Yet we find the the militia to his aid in the execution of the laws, but this is an extraordinary power which it should be necessary to exercise only upon grave and extraordinary occasions. Te governor should not be forced to use the artillery of the state to bombard bootleggers or pursue blind pigs. The governor should not be expected to go out and gather evidence and arrest and prosecute offenders. That is a function which should be performed by subordinate officials chosen for and charged with that particular duty. If these officials fail to perform their duty, the governor, being charged with the enforcement of the law, should have some suitable reserve powers which would enable him to call them to account.

Our liquor laws should be strengthened as follows: Shipments of liquor of any kind into dry territory, except under certain restrictions, should be prohibited. The sale of near beer should be prohibited in dry counties. No license for the sale of liquor should be issued to anyone doing busorder required that the first pub- iness outside of an incorporated city should be prohibited. Saloons should not be permitted to cash checks. Illegal sale of liquor by druggists should work a forfeiture of license to do business. The several measures recommended by the Portland Vice Commission should be given state-wide application and stringent laws as to the sale of cocaine, morphine and similar drugs should be enacted; also laws which will better enable us to abate nulsan-ces through injunction proceedings.

Sterilization Degenerates and the feeble-minded should not be allowed to reproduce their kind. Society should be protected from this curse. Our asylums and our prisons are being populated afresh through such parentage. We confine the vicious and the irresponsible for a while, only to send them forth to blight the future by the creation of defective children that grow into the criminal or the imbecile.

Two remedies are needed-one of prevention, another of cure. We have from session to session been considering the first. We should now act upon the two.

Sterilization and emasculation offer an effective remedy. I would recommend, therefore, that a statute be enacted making it the duty of our state
