Most Children Have Worms
Many mothers think their children are suffering from indigestion, headache, nervousness, weakness, costiveness, when they are the victims of that most common of all children's ailments—worms. Peevish, ill-tempered, fretful children, who toss and grind their teeth, with bad breath and colicky pains, have all the symptoms of having worms, and should be given Kickapoo Worm Killer, a pleasant candy lozenge, which expels worms, regulates the bowels, tones up the system and makes children well and happy. Kickapoo Worm Killer is guaranteed. Huntley Bros. Co. or by mail. Price 25c. Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

RICHARD A. SCHOENBORN

Richard Alfred Schoenborn, one of the prominent residents of Clackamas county, whose residence was in this city, passed away at his home on Seventh and John Quincy Adams St., Saturday evening May 31 at the age of 57 years, after an illness of 15 days of Bright's disease.

Richard Schoenborn was born in Suhl, Germany May 12, 1856, and came to America when he was 16 years of age, where he visited with his brother in New Jersey, where he remained for five years, afterwards coming to Oregon and settling on a farm at Carus in this county. He made his home there until three years ago when he moved to this city and engaged in the confectionery business, residing here until his death. He married Miss Augusta Ballard, of Shubel October 7, 1878.

Mr. Schoenborn was widely known and highly respected throughout Clackamas county and had a host of friends, who regretted to hear of his death. Through his hard work and energy he had made one of the best farm homes in this county, which is at present in charge of his son Harry. The deceased was the son of Christian G. and Regine G. Schoenborn, who died many years ago in Germany and was their 15th child. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Augusta Schoenborn, of this city; two daughters, Mrs. Nathaniel Smythe and Miss Elsie Schoenborn of this city; and five sons, Frank, of this city; Albert, Robert and Harry of Carus, and Henry of Oregon City.

The funeral services, which were held at the family home Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, were attended by many friends. The services were conducted by Rev. Wieversiek of this city, and the choir, of the German Evangelical Church, of which he is the pastor, rendered favorite hymns of Mr. Schoenborn. Many beautiful

JACOB J. SPAGLE

Born, April 2, 1838, at Wurtenburg, Germany, one of a family of four children; came to America at the age of 15 years and landing at New York in 1853. He settled in Ohio.
He entered as private in Co A. Second regiment U. S. artillery on the 4th day of April, 1859 and rose from private to ranking non-commissioned officer in his company; served through the civil war, participating in twenty-six engagements during his enlistment. He was discharged from the army in 1870; married August 24, 1871, in NewCastle, Pa. to Miss Martha Warner, and the same year came west and settled in Oregon, in this county, where he had been a resident for the last 42 years.
He died June 2, 1913, at the age of 75 years, leaving a widow and eight children. The surviving are the widow, Mrs. Martha Spagle, the sons, Albert J., Charles F., Lewis P., Frank J., Julius C., and daughters, Mary M. Spagle, Kathryn P. Barrett, Flora R. Richter.
The interment was in Rock Creek cemetery.

JAMES MARRS

James Marrs, one of the well known and highly respected Oregon pioneers, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Allredge, of this city, Sunday June 1, after an illness of two weeks of pneumonia.
Mr. Marrs was born in Arkansas in 1840 and at the time of the breaking out of the Civil War he crossed the plains by ox team and arrived in the State of California, after having many exciting times with the Indians. Remaining in California for a short time he decided to come to Oregon, where he made his home for a few months. He returned to his former home in California, but did not stay long as he had the "western fever" and came back to Oregon.
Mr. Marrs engaged in farming at Springwater for several years, and then moved to Oregon City with his family, where he has resided for 25 years.
The funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at the United Brothers Church by Rev. Milliken. The remains were laid by the side of his wife in Mountain View Cemetery.
