National Guards

Editor Courier:-

To the people of Oregon City and Clckamas County:

I would say that the soldiers who have been seen in this town for the past three or four weeks and who have caused more or less trouble, are not members of Co. L. (the National Guard Co. of Oregon City) as many seem to think, but members of a battalion of regular troops who are camped at Clackamas. I do not think it hardly fair to judge the entire army and especially the National Guard by the few men who have caused trouble in this city. In the past few years I have had the pleasure of meeting a great many clean, upright young men in the U.S. Army.

A great many people seem to have the idea that the National Guard is composed of a lot of lazy shiftless, rowdies who will not work and who live in, but any one who has this idea is badly mistaken.

The National Guard is composed of the best young men of the country. Mostly hard working industrious boys presentable, while the florist adds to with a good sprinkling of high school
