THE SOCIAL SIDE
Marriages, Receptions, Musicales and Other City Matters of Interest

The formal opening of the Carnegie Library in this city was held at the Library on Seventh and John Adams street Saturday evening, at which time many of the residents of Oregon City took advantage of this occasion to visit the handsome new building. Large bowls filled with graceful ferns and bright colored roses beautified the rooms, the decorations being in charge of Mrs. W. S. U'Ren and Miss Myrtle Buchanan.

During the evening the rooms of the building were thronged with people, who were received by Miss Helen Price, Mrs. John Adams, the former librarian and the latter assistant librarian, Mrs. W. S. U'Ren, Miss Myrtle Buchanan, Mrs. E. G. Caulfield, Mrs. J. E. Hedges, Mrs. E. P. Carter, Mrs. L. M. C. Craven, Mrs. E. Hedges, Mrs. Loder, Mrs. E. Kenneth Stanton, Mrs. B. T. McBain.

During the rendition of the programme the lecture room, in which this took place, was filled to its capacity.

J. E. Hedges, president of the board, presided, Miss Marvin, state librarian, spoke of "Library Development." Miss Northey, librarian at Hood River, spoke of "The Oregon County Library as Developed at Hood River." Miss Haile librarian at Gresham, outlined briefly work of Multnomah County branches. A vocal selection rendered by Mrs. Leon Deslarzes, one of the prominent and favorite soprano soloists of the city, who responded to a hearty encore, and was followed by Miss Florence Grace, with a piano solo, who was received and encored most heartily. Mr. Hedges introduced Miss Price, the new librarian, stating that he would not take time to make a speech, but wished to state to the people to "watch us grow." Before closing his remarks he spoke of the comparison of the higher education available to all in the public library. Mr. Oscar Lawrence Woodfin pleased his audience with one of his vocal selections, "Nocturne." Mr. B. T. McBain closed the program, with the evening with a most interesting account of the origin and growth of the library in Oregon City and its plans for future extension.

At the Presbyterian church Sunday evening a sacred musical was given under the auspices of the choir, and the services were largely attended. During the evening the pastor, Rev. J. B. Landspole, made a few remarks. Among the soloists at the evening were Mrs. Leon Deslarzes and Mrs. Angus Matheson. The interior of the church was prettily decorated with roses and spring blossoms.

The following is the programme: Evening prayer, "Savior, Breathe an Evening Blessing;" hymn 11; anthem, "Sing Joyful Songs;" prayer; solo, "God that Madest Earth and Heaven;" Mrs. Angus Matheson; scripture; anthem, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is;" prayer; response, "Hear My Prayer;" ladies' chorus, "Taste and See that the Lord is Good;" "Consolation;" solo, "Just as I Am;" Mrs. Leon Deslarzes; anthem, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul;" remarks, Rev. J. R. Landspole; hymn 15; benediction; postlude "March Romaine."

The commencement exercises of the McLoughlin Institute were held at the McLoughlin hall Wednesday evening, June 26, at which time the hall was filled to its capacity by relations and friends of those taking part in the programme of the evening. Every number on the programme was heartily encored and several responded to encores. The address of the evening was made by Most Rev. A. Christie, D. D., of Portland, who also presented the graduates with the diploma. The salutary was given by Miss Loraine Forsberg, and the valedictory by Francis J. Champion.

The programme, which was in charge of the Sisters, was one of the most enjoyable ever given at the McLoughlin Institute. The following is the programme:

The marriage of Miss Essie M. Block, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Block, to Mr. Lester L. Bauer of Chicago, will take place Saturday evening, June 28, at the Sherman Hotel Chicago. The Blocks were formerly in Oregon City and Miss Block is a prominent musician.

Invitations are being issued to a recital given by Mr. Oscar Lawrence Woodfin on Monday evening, June 30 at the Willamette Hall, when members of his class on piano, will appear in recital, at which time there will be special soloists. The programme will commence at 8:15 o'clock. Mr. Woodfin is one of Oregon City's prominent musicians and the recitals given by this instructor and his pupils have always been most delightful musical affairs.

A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. Harrison were entertained last Friday evening at their residence on Monroe Street and a delightful musical treat was enjoyed.

Mrs. Des Larzes, whose appearance is always welcomed by her town-folk, was one of the chief performers and her beautiful singing was received with much applause.

The special feature of the evening was the singing of Mr. E. Maldwyn Evans, the Welsh baritone. His splendid voice and the fine interpretation of his songs showed him to be a real artist and completely captivated his audience. Mr. Evans has just recently come to Portland from Wales, but already has become noted in musical circles.

Oregon City will have the opportunity of hearing him this summer at the Chautauque in Gladstone Park.

The other who performed during the evening and were much appreciated for their good work were Miss Moreita Hickman, the Misses Harrison and Harold Swafford.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Deslarzes, Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. James Cary, Mr. and Mrs. James Swafford, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Frost, Mr. and Mrs. Stafford, Mrs. George Brownell, Mrs. George Swafford, Mrs. Kemmer of Portland, Miss Baker of Hartford, Conn., Miss Swafford, Miss Caulfield of Portland, Miss Alice Bailey, Mr. Maldwyn Evans of Portland, Mr. C.
