A. worker, and has also resided in Fresno, California since leaving here, where he was also engaged in similar work. Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Nash, formerly of this city, but now of Winlock, Eastern Oregon, accompanied by their two little daughters, arrived in Oregon City Wednesday afternoon, and will visit relatives in this county for several weeks and look after their property interests in this place. Mr. Nash and his family made the 150-mile trip in their surry visiting along the way, it requiring 10 days to make the trip, and have had a most delightful trip, the weather being favorable since they started from their home. They brought with them some fine horses, which they will dispose of before returning to Winlock.

Thursdays hereafter. Everything looks rosy for the future growth of this city. Joe Harless, a prominent resident of Molalla, was in this city on business Thursday. Let it soak in that after this week the publication of the Courier will be Thursday instead of Friday. Miss Ethel Rigdon of Salem, who has been in this city visiting Miss Marjorie Caufield, has returned to her home. Mrs. C. B. Spumway of near Linn's Mill, went to Portland Wednesday to visit friends and attend the Rose Show, returning Thursday. James W. Smith, a prominent farmer and stockman of Macksburg, was in this city on business Wednesday and returned to his home Thursday. No better investment for business for Oregon City could be made than a public market day. No city or town ever got one to working that didn't work out for business. Mrs. Irish and Miss Pansy Irish of Carus were in Portland Wednesday to visit the former's daughter Mrs. Deringer and take in the rose show. Mrs. Irish will remain through the week. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Johnson and baby, who have been visiting relatives at Corvallis and attending the commencement exercises, will return to this city the latter part of the week. J. L. Taylor, who has been taking a course at the Oregon Agricultural College in civil engineering, has returned to his home in this city to spend his summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Taylor. Fred Schultze, who has been at Ritzville, Washington, arrived in this city Monday after an absence of 10 years, and is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Schultze. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Jones have purchased the bungalow owned by Mrs. Ross Charman on Sixth and High Street, now occupied by attorney Hicks and family. Mr. Jones will make many improvements before taking possession. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Taylor of Portland, spent Saturday and Sunday in this city with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Taylor. Walter Taylor was a former Oregon City boy and is now chief clerk of the private secretary to assistant General Manager I. D. Buckley of the Harriman lines. Mrs. H. M. Davis and children of Rockaway Beach, Ore., who have been visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Hass and sisters of Maple Lane, will return to their home Friday. Mrs. Davis has lived at Rockaway for the last four years and says they have eight miles of smooth beach with plenty of clams and the booming. OPENING NEXT WEEK Handsome Carnegie Library to be Formally Opened June 21 It has been decided to have the formal opening of the new library building on Saturday afternoon and evening, June 21. There will be an informal reception and an opportunity to look over the building in the afternoon; and in the evening there will be a program of music and short speeches. Miss Marvin, librarian of the state library, will be present, and will speak. A copy of the program will be printed next week. Everyone should turn out on this occasion and see the well arranged and well furnished building which the city and county now have for the furtherance of their library work. The people of the county, outside of Oregon City, are especially urged to be present, either in the afternoon or in the evening—or both. The library is now free to all residents of Clackamas county. With a view to making the library as useful as possible to all people, the librarian invites suggestions as to how this may be done. It might be added that if anyone has a book which he can spare and which he thinks would be useful to others, it will not be refused by any means. The library has received numerous gifts of books since it was started two years ago, and they are much appreciated. Walter Smith's Child Kidnapped The 15-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, of Marshfield who were formerly of Oregon City, was found in the woods about a mile and a half distant from the home. The child was unharmed. It is believed the child was carried in to the woods and left there by a half-witted tramp named Bill Miller, who is now in custody. Miller had been refused food by Mrs. Smith. He denies his guilt, but is recognized as the man who visited the Smith home. Nearly 300 men had been engaged in the search. D. L. Stanley, neighbor, who found the baby, says he was guided to the spot by a falling star. The child was lost for a day and distracted parents were overjoyed in finding their little child. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are wellknown in Oregon City, where the former was for several years chief lineman for the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company. Something Wrong A farmer living near this city took about 100 head of fat hogs to Canby last week, because he could get a far better price than was offered in this city. And the presumption is that farmer and his neighbors will also go to Canby to do their buying. The name—Doan's inspires confidence—Doan's Kidney Pills for skin itching. Doan's Ointment for a mild laxative. Sold at all drug stores. Eczema Ointment I found a cure. This ointment is the formula of a physician and has been in use for years—not an experiment. That is why we can guarantee it. Huntley Bros. Co. by mail. Price 50c. Preffer Chemical Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

GREATEST OF SUCCESSSES Annual Rose Festival far Outdoes Events of Former Years Oregon City's rose show was a success beyond all anticipations. It was a huge success, a lurid, hang-up big time in every detail, and a success that will hereafter make this date a county holiday. There were more people in attendance than any other gathering in Oregon City. The city was packed. Trains and street cars were full, and autos came into the city in a continuous line. And the attractions couldn't have been better. The street parade and the long line of decorated floats were great. The water sports and boat racing were splendid attractions, and the rose show and attractions in Busch's hall were excellent. And by the way it takes a bunch of ladies to pull off such an event. The success was a splendid tribute to their ability to plan and carry out such a splendid festival and have it go off so satisfactorily and smoothly. There were 35 autos in the parade, all handsomely decorated, and many of them bowers of beauty. There were many floats drawn by teams; there were societies in handsome uniforms, firemen, little folks in hand-come rigs, laughable stunts—in short the parade was a splendid success. It was almost a case of flip a coin to decide where the prizes should go, as there were so many deserving floats. When the parade went up Main street the judges decided to mark as "good" the handsomest rigs and qualify them on the return parade, but after two inspections nearly every number was yet marked "good." It was simply a situation where more prizes were needed—an emergency of fine distinction. Judge Dimick was given first city prize for best decorated auto, and J. C. Cooke first prize for out of town for an auto representing the Clackamas Southern railroad. Ward Morton of Mt. Pleasant won first prize for out of city and George Armstrong of Redlands second. The vehicles in the city, other than autos, the human rosbud vehicle by the rose society won first prize and the commercial club second, and outside the city Mothers' Congress float of Canemah took first. The Moose lodge was easily winners of first prize for pedestrians in their hand-some costumes and Pierce Walker's boy scouts took second money. Harry Kramer won first money without hesitation in his "Jack-o-mole"—and it was certainly a laughable, ingenious arrangement of mule and auto, and Misses Alice Holman and Evelyn Williams, as a pair of pedestrians, came in for a prize on their clever make-up. In the "unique" class the Concord Indians, about two dozen youthful squaws and braves, carried off the first prize and Charlie Schram's trouserless youths in barrels were second in prize money, but first in advertising for the Grand. Among the many beautifully decorated cars, from which the judges were much in doubt over were those driven by Al Price, E. E. Brodie, Frank Sullivan, George Sullivan, Jas. Petty, Sheriff Mass, C. H. Dye, M. D. Latourette, Henry Stevens, Gerald Warner, Charles Miller, Charles Parker, Ed Busch, Dr. Mount and Kent Wilson. The parade on the river was a fine display. There were 30 boats, all sizes and kinds in the parade, and nearly all decorated with flags and bunting. The motor boat racing was as splendid speed contest. The "Vamoose" was an easy winner over the "Wolf" but the exhibitions were fine, and when you consider that the "Vamoose" made the distance of nearly eight miles in 9 and a half minutes, then you realize that an auto would have to go some to keep up. The "Vamoose" was an easy winner, the Wolf's time being 10 minutes and 44 seconds. Other boat races followed the big event, and thousands of spectators lined the river banks. Full credit for this splendid success must be given to the ladies who managed this year's festival. They have more than made good. Men could not have done half as well. This festival has set a standard for the future. NOISE AND FUN Commercial Club Excursion was Splendid, Jolly Entertainment There was never a more jolly trip than that of Monday when the steamers Ruth and Lang carried two loads of jolly boosters and noise makers to Portland to help King Rex get the rose festival started right, and the thousands of people who lined the river banks and crowded the draw bridges know pretty well where Oregon City is, and that trains don't have to be signalled to stop there. It was a fine advertising feature and a splendid outing for commercial club members and families. The steamers were handsomely decorated and were conspicuous in the long train of boats that escorted the king down the harbor to the city festivities. Noise? After the fleet formed it was one continual din. Every steamboat whistle was at its loudest; every passenger who had a tin horn tried to blow the noise out of it; the two cruisers at anchor joined in the choruses, and every factory whistle in Portland got in. But it was fun. Leaving at 9 and returning at 2, the trip was too short, and no doubt every member on both boats will join in a resolution that each June we help the king start things at the rose festival. An exciting game of baseball was played on the Eldorado baseball grounds Sunday, the teams being those of Eldorado and Shubel. The score was 4 to 18 in favor of the Eldorado team. Many of your neighbors use the De-Laval cream separator. Why not you? See the ad on this page.

VIOLA Misses Daisy and Ada Coop are visiting at Goldendale Washington. Mrs. Lacro accompanied by her sister Mrs. Ringo are visiting at Springwater. The farewell party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Prathers in honor of Miss Ruth Welch, was a grand success. D. C. Fouts, Sr., is quite busy looking after the interest of the Fouts Valley Road. It is rumored about that Viola is soon to lose their minister, C. C. Coop. Mrs. Daisy Howard and children of Eugene, are visiting Mrs. Howard's brother, E. T. Bateson and family. Viola is to hold its annual school meeting June 16th. The business to come before the meeting is to elect three directors. We expect a large crowd to be present, as it is to be hoped that the standard of the new board will be raised from six bits to one dollar. E. T. Bateson is quite busy delivering hay in Oregon City. The M. E. Church has been treated with a "Brand new roof." Miss Ruth Welch closed a successful term of school Friday June 7th with a picnic on Clear Creek. A fine program was rendered by the school, after which a spread of good things was enjoyed immensely by everybody. The afternoon was spent with social conversation and a most enjoyable day was closed with a farewell address by the Hon. J. A. Randolph. Mr. Clason is building an up-to-date bungalow. A number of young people of this place attended the rose show at Oregon City. LIBERAL Extra fine pasture this year and stock are fat. Spring grain has a good color and if we get showers along this summer we will surely have a good crop. Clover seed is filling good at present and Alaska clover is in full bloom. Quite a few have cut hay and some have it in their barns and lots of it in the swath and winnow, as these showers have stopped the haying at present. S. Wright was kicked on the head and is laid up for repairs for a few days. He did not think that the colt would kick and as the chances were against him he got it—and pretty hard too. Pierce Wright, S. F. Burns, M. C. Gregory and Miss Ollie Morey went to Portland Tuesday morning in the auto. The P. E. & E. are busy and have a large crew at work and it looks as though we would have a railroad soon. We certainly need it this fall. There are prospects of this place having several manufacturing plants as soon as the road is finished to Molalla. We all would like to see the Clackamas Southern reaching this way.

Card of Thanks We wish to thank our many friends and acquaintances for their kindness during the illness and death of our loving son and brother, Mr. Martin M. Richter, and also for the beautiful floral offerings. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Richter and brothers and sisters.

Must Check Baggage The State Railroad Commission has ordered the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company to carry 150 lbs. of baggage free of charge on a full fare ticket and 75 pounds on a half ticket on the line from Portland to Oregon City, as well as to Estacada, Troutdale and Bull Run. This order is the result of a hearing at Portland last Saturday in which the complainant was C. G. Sutherland. The company has heretofore refused baggage without charge on its lines, but the Commission declares its practice in this respect is unreasonable. Passengers will be entitled to check baggage free up to 150 and 75 lbs., for full and half fare tickets, respectively, whenever the fare paid is the regular cash rate and the one-way fare for the distance traveled is 25 cents or more. The order will go into effect in 20 days, this time being allowed to give the company opportunity to correct its rates on file at Salem. Library Notes The work of arranging the shelves in the new building and sorting periodicals and newspapers for filing, is about complete now, and by the time of the formal opening, on the twenty-first, everything will be in place. The fact that this work has been done without any interruption of circulation has made it somewhat slower than it otherwise would have been. A little leaflet entitled "Don't be a Quitter" has been mailed to each member of the recent high school graduating class, with the library's congratulations and an invitation to the library. The leaflet contains some valuable suggestions concerning the continuance of an education by the use of books. Miss Price, the librarian, is attending the convention of the Pacific Northwest Library Association at Tacoma. This association is made up of librarians of Oregon, Washington and British Columbia. Take Plenty of Time to Eat There is a saying that "rapid eating is slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and insalivated. Then when you have a fullness of the stomach or feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many severe cases of stomach trouble and constipation have been cured by the use of these tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Sold by Huntley Bros. Co.
