RANDOM SAYINGS.

Scoff not the natural defects of any which are not in their power to amend. Oh, 'tis cruel to beat a cripple with his own crutches! Learning has gained most by those books by which the printers have lost. Moderation is the alken string running through the pearl chain of all virtues. To smell to a turf of fresh earth is wholesome for the body. No less are thoughts of mortality cordial to the soul. * * * Their heads sometimes so little that there is no room for wit, sometimes so long that there is no wit for so much room. Often the cockfoot is empty in those whom nature hath built many stores high. A public office is a guest which receives the best usage from them who never invited it—Thomas Fuller.

Take Plenty of Time to Eat

There is a saying that "rapid eating is slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and insalivated. Then when you have a fullness of the stomach or feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many severe cases of stomach trouble and constipation have been cured by the use of these tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Sold by Huntley Bros. Co.
