SOCIAL MATTERS

The ball given by the Knights and Ladies of Security at Busch's hall Saturday night was a most delightful affair and Friday evening, when Parson's orchestra furnished the music for dancing, and the hall was prettily decorated with ferns arranged artistically in Indian baskets along the wall, and also with festoons of the colors of the order. These were used with very pretty effect as were also American flags.

The engagement of Miss Emma Webber, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Webber, of Twelfth and Jefferson street, and Mr. Merle (Babe) Elliot of this city, is announced. The marriage of which will be solemnized in May.

Woodfin Recital Fine Success

One of the most delightful musical events that have taken place in this city, was the recital given by Oscar Lawrence Woodfin, of this city, when he presented before a large and appreciative audience one of his pupils, William Miller, of this city, assisted by Gustave Flechtner's orchestra, composed of: Messrs. Flechtner, Holland, Schoenheinz, Kohler, Baxter, Follansbee and Woodfin.

The affair was given at the Congregational Church Wednesday evening of last week. The church parlors, which were beautified by palms and ferns, were filled to their capacity by the many music loving people of this city.

Every number on the program, including the selections given by Mr. Woodfin, Mr. Miller and the Flechtner orchestra, were highly pleasing.

Mr. Miller's selections showed much musical talent of the young musician, and marked the careful training he had received from his instructor, Mr. Woodfin.

Mr. Woodfin's vocal numbers were beautifully rendered. He was never heard to better advantage than on this occasion. He was in excellent voice and every number he gave was well suited to his rich baritone voice. His high notes were clear and true.

All the members of the Flechtner orchestra, including the leader, Mr. Flechtner, are well known to the many of this city and their selections were in perfect harmony. Among those rendered receiving a hearty applause were: "March" (from Tannhauser) "Barcarolle" (from Tales of Hoffman) "Country Dance" and "Virginia Dance" Lucia Di Lammermoor for two pianos, by Mr. Woodfin and Mr. Miller were well received.

The patronesses of the evening were: Mrs. C. D. Latourette, Mrs. Theodore Osmund, Mrs. Charles Caulfield and Mrs. T. P. Randall.

Derthick Club Entertains

Mrs. L. L. Pickens and Mrs. L. L. Porter were hostesses of the Derthick Club Friday afternoon, which met at the home of Mrs. Pickens on the West Side. Oregon Grape was used artistically in decorating the music hall. The opera "Parsifal," by Wagner was the subject for the afternoon, when selections from the opera were well rendered by Miss Jeanette Wiggins, formerly of this city but now of Portland, Mrs. John Loder read the opera. Both readings and selection by Miss Wiggins were highly pleasing. Following the programme refreshments were served.

Among the business that was brought up for discussion was the concert to be given at the Congregational Church, the date of which has been set for April 21st. This affair promises to be an enjoyable musical treat when several well known musicians of Portland will make their first appearance before an Oregon City audience. Local talent will also be well represented.

J. W. Loder paid a fine of $25 in Justice Siever's court Tuesday on a charge of auto speeding. The charge was brought by chief Long of the fire department, who declares he will make it his special business to break up this auto speeding on Main street.

Civic Committee's Work.

With the intention of making Oregon City's clean-up permanent rather than temporary, the joint committees of the council and the Live Wires presented to the council drafts of ordinances regarding the construction and maintenance of barns and for the proper care of garbage. Both of these ordinances have passed the first reading.

The county court before finally passing on the matter of providing means for systematically cleaning the bridge has asked the council to add another hydrant. This has been referred to the committee on fire and water. The proposition to further beautify and make useful the bridge by installing an adequate lighting system, is under advisement by the P. R. L. & P. Co., and we understand from the local representative that it now awaits the approval of the legal department.
