

OREGON CITY.

Mr. and Mrs. John Maxon, of Clarks, were in Oregon City Wednesday.

John R. Lewis, of Carus, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

Frank Mueller and son of Clarks, were in Oregon City on business Wednesday.

Miss Nora Lamb, of Sellwood, was in Oregon City Wednesday afternoon, the guest of Miss Helen Smith.

Misses Celia and Bertha Goldsmith left Thursday evening for San Francisco, where they go on business, remaining for about a month.

Ralph Parker, who has been bookkeeper for the Oregon Engineering & Construction Company, has associated himself with C. G. Miller and the firm is now Miller & Parker.

Mrs. Elmer J. Lankins, of Hubbard, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Simmons of this city, returned to her home Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Lankins are in charge of the Dimick Stock Farm.

One of the most delightful dancing parties given during the season was the affair given at Bach's hall Tuesday evening of this week. About fifty couples enjoyed the dancing to the excellent music furnished by Foxe's orchestra of Portland. The next dancing party will be given after Lent.

Mrs. O. K. Cramer, of Clackamas, accompanied by her little son, have gone to California, where they will visit for some time, with relatives at San Francisco. Before leaving Mrs. Cramer sold a five acre tract at Clackamas to Adam Wilkinson of Oregon City. Mr. Wilkinson has already let the contract for clearing and improving the land, and this will be put into strawberry plants. Some of the finest berries sent to the Portland and Oregon City markets are from Clackamas and Mr. Wilkinson intends to raise some of the best varieties.

Mrs. Winnie Rowland and two little children of Coer d'Alene, Idaho, are in Oregon City visiting Mrs. Rowland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Young. Mrs. Rowland, Wednesday, received word from her husband, that the snowfall was the greatest they have experienced for years and the snow is now three feet on the level at the time of writing and still snowing. Along the main thoroughfare it is impossible for teams to travel, owing to the depth of the snow. Mrs. Rowland and children will remain in Oregon City until spring.

"Old Molly" the horse belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Adam Wilkinson of this city, died in Salem this week, her age being 26 years. "Old Molly" was the pet of the family and has been the property of Mrs. Wilkinson since she was a colt. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson are prominent members of the Clackamas County Humane Society, and having no other place in this city to keep their horse, and wishing to let her live in peace until she would die a natural death, had her shipped to Salem, where she has been given the best of care on a farm at that place. "Old Molly" has not done a day's work for years, but has been allowed the comfort of a pasture adjoining. She has gone where good and faithful horses go.

Fruit trees, rose bushes and fancy shrubbery at half regular price. Best two year fruit trees at ten cents each. H. J. Bigger, 9th and Centre Street, Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. George Young received word from their daughter, Mrs. Leila Lants, of the Hawaiian Islands, stating that her husband, Albert Lants, who is stationed in the army at that place, recently met with a painful accident resulting in the fracture of the bones of his hand, which has been very painful but is improving. Mrs. Lants is an Oregon City girl, and states although the weather is delightful in the Islands that she longs to again enjoy the Oregon "mist."

Edward Young of Prosser, Wash, has been in Oregon City visiting his brother George Young and family. Mr. Young has also been looking after his property interests at Marquam, and left Thursday morning for Silverton, where he will visit his mother, Mrs. Lucy Whittington, also his brothers John and Cass Young. He will again visit Mr. and Mrs. Young in this city before returning to his home. Mr. Young has large property interests at Prosser, owning and operating a 3,000 acre ranch, this being in grain. His crop this year was the largest he has had. Mr. Young is thoroughly posted in the management of a farm and is doing well at Prosser, Wash.

PENNSYLVANIA AND OREGON

Marriage Unites Two From Extremes of Continent.

Wednesday, January 28, 1913, Rev. Berthold of St. Joseph's church in Portland, united in marriage Miss Elizabeth Klecker of Portland and Howard D. Martin of Bradford, Pa. The Courier editor has for years before coming to Oregon, been a chum of the groom, and he wants to hand him a bunch of forget-me-nots. He is a man who stands ace high in the community in which he was reared, and he has a big circle of the warmest, loyal friends. For nine years he has been travelling salesman of the W. R. Case & Sons Cutlery Co., of Bradford, Pa., working up from substitute man in the small towns of Pennsylvania and Ohio to general representative of the Pacific coast—one of the best territories in the gift of the company. He is one of the top notch salesmen and has the fullest confidence of the company. Mrs. Martin's home is in Stayton, Ore., but she has lived in Los Angeles for ten years, two years ago coming to Portland, where she has lived with a sister. She is a lady of splendid qualities; one who makes firm, lasting friends and none could stand higher than she.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin will make their home in Portland, and are already cozily settled in the Meredith apartments. Mr. Martin will cover the coast territory and make the city headquarters.

Live stock and ranch auctioneer, 28 years experience, satisfaction guaranteed. J. W. Freeman, Parkplace, Ore. Leave orders at First National Bank, Courier Office or at Parkplace.

Theodore Mueller, of Carus, was in Oregon City.

FOOLED THE BOYS.

Masked Canemah Boy Poses as Flirty Girl at Dance.

The Canemah Progressive League met at the Canemah Hall Tuesday evening, when the early part of the evening was devoted to business of the organization and officers elected to serve for the ensuing year. The following are officers: President, Samuel Stevens; vice-president, Thomas Lindsay; secretary, Beldon Ganong; treasurer, Miss Ada Frost. Committees will be appointed to arrange for entertainments to be given in the near future. This league was organized by the people of Canemah for the betterment of that place by improving streets, etc. A social night is held once a month and have been most enjoyable affairs, and have been a means of getting acquainted.

After business was transacted Tuesday evening, a masquerade was held, and was attended by a large crowd, many of whom were from Oregon City. There were many pretty as well as grotesque costumes. One young man, Edward Smith, who represented a handsome young woman. "She" was the belle of the ball during the evening, and even after he had removed his mask his own friends did not recognize him, his make-up was so complete. There was many a young lady present who envied "her." During several of the dances "Mr. Smith" received several embraces "on the side," but his partners did not know that these were "wasted" on a young man, and Smith is now telling the joke on several of the young men of Canemah. One young man went so far as to "plant" a kiss on Smith's prettily made up face. White wash and paint was used to good advantage on his face and he resembled a stage beauty. Other young women and men surprised their friends when the time came for removing the masks.

The Canemah orchestra furnished the music for dancing, and refreshments were served.

Among those unmasked and what they represented were Miss Helen Smith "German butcher"; Miss Ada Frost, "Mrs. Abitha Bumps"; Rhea Cole, "Country Judge"; Mrs. Rhea Cole, "Bashful country girl"; Elton Long, "Abitha Bumps"; Max Telford, "coachman"; Mrs. Maxwell Telford, "cow girl"; Mrs. Lake May, "Yama Yama Girl"; Mrs. Joe Robinson, "Pierre"; Miss E. Aldrich, "Sedate dame"; Ted Aldrich, "French General"; Edward Smith "Haughty Young woman"; Louis Smith, "Isaac dee Jew"; Clair Evans, "old nigga mammy"; Mrs. Charles Spencer, "Negro mammy"; Mrs. Walter Wentworth, "Quaker maid"; Gilbert Long, "Irishman"; Dick Long, "Russian soldier"; Elma Taylor, "Stranger."

Held for Short-Weight.

On complaint of G. H. Fuller, County Judge Beattie has held J. C. Kappach, a creamery man of Canby, for the grand jury on charge of short-weighting butter.

The Courier knows little of the case and the evidence and this comment has nothing to do with this particular instance, but we know the people generally are loudly protesting against short weights and measures, and that short measures and weights are going to be prosecuted hereafter vigorously.

DON'T DISBAND OREGON MILITIA

As an officer of the 2nd Oregon Volunteers during the Spanish American war I received and obeyed orders which I did not like and which I felt were not good for the service, but I knew that for the true soldier that was but one word and that was "obey." You are only one in a great army, and one man who disobeys an order in the face of the enemy might bring defeat and disaster to the whole country. The iron hand of discipline and thorough organized confidence in your officers and confidence in themselves and long association with the touching of elbows together is what makes a man stand up and fight. Untrained volunteers always do as they did at Bull Run.

I ask you: Is it wise to disband any of our military organizations with our little regular army of 57,000 men scattered from Maine to Texas, from California to the Sandwich Islands, and the Philippines to say nothing of Alaska? Is it wise?

COUNTY FAIR MATTERS.

Directors Elected and Plans for 1913 Presented by President

At the annual meeting of the Clackamas County Fair Association, held in the commercial club rooms on Saturday last, the following directors were elected: G. W. Smith, W. H. Blair, Charles N. Wait, A. D. Gribble, O. E. Freytag, and O. D. Eby. Secretary Eby's report showed that $5,525 had been received at the last fair through gate receipts and concessions; that $825 of the indebtedness of the association had been paid, and there was $325 in the treasury.

A resolution changing the time of the annual meeting from the first Saturday in February to the first Saturday in December was adopted.

President Smith reported that the fair of the past year was a splendid success and that all patrons were well pleased with the premiums, the entries and the entertainments; that many substantial improvements had been made. He advised that future improvements should cover larger water pipes from the tanks to the barn, and that a public stock watering place be put in at the north corner of the grounds; that display cases should be added to the ladies' display apartments; a poultry building should be erected; another swine and sheep barn should be built; a platform should be erected in front of the grandstand where performances should be held between races.

Wednesday afternoon in the Commercial Club parlors, the following officers were elected: President, J. W. Smith; vice-president, C. N. Wait; Secretary, M. J. Lee; treasurer, W. H. Blair. The president and secretary were authorized to attend the meeting of the fair directors at Salem today and tomorrow. The following directors were present: Judge Beattie, W. H. Mattoon, Nick Blair, W. H. Blair, O. E. Eby, O. E. Freytag, C. N. Wait, J. W. Smith and Albert Smith.

Olson Breaks In.

Representative Olson of Portland wants to get in the push and introduce a bill and he has. It would restrict fishing at the falls here.

HOW TO PRESERVE YOUTH AND BEAUTY.

One great secret of youth and beauty for the young woman or the mother is the proper understanding of her womanly system and well-being. Every woman, young or old, should know herself and her physical make up. A good way to arrive at this knowledge is to get a good doctor book, such for instance, as "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," by R. V. Pierce, M. D., which can readily be procured by sending thirty-one cents for cloth-bound copy, addressing Dr. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. G. H. Williams, of Lynchburg, Va., writes: "It is six years since my health gave way. I had female trouble and all the doctors (I employed three) said I would die. I was not able to do my work, depression, a constant headache, and two or three times a week Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and decided to try it. I had not taken but one bottle until I found it had done me good. I took an all the bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and two of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and now I am able to do all my housework, and have gained fourteen pounds. I advise all women who suffer from female troubles to try your 'Favorite Prescription.' It's the only medicine on earth."

ORIN CHENEY.

Old Pioneer and Well Known through out Western Oregon.

Orin A. Cheney, a prominent member of Meade Post No. 2, G. A. R., and a former resident of Oregon City, died at the home of his son, Arden W. Cheney, of Portland Saturday morning, from the effects of a paralytic stroke. The funeral services were held in the Congregational church in this city Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. E. S. Bollinger, pastor of the Highland Congregational Congregational church of Portland, and friend of the deceased, conducting the services, assisted by the G. A. R. at the church and at the cemetery, the impressive burial service of the Meade Post being used, and J. A. McFarland sounded taps over the departed old soldier's grave. At the conclusion Chaplain A. W. France and Commander H. L. Hull; being assisted by other members of the Grand Army of the Republic, including A. J. Hobbie, J. A. Tufts and H. S. Clyde, paid tribute to Mr. Cheney's memory. The pall bearers were old comrades of the Civil War, and were H. S. Clyde, J. A. Tufts, Samuel Gray, A. J. Hobbie, Faxon Hayford, J. L. Mattoon. The remains were laid to rest in Mountain View Cemetery beside those of his wife, who died in Oregon City about six years ago. Many beautiful floral tributes covered the casket. Mr. Cheney has been a member of the Congregational church of this city for many years.

Orin Cheney was born in Erie county, New York, April 6, 1833, and moved with his father's family to Wisconsin in 1841, settling in Rock county, where his parents died in after years. He served in the Civil War for three years and three months and afterwards became a member of the Grand Army Post. He was on detached service during the Civil War, and engaged in writing for different departments. Mr. Cheney returned to his home in Wisconsin about December 1st, 1864 and married Miss Nellie M. Saxe six days later.

Mr. Cheney was admitted to the bar in Jamesville, Wisconsin, during February 1866, and soon after moved to Iowa, engaging in law practice and insurance.

Having a desire for newspaper work he purchased the Boone County Advocate, published at Boone, Iowa. He also was a publisher of newspapers at Boone and at Rock Rapids, Iowa, and engaged in the newspaper work for over 20 years, also engaging in this line of business at Huron, South Dakota. He also held several important county offices.

From South Dakota Mr. Cheney came to Oregon with his family, first settling at Mills City, where he also engaged in the newspaper business. He came to Oregon City in 1892, when he engaged in the real estate business, until about a year ago when he moved to Portland, where he has since resided. Mr. Cheney was an enthusiastic member of the G. A. R. having always looked forward to the pleasure attending the meetings whenever his health permitted. He was a staunch Republican since Fremont's time, the first Republican nominee for President of the United States. He was well known and highly respected in Oregon City and the funeral services were largely attended by comrades and friends of this city.

Mr. Cheney is survived by four sons, A. W. Cheney, of Portland, member of the Pacific Stationery & Printing Company; A. L. Cheney of Chicago; Grafton B. Cheney, of San Francisco; E. S. Cheney, of Oakland, California; Miss Ethel Cheney, of Portland; Mrs. Thomas Keith, Portland.

Will Observe Lincoln's Birthday.

The one hundred and fourth anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln will be appropriately observed by Meade Post G. A. R., and the Women's Relief Corps at the Methodist church Wednesday evening Feb. 12, at 7:30 o'clock.

Every year the name of the martyred president becomes more endeared to the Nation's heroes and every year the veterans come together and have recounted to them many of the stirring scenes enacted during the long war.

This year a program of unusual interest has been arranged. Hon. Geo. C. Brownell will preside at the meeting and make a few remarks; Rev. Dr. Ford and Prof. Toose will make short addresses. The choir of the Methodist church will render several patriotic airs.

The veterans hope to see a large attendance of our patriotic citizens. School teachers and pupils are cordially invited.

The Hood River Kind.

Editor Courier:—I noticed in the Courier some week ago an item about the apples that are offered at the stores in your city. I make bold to send you this half box for I am convinced enough to claim that not all the apples that grow in Clackamas county are bad.

J. S. YODER. If the Courier said perfect apples were not grown in this county it is open for libel. The box above referred to, Hood River would be proud to put its brand on. Every one was absolutely perfect, firm as the day they were packed, juicy and of splendid flavor. The sampler shows what CAN be done, what attention will do, and what kind of fruit this part of Oregon might raise—if it would.
