When it does not give the people entertainment; when it runs behind in attendance and shows a weak spot-THEN is there a time to and the pay rolls that go to the $100,take up the matter and change governors.

But until that time and while everything is running finely and the fair growing bigger and better each year, men SHOULD not fight and endanger its future.

This fair doesn't belong to any ring of men. It isn't Oregon City's, Canby's or Molalla's. It is a COUNTY fair, an exhibition the people of this county make, and the Courier wants to warn any man or any clique of men that it will be a mighty unpopular move for any such influences to try to hinder, cripple or kill the county fair, little ring of men look like nine cents.
