

Watches Chains Charms and Fobs

Whether you buy a watch for yourself or as a gift to a friend, it pays to be extremely particular about the quality. We are not only selling watches, but WATCH SATISFACTION. Any watch you buy here has our guarantee behind it. The reason we recommend the South Bend Watch is that it is a

Quality Watch

Through and Through

South Bend Watches pass 411 rigid inspections before they leave the factory. The regulation and final adjustment insure absolute accuracy in your pocket. When we sell you the South Bend we adjust it to your personality to offset the general conditions under which you carry a watch. These watches come in a variety of styles and the prices are moderate.

Our stock of Chains, Charms and Fobs is very complete and affords a wide range of choice. Drop in and let's talk the matter over.

Burmester & Andresen
Oregon City Jewelers

Selling Agents for South Bend Watches

OREGON CITY.

Miss Nan Cochran - Local Editor

R. Cassidy, of Carus, was in Oregon City Saturday.

William Jones, of Eldorado, was in Oregon City Saturday.

Herman Fischer, of Eldorado, was in Oregon City Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Green visited friends in Portland Sunday.

Fred Josi, a well known farmer of Carus, was in Oregon City Friday.

Mr. Massinger, of Shubel, was among the Oregon City visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Muralt, of Homedale, was in Oregon City Friday.

Rev. Wettlaufer, of Clarkes, was transacting business in Oregon City Saturday.

Mrs. Jacob Steiner, of Beaver Creek, was an Oregon City visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Harley Stevens, of Portland, was visiting relatives in Oregon City Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Ramsby spent Sunday at Midway, Mutnomah County visiting friends.

Ed Brenner, of Carus, was among those transacting business in the county seat Saturday.

Mrs. Wirfel, a prominent resident of Barlow, was in Oregon City on a business trip Monday.

Gustave Schuebel, one of the well known farmers of Shubel, was in Oregon City Thursday.

Henry Henrici and wife, of Homedale, were transacting business in Oregon City Saturday.

F. C. Dietrich and son, Herman, were in Oregon City Saturday. Their home is in Eldorado.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Loder and young son Jack, spent Sunday in Portland visiting with friends.

Ed Owens, a well known Clackamas county farmer, was in Oregon City Friday, being accompanied by his wife.

Mrs. Marian Lawrence, of Portland, who has been visiting with her aunt, Mrs. C. G. Miller, has returned to her home.

The Misses Reh and Lila Gordy, of Shubel, were Oregon City visitors Friday. While in this city they were the guests of friends.

Miss Olive Case, of Tillamook, Oregon, arrived in Oregon City Monday, and is a guest of the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Caulfield.

THE HUB

This week we have some fine APPLES at 65c to $1.25 a box. Come HERE for your apples.

A good many people are using our SPECIAL Coffee. It is FINE and the price is not high—35c a pound.

Yes, we are selling more of that BLUE RIBBON BREAD every day, and there is a reason.

Try our Bulk OLIVES, 25 cents a pint.

Fine POTATOES at 65 cents per hundred.

THE HUB GROCERY

7th and Center Streets

Mrs. Crook, of Mulino, was in Oregon City Monday.

James Mallet, of Mulino, was in Oregon City Monday.

William Hedgecomb, of Clairmont, was in Oregon City Sunday.

Harry Kirbyson, of Shubel, was in Oregon City visiting Sunday.

Chris Muralt, of Homedale, was in this city on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Mueller, of Carus, were in Oregon City Monday.

John Baker, Jr., of Clairmont, was an Oregon City visitor Monday.

Lloyd Evans, of Portland, was in Oregon City on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schaft, of Carus, were in Oregon City Sunday.

Merrill Jones, of Eldorado, was in this city visiting friends Sunday.

Dr. Morey, a veterinary surgeon of Molalla, was in Oregon City on business.

Otto Lyman of Beaver Creek, was among those visiting Oregon City Monday.

Mrs. A. Jones and brother, S. Irish, of Carus, were in Oregon City Monday, transacting business.

Misses Mary and Clara Mitchell spent Sunday at their home at Sandy.

Peter Bohlander of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City on business Saturday.

Miss Bertha Koerner, of Portland, was in Oregon City Saturday visiting friends.

Henry Raitheil, of Brightwood, was in the city Monday on business and while here paid his rent to Sheriff Mass.

S. C. R. L. Red eggs $1.50 per 13. 2 fine cockers for sale yet, also a few pullets. MRS. S. A. STRONG, Oregon City, Rt. 3.

Gordon Miller, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Miller, who was ill for several weeks with scarlet fever, has recovered, and is now able to be out.

For sale—Fresh milk cows, also team of mares, weight about 1,500 lbs. each, well matched and in good condition. Address F. Marshfield, Springfield, Rt. 1.

Mrs. Walter Anderson, who has been visiting with Mrs. Lucy Anderson, of Second and Centre Street, returned to her home at Medford Tuesday evening.

Harvey Schuebel, of Eldorado, was in Oregon City Friday, being accompanied home by his sister, Miss Grace, who spent Saturday and Sunday at her home at Shubel. She is attending the Oregon City High School.

Mrs. O'Leary left for Butte, Montana, after receiving word that her married daughter was very ill. Her son Will and daughters Deasal and Montana, who remained at home, having heard that their sister had died, following her Sunday.

Mr. Swoop, of Shubel, was in Oregon City Friday. He was accompanied home by his daughter, a student of the Oregon City public school and who returned to this city Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Schrader, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Good on Division Street, left Wednesday of this week for their home at Des Moines, Iowa. They will return home via the Northern Pacific Railroad.

Mrs. Edward Gregory and little son Edward, who have been visiting in Portland and at Vancouver, Wash., were in Oregon City Monday on their way to their home at Greenwood, four miles from this city. They were met in this city by Mr. Gregory, who accompanied them home.

Mrs. George Wishart, who has resided in Oregon City for more than 20 years, has moved to Portland, where she will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Thorne, and Mrs. Kaser. Mrs. Wishart was accompanied by her son, Harley Wishart.

Miss Bess Kelly left Thursday evening for San Francisco, where she will take a training course at the John Hopkins Institute. Miss Kelly, who is one of Clackamas County's most successful teachers, has much talent as an artist. She expects to return to her home in this city the latter part of May.

George Clester, a former well known resident of Eagle Creek, but who has been residing near Molalla for some years, died at his home Friday February 21, after a lingering illness. His funeral services were held in the Eagle Creek Church Sunday about noon and he was laid to rest in the Foster cemetery. He leaves a widow and nine children to mourn his loss.

The Forty-third Annual Ball given by the Columbia Hook & Ladder Co., at Busch's hall Saturday evening was a decided success. The hall was filled with the merry dancers and at an early hour until late. Fox's orchestra of Portland, furnished the music and all remained until the "good-night" dance. Appropriate were the decorations, where American flags were artistically festooned about the room.

J. Nelson Wisner, who has been in this city in company with his wife and son, Nelson, and who has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pratt in this city, left Friday for South America to resume his position, where he is connected with the government fish hatcheries at Montevideo. Mrs. Wisner and son will remain in Oregon City until June or July before leaving for South America.

William Cassidy, of the Greenwood Shingle Mill, was in Oregon City Friday, coming to this city to consult Dr. Mount. Mr. Cassidy was engaged a few days ago in knot sawing, when the shingle he was sawing, broke and his hand accidentally struck the sharp teeth of the fast revolving saw. The thumb and fore-finger of the left hand were fearfully lacerated. The saw penetrated the thumb to the bone. Mr. Cassidy was just making the last run at his mill as he intends to go out of the shingle business, after being engaged in that line for the past three years at Greenwood. He will leave for Eastern Oregon in the spring and will remain there during the winter. Mr. Cassidy is making the change for the benefit of his health.

Miss Laura Fuge is visiting with relatives at Salem.

Mrs. Rowland, of Portland, was in Oregon City Thursday.

Dave James, and wife, of Central Point, were in Oregon City Friday.

Nathan Cassidy, of Carus, was in Oregon City Thursday.

Jack Irish, of Carus, was among those visiting Oregon City Thursday.

Albert Hurst, of Union Mills, was in Oregon City Thursday on business.

Rev. and Frank Piper and wife, of Mulino, were in Oregon City Thursday.

Mrs. W. B. Shively went to Portland Thursday, selecting her millinery stock.

Abe Thomas, of Beaver Creek, was transacting business in Oregon City Thursday.

Mrs. W. A. White, of Eighth and Jefferson, who has been very ill, is improving.

James Lambly, of Sellwood, but formerly of Oregon City, was in this city Thursday.

H. L. Bents, a banker of Aurora, was in Oregon City Thursday afternoon on business.

Jacob Grossmueller, of Shubel, a well known farmer of that place, was in Oregon City Thursday.

William Perry, of Beaver Creek, a well known resident of that place, was in Oregon City Thursday.

Eugene LaForest, of Portland, was in Oregon City Saturday visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary LaForest.

W. X. Davis, of Carus, one of the prominent farmers of Clackamas county, was in Oregon City Friday.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ingsam residing on Eleventh and Park Street, is seriously ill with measles and scarlet fever.

Miss Ruth Steiver, of Portland, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Latourette, returned to her home Sunday.

Charlie Weismandel, a well known resident of Carus, was in Oregon City Thursday and while in this city visited with relatives.

Mrs. W. B. Shively and daughter, Miss Lillian Thatcher, spent Sunday in Portland, the guests of the former's son William Shively and family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Caulfield, who left Friday night for Seaside, Oregon, returned Sunday evening. They visited at their cottage at that resort.

Mrs. John Albright, who recently met with an accident by falling and breaking a finger of the left hand, is improving but it will be some time before she will have the use of her finger.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCarver, of Portland, spent Saturday and Sunday in Oregon City visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Mary McCarver, who is just recovering from her recent serious illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holman, of Portland, formerly of Meadowbrook, were in Oregon City Friday on their way to Meadowbrook, where they will visit with their son, Ralph Holman, and family.

Miss Ella Sager, who has been ill for several weeks, was taken to the Sellwood hospital Friday, where she underwent a surgical operation. She is improving, from the effects of the operation, and will be able to return to Oregon City in a few weeks.

Howard Brownell, an attorney of Astoria, and wife, have been spending the first part of the week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Brownell at their home in Concord, and also visited Mrs. Brownell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Hart of this city.

A. J. Burdette, of Canby, was in Oregon City Friday, coming here for medical attention. Mr. Burdette was operated upon some time ago at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Portland, and since being at his home in Canby has been suffering from bronchitis, and has been very ill.

Frank Betzel will leave Friday for Corvallis, where he will visit with his family. Mr. Betzel's three sons are attending the Oregon Agricultural College at that place, and while attending that institution, Mrs. Betzel is making her home in that city. Mr. and Mrs. Betzel will celebrate their silver wedding anniversary by enjoying a family reunion Friday.

Miss Ruth Gregory, who arrived in Oregon City from Indiana and who has been teaching school near White Salmon, Wash., arrived in Oregon City Friday evening. After spending a week in Oregon City with Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Cartledge, the latter her sister, she will return to White Salmon to resume her school until June, when the term expires. It was the intention of the School Board to have only three months' term but Miss Gregory has proved such a successful teacher that it was decided to have a nine months' term.

H. W. Thompson, a forest ranger from near Estacada, was in Oregon City Monday, bringing in 28 wildcat hides and one large coyote hide. Those of the wildcats were unusually large, and these animals have been causing much trouble in that section. Mr. Thompson received as bounty from the county clerk $2.00 for each of the wildcat hides and $1.00 for the coyote. Nearly all of the skins have been bargained for, receiving $2.50 each for the large ones and $2.00 for the smaller ones. The animals were killed by Mr. Thompson this winter.

A special car from his city Friday evening took a large delegation from the Wacheno Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, to Portland to attend the meeting of the Portland Orders at which time Washington's birthday was fittingly observed. The evening was devoted to speechmaking; the principal address of the evening being made by Hon. G. B. Dimick, of this city. Mr. Dimick's subject dwelt on the subject of George Washington, the father of our country, and never before did this fluent speaker hold the large and appreciative audience as he did on this occasion and a conclusion he was highly praised for the manner he handled his address. A banquet was enjoyed after the programme and the hall was elaborately decorated with the stars and stripes.

Mrs. Lulu VanWey is visiting relatives in Portland.

John Helvig, of Macksburg, was in this city Tuesday.

Frank Jaggard, of Carus, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

Roy Baker, of Carus, was in Oregon City on business Tuesday.

Mrs. George Brenner, of Carus, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bullard, of Eldorado, were in Oregon City Tuesday.

Otto Schmeiser, of Eldorado, was in this city transacting business Tuesday.

John Martin, a business man of Portland, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

Mrs. John Ashton, of Portland, was visiting friends in Oregon City Monday.

Evelyn, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ingram, is ill of scarlet fever.

Mason Cassidy, of Carus, was transacting business in Oregon City Tuesday.

John E. Jones, of Beaver Creek, was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

B. Griess, a prominent resident of Aurora, was in Oregon City on business Friday.

Mr. Henry Hettman, of Shubel, was in Oregon City Tuesday, accompanied by his mother.

James Gardner and daughter, Mrs. John Bruffs, of Carus, were Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

Franz Kraexberger, a well known resident of Aurora, was transacting business in this city Monday.

Jacob Grossmueller, of Shubel, one of Clackamas County's prominent farmers, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

Herman Schmidt, of Carus, a prominent hopgrower of Clackamas county, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

Mrs. Roy Wilkinson, of Vancouver, Wash., but formerly of this city, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Chambers, is critically ill at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Green have returned from Fort Smith, Arkansas, where they have been visiting for the past three months.

Mrs. Otis Shelley, of Seattle, Wash., who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Weidner, of this city, returned to her home Tuesday.

Captain and Mrs. Elmer W. Inman, of the West Side, are receiving the congratulations upon the arrival of a son, weight 7 end one fourth pounds.

Mayor H. E. Cross of Gladstone, preached a sermon at the funeral of Edward A. Revenue, near Sandy, Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Cole, who has been visiting at her country home at Liberal, for the past week, has returned to her home in this city.

Mrs. Roscoe Veek and son Alton of Union, Oregon, were guests of Mrs. Veek's sister, Mrs. John Ross, last week.

Attorney King Wilson, of Oswego, but whose law office is in Portland, was in Oregon City on legal business Monday.

Mrs. Mary Cross, of Molalla, and Mrs. Joseph Gibson and daughter of Portland, were guests of Mrs. Edwin VanWey Monday.

Eugene Lammers, a well known lumberman, whose sawmill is at Beaver Creek, was transacting business in Oregon City Thursday.

Mrs. J. Martin, of Portland, formerly Miss Myrtle Howell, of Canemah, was in Oregon City Thursday afternoon, the guest of her mother, Mrs. Mary Howell, a pioneer resident of Canemah.

G. Edwards has leased the ground adjoining the Oregon City Ice Works for a term of five years and is erecting a one story building, this to be occupied by Mr. Edward's blacksmith shop.

Miss Myrtle Cross, who has been ill for the past week suffering from a severe attack of measles has recovered and has resumed her position as stenographer with Dimick and Dimick attorneys.

Mrs. Agnes Silver and Miss Jennie Schatz spent Sunday at Mt. Angel, where they visited the Mt. Angel college and academy. Mrs. Silver's two children are attending the college and academy at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. James Roake, who have been in California as guests of their sons, William and Chester, returned to Oregon City Monday evening. They visited their former home at Long Beach before returning home.

Among those from this city who attended the entertainment given at the Hall in Portland Monday evening when the affair was given under the auspices of the Turn Verein, were Mrs. Robert Cahill and Mrs. Angus Hanson.

Mrs. G. W. Grace, who has been spending the week-end at New Era, the guest of Mrs. Lillie Wink, has returned to her home in this city. Mrs. Wink arrived in Oregon City Tuesday afternoon and is spending a few days with Mrs. Grace.

Mrs. Minnie Hanson, of this city, who attended the grand masque ball in Portland Saturday evening, given by the Grutli Society at the Swiss Hall, was awarded the first prize for wearing the handsomest costume. Mrs. Hanson represented "Queen of the Stars." She received a handsome prize. Mrs. Hanson recently moved to this city from Sellwood.

Saturday, of last week, Washington's birthday, was the "open season" for rose planting in Oregon, and probably hundreds of new bushes were planted on this date. And it might be interesting to some that nearly all Oregon roses, which bloom in such profusion, are foreign plants, imported from Holland, and that one Portland importer brings to this country $25,000 worth annually.

B. F. Bonney, of Colton, was in the city Monday and a caller at the Courier office. Mr. Bonney is one of the real old veterans of Oregon, coming to the Pacific Coast in 1846 and it is most interesting to hear him talk of the early days. We have a little over half a promise from this old pioneer to write some sketches of early day Indian life, privations, etc., and some day when "the spirit moves" you will find some interesting reading.

Miss Florence Moore and Miss Alma Moore spent Saturday in Portland visiting friends.

Miss Mary Ellen Long, who has been holding a position at the Oregon Legislature, as stenographer, returned to Oregon City Saturday evening.

Bud Dimick, of Portland, who is engineer for the Townsend Creamery Co., and brother-in-law of the Hon. W. A. Dimick, of this city, was in Oregon City on business Friday.

Ellerd Bailey, who has been seriously ill, was on Monday evening taken to the hospital in Portland, where he will undergo medical treatment, and may be necessary to undergo a surgical operation.

Miss Clara Kiel, of New Era, who has been in Oregon City visiting her sister, Mrs. Angus Hanson, returned to her home Wednesday. Miss Kiel is just recovering from her serious illness.

Mrs. T. V. Davenport, of this city who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Roy Wilkinson, at Vancouver, Wash., returned to her home Monday. Mrs. Davenport was called to Oregon City owing to the serious illness of her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shewman, and son Alon, after two weeks in Southern California's metropolis, Los Angeles, have taken up their abode for a short time at Long Beach. It is their intention to soon visit the Imperial Valley, about two hundred miles to the north.

Miss Nell Swafford left Oregon City Friday evening for Stone, where she remained until Sunday evening visiting her uncle, Hal Rands and family. Mr. Rands is engineer for the Clackamas Power and Irrigation Co. This company is constructing a dam near Baker's Bridge. Mr. Rands had charge of the construction of the dam at Cazadero.

Bernard Noble, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Noble, of Oregon City, and who recently was awarded the Rhodes scholarship while attending the University of Washington at Seattle, will return to Oregon City next week and after visiting his parents for a few days will go to Portland, where he will engage in business until next fall when he will leave for England, to take up his studies at Oxford. Mr. Noble is being entertained this week by the students at the University.

Larsen & Co.

Groceries, Produce, Commission, Hay

Lime-Sulphur Spray

Land Plaster, Air Slacked Lime

Drain Tile, Etc.

10th and Main Oregon City, Ore.

Ernie Calif, who is considered about the stellar slabster of Portland in 1906, mailed his signed contract some time ago and Manager Williams of the baseball team of Portland has now the contract in his possession. Calif is a former Oregon City boy being the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Calif, who recently returned to Oregon City, from Cazadero, where they have resided for several years. The young man made a record for himself in Portland several years ago as player and not only played with the best team of Portland but also of California. He will be assigned to the position of pitcher, the position he has always held. He has already commenced practice in this city and will be ready for the big games of the Colts as soon as the season opens in Portland. He is known on the Pacific Coast as one of the best pitchers and Oregon City is proud of him.

The many friends of popular Frank Whiteman are bringing thousands of votes for him to the Courier office each week, and the smokes signals indicate that Frank may safely begin to read up on "How to Operate an Automobile."

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

For a mild easy action of the bowels, try Doan's Regulents, a modern laxative. 25c at all stores.

At The Grand

The HEBREW with

BLACK and Gold

Clever Entertainers

At THE GRAND

BREAD AND CAKE WITHOUT MISTAKE

FISHER'S BLEND

THE PERFECT ALL PURPOSE FLOUR

The Foremost Flour Testing Laboratory of the country places

FISHER'S BLEND FLOUR

(Made from Eastern Hard Wheat and Western Soft Wheat)

far ahead of all competitors.

THE HOUSEWIFE'S LABORATORY, commonly known as the KITCHEN, invariably verifies its tests.

You will get the best of results from this Perfect All-Purpose Flour.

Manufactured by

FISHER FLOURING MILLS CO.

"America's Finest Flouring Mills"

For Sale by All Dealers