SOCIAL MATTERS.

On Friday evening the Rebekahs entertained at a valentine party at the I. O. O. F. Hall. Games, which were appropriate for the day, were the amusements for the evening, and prizes were won by Miss Gertrude Fairclough, Miss Florence Grace, E. W. Scott and Dr. T. E. Beard. During the evening refreshments were served.

Miss Theresa Harrigan, who recently arrived from New York, was united in marriage to Mr. A. W. Graham, of Canby, a well known young druggist of that place, at the Hotel Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Graham will make their future home at Canby.

Many tickets have been sold by the members of the Hook & Ladder Company for the annual ball to be given at Busch's hall Saturday night, February 22. This fire company for many years has observed Washington's birthday by giving a grand ball, and these are always looked forward to with great pleasure. Fox's orchestra, of Portland, has been engaged for the occasion. The hall will be appropriately decorated. The committee is composed of: Dr. A. L. Beatie, Thomas Trembath and Webb Burns, and these men, with the assistance of other firemen of the Hook and Ladder Company will see that their guests are entertained in a most delightful manner.

The open meeting held by the Woodmen of the World at the Woodmen Hall Friday evening was largely attended. The families of the Woodmen were guests of honor of the evening and the members of this order proved royal entertainers. The early part of the evening was devoted to a musical and literary program, followed by a banquet and dancing. The following are the members on the programme: Address of welcome, G. L. Snidow; opening ode, degree team; song, Mary McLarty; recitation, R. A. Barber; reading, Myrtle Roberts; whistling solo, Harold Swafford; reading, J. G. Bancke; dialogue, Misses Oliver and Adams; solo, Kenneth Woodward; vocal selection, Gladstone Quartette.

Among the enjoyable valentine parties given in this city was the party given by the sophomore class of the Oregon City High School in the banquet hall of the Masonic building, which was prettily and artistically decorated for the occasion. The evening was devoted to vocal and instrumental music and games. Several addresses were made by the teachers attending. There were over 100 students present.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Read entertained a few friends at their home near Gladstone, February 14. The evening was devoted to games in keeping for the occasion, and the rooms were appropriately decorated. Refreshments were served.

The King's Daughters of St. Paul's Episcopal church met at the home of Mrs. Edward Schwab Wednesday afternoon of last week, the afternoon being devoted to needlework. Refreshments were served during the afternoon by the hostess. On Wednesday afternoon of this week the Society was entertained by Mrs. H. S. Mount at her home on Ninth and Railroad Avenue. Needlework occupied the afternoon after which refreshments were served.

An enjoyable affair of last week was a valentine party given by Miss Eva Moulton and her nephew, Chas. Moulton, at their home at Fern Ridge near Gladstone, Thursday evening. The rooms were attractively decorated with hearts. Games and music were the diversion of the evening, followed by a delicious repast. There were about 30 friends attending.

At the White home on Thursday evening was a merry gathering, the occasion being a surprise planned and well carried out by the members of the Pythian sisters no Mr. and Mrs. A. M. White, prominent members of the Pythian Sisters and Knights of Pythias. Games appropriate for St. Valentine's Day were enjoyed. In the game of Parcel Post A. M. White received the prize. Mr. and Mrs. White, although not aware of the surprise, proved to be royal entertainers of the evening. There were 40 guests and luncheon was served during the evening.

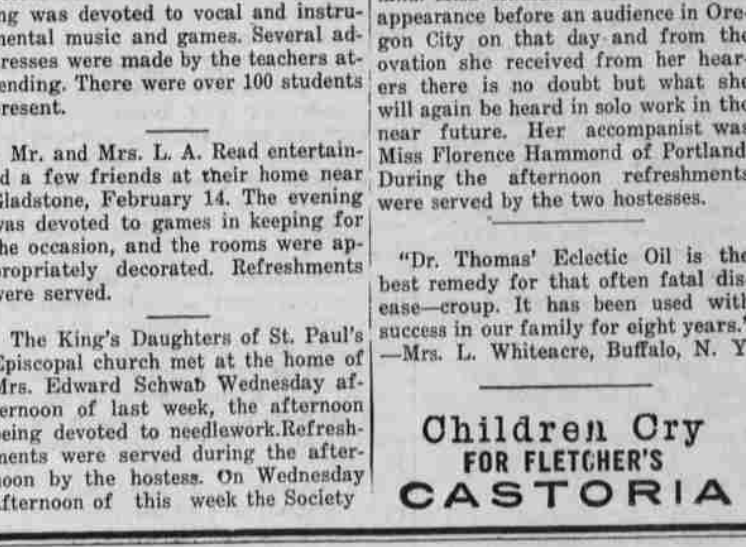

One of the most enjoyable affairs given in Oregon City of last week was the valentine party given at the home of Mrs. William A. Huntley Friday afternoon, Mrs. Huntley being ably assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Llewellyn Adams, their guests being members of the Dertwick Club. The rooms attracted much attention by the artistic decorations, where hearts, cupid and cupid darts were in evidence. Pretty souvenirs of the occasion were presented to each guest. The members of this club were hospitably entertained.

Among the delightful features of the afternoon were the solos rendered by Miss Marjorie Hausmann, of Portland. Miss Hausmann made her first appearance before an audience in Oregon City on that day and from the ovation she received from her hearers there is no doubt but what she will again be heard in solo work in the near future. Her accompanist was Miss Florence Hammond of Portland. During the afternoon refreshments were served by the two hostesses.
