Wilbur Andrews, cousin of the bride, and Joseph Aldridge, following the impressive ceremony, which was attended by relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Leod a reception was held in their honor in the church parlors, after which they left for their home at Kent, eastern Oregon.

Many handsome gifts were received by the young couple.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. Andrews and has been making her home in this city with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Andrews. She has been a prominent member in the Presbyterian church, being a member of the Friendly Bible class, and was very popular among her associates in this city.

The bridegroom is a well known wheat grower of eastern Oregon.

A very pretty wedding took place at the Presbyterian church on Christmas evening, when Miss Bessie Pickthorne of this city, and Mr. Wilbur Andrews, Rev. J. R. Landsborough pastor of the church, officiated, in the presence of many relatives of the bride and bridegroom.

The bride was very pretty in her gown of white satin and carrying a shower bouquet of bride's roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Ruth Pickthorne, of this city, and an bridesmaid, Miss Helen Marr of Portland, rendered by Miss Kathryn Jarison, the bridal party entered the church parlors, the bride and bridegroom taking their places beneath a large silver chandelier, arranged in an archway formed of evergreens. Festoons of evergreens completed the artistic designs of the church decorations.

The bride is an accomplished pianist, and is the daughter of the Gillispie school of expression. She is a daughter of S. L. Pickthorne of Portland.

Mr. Andrews is an estimating engineer of Portland and is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Andrews of this city, who is well known in this city, where he has resided the most of his life. He is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college.

The young couple were tendered a lovely dinner by Mrs. Andrews during the evening, where Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Andrews were host and hostess. Many friends and relatives attended. Refreshments were served.

One of the prettiest home weddings solemnized in Oregon City took place on Christmas evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Deppster on Fourteenth and Center streets, when the young couple, Miss Ella Demister, was united in marriage to Mr. Louis Krummell, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. T. Milliken, pastor of the Baptist church, in the presence of relatives and friends of the couple. The wedding occurred at 5 o'clock and was followed by a wedding supper. The home was beautifully decorated. The bride wore a handsome gown of white tulle and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss Anna Smith of Gladstone, was beautifully attired in a gown of pale blue silk poplin and her shower bouquet consisted of pink carnations. The bridegroom was attended by Mr. George Ackley.

The bride is a well known young woman of Oregon City, for some time having been connected with the staff of the Oregon City hospital. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Krummell of Bolton and is favorably known in Oregon City.

Miss Ruth Matilda Zinzerling of Parplage and Mr. Julius J. Idorff of Sherwood, were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lina Zinzerling, at eight o'clock on the evening of December 28, 1911. Reverend G. K. Berry of Portland, performed the ceremony in the presence of family and friends. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Miss Wilhelmnia Henrich of Clackamas was bridesmaid and George Toedtmeier of Portland was best man. The wedding march was rendered by the bride's sister, Miss Zita Idorff, who acted as ring-bearer. The bride was becomingly dressed in silver gray and the bridesmaid was dressed in old rose. Many beautiful remembrances were given the couple. The guests and Mr. and Mrs. Idorff left early Sunday morning, the latter going to their future home near Sherwood.

Mrs. L. A. Morris entertained the Gypsies at her home Saturday evening, cards being among the enjoyable features of the evening, in which Mrs. J. N. Weisner, who is visiting in this city, captured the prize. Among the other features of the evening was a Christmas tree and a guest being presented with a bouquet of flowers. Refreshments were served during the evening. The decorations were of evergreens and holly.

The Derbick Club held its annual New Year's Eve party at its beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Dimick on Eighth and Center street on Tuesday evening, and was one of the most enjoyable parties ever given by the musical club. A most entertaining program has been arranged by the committee, which consisted in a book-guessing contest. The guessing of the greatest number represented were Miss Marion Money and L. Adams. During the evening delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Dimick being assisted by Mrs. C. H. Meissner, Mrs. Carl Pickthorne, Mrs. H. E. Straight and Mrs. M. D. Latourette. The home was most beautifully decorated. Festoons of red crepe paper were extended from corners of each room to the center joining the electroliens. Bright Christmas decorations were used and completed a most artistic design. On the mantel in the living room the new year was uniquely represented. A background of Oregon grape and ferns was used in the center, beautifully setting off a cupid, over which were the figures "1912." At the rear of this room was an archway of red Christmas bells, of graduating sizes. Ferns arranged in Indian baskets formed an artistic finish.

There is no doubt but what the members of the German Verien Society of this city know how to celebrate Christmas, for on Sunday, the regular day of its meetings, of the organization, and the date upon which the society celebrates Christmas, Knapp's hall was filled by the members and their families, who greatly enjoyed the day's program. The Santa Claus, who presided, was Louis Nobel who distributed gifts to all. The opening address was made by Gustave Schnoer, the president of the Society. During the afternoon a musical program was given, the members of the society taking part. This was one of the most enjoyable meetings held by the German Verien.

THE BABIES' CHRISTMAS.

Santa Claus Made the Baby Home Happy on Christmas Day.

The children of the St. Agnes Baby Home were not forgotten this year, and many friends assisted the good Sisters of Mercy in giving the youngsters a Christmas that they will not soon forget. From a three day old baby to the oldest one at the home received gifts that were pleasing and useful. There was plenty of toys and candy to gladden the hearts of the youngsters. Mayor Grant B. Dingler, who has in previous years played the part of Santa Claus by taking the little homeless children toys and candies, again visited the home this year and assisted in giving the youngsters the "ings of the lives." All of the little folks knew it was the Judge when he appeared at the door, heavily laden with Christmas presents, which were distributed among them. There was blowing of horns and whistles and the banging of drums, and during the day the little orphans were probably the happiest little people on earth. Many other friends of the home called during the day and brought with them presents for the children.

An excellent program was rendered during the afternoon by the children. The program of which was in charge of the Sisters of the institution. This consisted of songs and recitations. Many of the little tots at this home have musical voices, and in singing the Christmas carols their little voices could be heard ringing out through the big building. This will probably be the last Christmas that the little tots at this home by some of the little tots, as good homes are being secured by the Sisters, who are anxious to see the little orphans placed in homes where they will be treated in the same manner as they are at the St. Agnes Baby Home.

There are at present at the institution over 90 little children, every one of which was remembered by old Santa Claus.

Polished and Vigorous.

Observing a passenger with the unlighted butt of a cigar in his fingers, the street car conductor requested him to put it out.

"It is out, you chump," responded the passenger.

"Pardon me," resumed the conductor, "if I have failed to make myself clear. The condition to which I had reference was not one of mere temporary non-combustion, but of elimination, the eradication, I might say, of the physical presence of your nicotine laden remnant, this process followed necessarily by cessation of the odor now permeating an atmosphere already somewhat deficient, I fear, in the essential element of ozone. I'm a tumble conductor, and my aim is to please; but, you big porcine stiff, you throw that cigar through the door or I'll throw you and it both. See?"

"Excuse me, professor," replied the passenger meekly, and the incident was closed. - Philadelphia Ledger.

Running as Exercise.

The fact that a person is capable of doing the best running and speed walking before the thirtieth year need not lead those who have passed the third decade to think that they are on the down grade of life, says an authority. These exercises call for elasticity of the arteries, and that lessens soon after the thirtieth year, but power of endurance increase in the well preserved man or woman up to fifty or fifty five or even later. Soldiers of fifty are like leather and can perform feats of endurance that would kill the strapping, and the same is true of women.

Old Age.

Old age as it comes in the orderly process of nature is a beautiful and majestic thing. It stands for experience, knowledge, wisdom, counsel. That is old age as it should be, but old age as it often is means a poor digestion, torpid bowels, a sluggish liver and a general feeling of ill health, despondency and misery. This is almost every instance is wholly unnecessary. One of Chamberlain's Tablets taken immediately after supper will improve the digestion, tone up the liver and regulate the bowels. That feeling of despondency will give way to one of hope and good cheer. For sale by Huntley Bros. Co.
