

IF SCHEUBEL WAS MANAGER.

TELLS GEORGE C. BROWNELL WHAT HE WOULD DO TO HIM

Explains Position on County Matters and the Remedies

Editor Courier:— Apparently at last they have discovered what ails me; why I got mixed up in the Court investigation. It remained for Mr. Brownell to dig this up. I was told he said at the meeting held at Wright's Springs recently, that I was a nice man but did not know what the Court was doing; that we did not go to the records for information and the information was to be found there that would show up the Court O. K. Mr. Brownell, you are dead wrong. That is just what I honestly tried to get facts on the outside as well as to compare with the records when they were in favor of the Court. We said so and when not simply giving the facts did neither condemn or exonerate the Court. We left that for the people to decide and I hereby challenge you, George C. Brownell, to prove that our statements are untrue. I will go with you or anyone else to prove that they are true.

I was also told that Mr. Brownell said I was so because God Almighty and Woodrow Wilson did not appoint me as general manager. Now it is a mighty lucky thing for him and his type of men, that I am not general manager for if I was he sure would be doing something useful instead of plundering the people. He would have a job breaking rock for good roads until he learned to do square business. Mr. Brownell pretends to be a realist, but a great many of Mr. Beattie's friends lost some faith in him on account of the close relations between him and George C. Brownell. A number of his old friends told me this very thing and that is the main reason that gave me the notion that some things might not be what they ought to be. Mr. Beattie and I have been friends for years and I would stand by him today when it is clear that he is right.

Mr. Brownell makes out that I was helping engineer the recall. Right here let me give my honest opinion of the way I would go at this instead of going to the expense of a recall. I would first visit the Court and ask them if they would be willing to consult with a tax league committee in the future. If they would agree to this I would not favor a recall. I made that kind of a statement at a meeting held at Oak Grove what I would recommend. I told the men working on the recall the same thing and at no time had anything whatever to do with the recall. I was busy on something a hundred times more important to the farmers and workers than the recalling of the Court.

I have no ill feeling against the Court. I am satisfied they have made some mistakes but we all do that. Under their method of keeping accounts they could have stolen some money, but I don't know that they did and until I do I am going to assume they did not and keep on hoping they did not until I know different. Some who want to interfere with the Court at any cost. I know will not like those kind of statements. Some may go so far as to think and say I am laying down but let me assure you there is nothing in it, but I want to be fair at any cost.

I have heard of cases in former courts just as bad as this. For instance one of my neighbors was asked by the supervisor to bring out from Oregon City some spikes for road planking. He was told to bring the bill along and on the way out he got curious and examined the bill. He found the bill called for $5.00 per keg. He called the road supervisor's attention to it and the man turned red in the face and turned his back on the farmer and nothing to say. This farmer had bought 8 penny nails a few days before for $2.75 per keg. Now it is far more important to change the methods of doing business than change drivers. At least that is how I see it.

If this Court or any other that we might elect would refuse to consult with a tax league committee then I would work day and night to make it go, especially if the business was done as it has been in such a way that it is impossible to tell from the records what some things cost. We have had another illustration lately how mistakes are made by those in authority when they arrested the men in Oregon City for holding meetings on the streets. I asked the policeman why they did not arrest the men who were guilty of cutting the belts and in the mills they told me they were too busy for them. You could not catch them now. That is another way for an officer to make believe he is earning his money. A crime has been committed—they fail to catch the criminal but here is a man in easy reach on a soap box reading part of the constitution of the United States and they are afraid he will commit some crime or someone ought to be arrested for the crime already committed, so they nab Mr. Man on the soap box and lock him up. Remember anarchy breeds anarchy.

When the officers arrested those men they violated the law and were anarchists in so far as they took the law into their own hands. I have learned since that the Mayor, Sheriff Maas, R. Beattie and a few others are getting the credit for the novel method of getting rid of the I. W. W. meetings. The facts are that the credits should go to Mr. U'Ren first then Mr. W. W. Myers, C. Scheubel and myself as we were the parties who first proposed the methods adopted, although the Mayor when first approached, refused to consider the program. Mr. U'Ren asked him to take that course.

Mr. Myers and myself were in Mr. U'Ren's office consulting with him and Mr. U'Ren suggested trying to persuade the Mayor to invite the street speakers; furnish them soap boxes and let them wear themselves out if they felt like it as long as they kept straight. Mr. Myers, my brother and myself agreed that that was the proper thing. The Mayor was called on but he refused to consider it. Later he changed his mind and when this plan was tried out it was found satisfactory. They want to claim the credit.

These men lack some manhood or they would come out and give the credit where it belongs. Mr. U'Ren has done more to make it possible for the people to remedy their wrongs than any hundred other men in the state. It is high time he got some credit. R. Scheubel.

IN THE NAME OF THE FLAG

RIGHT OF MIGHT LAW UNDER STARS AND STRIPES

A Parody on Justice Put Over on Men at Marshfield

"Oh, say, does the Star-Spangled banner yet wave, o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?" Sure thing, and what is more, Old Glory is in line to wave for a long time to come. It does a lot of good to have his patriotism warmed up on the glorious Fourth, especially when the warmers get so much per.

On the other hand I can see no cause for alarm, even if we were not reminded of our patriotic duty, for the love of this land of the free, and the home of the brave is apparent on every hand. If you will hold copy awhile so as to make sure I will put the accent on the right syllable, I will read you a little from the Telegram of June 25 in this year of grace.

The date line is Marshfield, Ore. "One of the most remarkable demonstrations ever known on Coos Bay, a delegation of 600 to 800 business men and citizens of Marshfield met at 9:30 o'clock this morning and, carrying an American flag, escorted W. J. Edgeworth, local secretary of the I. W. W., and his assistant, Wesley Everett, to the dock, placed them aboard a boat and, with 50 men accompanying them, took them to Summer, where they were told to hit the trail for Roseburg, and never return to Coos Bay. They were provided with a supply of food to last until they could reach Roseburg.

"Edgeworth and Everett were arrested last night as vagrants and taken to the city jail and when released this morning the crowd of 800 was waiting for them, seized them at once and marched them to the boat. Every store in the city was closed during the demonstration. After placing the men on the boat, the delegation marched to the cigar store of Andrew Morgard, recognized as the local headquarters of the I. W. W., and warned him if he harbored or assisted the I. W. W. in any way he would receive same treatment. The action followed a meeting of business men held last night, at which this course was decided upon to rid the community of I. W. W. agitators."

"He warned up the people." Sweet land of liberty! Law and order certainly is alive and wide awake. Talk about the charge of the Light Brigade; the Gallant Six Hundred. Wake up Tennyson so he may sing us another ode to the gallant brave. "Old Glory" was to the front as an emblem of liberty, guaranteeing the city protection of law to even the most despised of men.

The report does not say that this gallant six or eight hundred stopped to pray, to ask God's blessing on this heroic undertaking, perhaps the business men were afraid some of the low-browed "citizens" might snicker, and say that as it is probable they had all the guns and clubs in town it mattered little whether God "stood in" or not.

Did you hear of the spectacular excellency shouting to the tin soldiers to come and protect these men in their rights? Was anything said in editorials of the leading dailies about this sort of anarchistic interfering with the life and liberty? Were these two deported men and the cigar seller guilty of law breaking? If so, do the laws, prescribe forcible deportation for "business men?" Just take a few minutes of your precious time and read the report over carefully, then scratch your hat-rack a little, perhaps you can dig out a think or two.

I am reminded of similar doings of about sixty years ago when the law and order gangs used to mob the anti-slavery agitators; they also hid behind the "American Flag," but if I have not misread my spelling book in the course of human events the American flag was snatched out of their gentle hands by some vulgar working men.

I know nothing at all about these three men and my information regarding the I. W. W. is about as limited as history seems to be to the "business men" and I am not writing any defense of the I. W. W. They seem to be able in a general way to make matters quite interesting in some localities for those who resort to such means to silence them. The members of this organization are possibly guilty of making nuisances of themselves. They may interfere with the affairs of those who are satisfied with the existing order of things. When they break the law of the land, apply lawful measures to correct them, give them the same standing before the law that is given our best people.

Perhaps you may have read of the methods employed by the "law and order" gang in Walla Walla, where an armored train bearing gatling guns was run through a coal mining hamlet in the night and shot up the town killing and wounding defenseless people for the crime of asking more bread. It is also worthy to note that the governor of the state and one of the political fortunes of the wild man from Lobster Bay, suspended the constitution, and men were arrested and held without warrant of law. News-papers confiscated and a long list of crimes committed, and this bunch of anarchists hid behind the American flag. It seems "Old Glory" like breadcloth, will cover up a multitude of sins.

A good opening for a night school is awaiting some man with courage enough to go to Marshfield, using the history of the French Revolution as a text book. But perhaps that is like throwing pearls before swine. John F. Stark.

A Slur or Ignorance?

Recently two well-dressed ladies, wives of farmers, entered a store in Oregon City and looked over some shoes on sale, those monstrosities of ancient date with the pointed toes, and one of the ladies addressed the proprietor and said: "surely you do not think you can sell those shoes?" "Oh yes," said the store keeper, "farmers will come in and buy them."

Now, Mr. Editor, that storekeeper has got another think coming and the sooner he makes up his mind that the farmer is a cheap jay so much the better for his trade. Let me tell you, Mr. Storekeeper, that I stood in a store and saw a farmer come in and was fitted with a nice pair of shoes and paid the price, $7, without a murmur, and that another farmer well known to the writer, sends to Europe for his clothes. Also, Mr. Storekeeper, get it into your head that the day of the Hayseed is over. Another Farmer.

COURIER STANDS RIGHT

A Subscriber's Views of the Courier And its Stands for the People

Chico, Calif., July 5.

Editor Courier:— I take the pleasure of dropping you a few lines to show my feelings towards the Courier.

I will say that if there was a lot more such newspapers in the United States, the people might wake up and make a little struggle for their rights. It is every citizen's duty to uphold the Courier in every step it has taken for the good of the tax payers and the public in general. The Courier has done more for Oregon than any newspaper in the state.

Now you may think that a little strong. When I say in the state, knowing it to be only a weekly paper, but in my opinion. When it started and boosted the Farmers Equity Society. In that alone has it done more than any other paper in the state.

The Farmers Society of Equity is a movement that has long been needed and now that it is started it can't help but grow with the right people behind it to push it through. The Courier will never let it die.

And the Courier editor picked up as soon as I found a straw to work on; picked it up and worked on it as long as there was anything to work on, and it is still working.

These are only two of its good deeds, there's the pure water, public docks, the elevator up the bluff and a lot more that I could name that would have been dead and forgotten long ago were it not for the Courier.

And here's to Brown, and hoping that he will live a long time and finally get the people educated enough to own and control their own government.

It is about time for the people to take a hand and compel this $60,000,000 octopus to build and complete those projects or else forfeit their permits, and also to reduce the price of power and light. Breaking up the Services

From the Spring Valley, Minn., Sun we clip the following local notice.

Rev. Stubbs has warned his congregation that he will resign unless residents near the church cut out phonographic records during hours of service. Last Sunday evening just as he announced the opening hymn, "Where is My Wondering Boy Tonight?" the phonograph just across the street broke out with "He's loafing Down at Patsy's with his Hide Chock Full of Booze," and the coincidence was full of meaning to many of the younger members. The text of the sermon "Seeking the Man," had hardly been announced when the machine struck up with "Has Anybody Here Seen Kelly?" and Hank Bird went out to catch the chorus several heads began to nod in time with the music. This was too much and the congregation dismissed filing out to the tune of "Home is the Place on a Night Like This."

THE MARKETS

Prices of Farm Products in Clackamas County

With the present warm days the strawberry crop is at its height and the growers are much encouraged over the prospective yield. Wednesday the berries were bringing a price of 75c per crate.

Vegetables are plentiful in the local markets and there is a good demand.

Cherries of an early variety are commencing to take on color and within a few days these will be in the market. In some sections of the county the yield will be good.

The price of butter and eggs remains about the same as of last week. The cattle market is very slow. A combination of circumstances has caused prices to be lower than the previous week. Extreme high water has caused many cattle in the vicinity of Portland to be liquidated before the usual time. Heavy shipments from California and Utah has filled the yards. Best steers are selling at $7.50; cows $6.25 to $6.50; bulls $5.50 and calves $8.00 to $9.00.

The hog trade held strong until Friday. Receipts have been very liberal and the market is from 5c to 10c lower. Best light swine steady at $8.40.

An uneven sheep market ruled for the six days period ending Saturday. There is a fair demand for fat mutton, which is very scarce. The bulk of receipts contained nothing but poor sheep and lambs, which are slow to move. Yearlings are quoted at $5.50 to $5.75; two year olds $5.50; ewes $4.50 to $4.75 and best spring lambs are steady at $6.50 to $6.75.

EGGS—Oregon ranch 17c. FEED—Shorts $26.50; bran $24.00 standard barley $27.50; process barley $28.50 per ton. FLOUR—$4.40 to $5.20. HAY—(buying.) Clover at $10 and $12; oat hay, best $14.75 and $16, mixed $10 and $12; alfalfa, $13.

OATS—$28 at $45; wheat $1.00 bushel, oil meal about $45.

Live Stock—Meats Beef—(live wt.) Steers 6 and 7c; cows 5 and 5.1-2; bulls 4-1.2. MUTTON—Sheep three to five shown $12.25; and a half cents.

Veal—Fancy, 12 c to 13c; medium 12 1/2 c and 13 cents. Pork—10c and 11 cents.

Poultry—(buying) Hens 15 1/2 c; springs 20c; roosters 8 cents, ducks 15 1/2 c; geese 12 1/2 c and 13c; turkeys 18c.

MOHAIR—33c to 35c Sheep pelts—40 to 90c. Hides—10 and 9c.

Fruits Apples—60c to 90c. DRIED FRUITS—(buying) Oregon prunes on basis 6c to 8c. Dried pears .07c.

Butter Ranch Butter—45c; Creamery 58c. California.

For regular action of the bowels; easy, natural movements; relief of constipation, try Doan's Regulents. 25c at all stores.
