It costs you nothing but a two-cent stamp.

Twenty-one Pensions Granted
Twenty-eight widows have applied for widows' pensions and 21 have been granted by the county court and will aggregate $523. per month. The highest pension is $47.50 and the lowest $10.

Confiscation
H. S. Clyde, long a resident of this county has sold his store and home at Clackamas and says he will sell all his other properties in this county at cost. Mr. Clyde says he has paid taxes of over two dollars per acre on wild land, more than the land cost from the government and that taxation in this county is nearing the confiscation point—so near that a man is better off without property.

On Trial
The trial of the 15 men indicted by the grand jury for the trouble in the mills is on, postponed from Tuesday on account of a trial before the court. Tuesday James Braun, a spectator of the proceedings, was arrested, on information and identification as being one of the leaders in the mill troubles that night. He was held as being a vagrant, awaiting a charge of rioting.

Her Thanks
The retiring President of the Oregon City Rose Society wishes to thank the various committees and their chairman, and all others who so ably assisted her in making the recent Rose Show a success.
Mrs. J. H. Walker
Mr. Schuebel's address in part is as follows:
If seven doctors had told you, as they had told C. E. Blanchard, of Lo Grange, Calif., that you had but a short time to live on account of kidney trouble, what would you do? He says: "I took Foley Kidney Pills and they completely cured me and I can not speak too highly of them." Cost less than the doctors, but accomplish more.

LABOR'S HOPE.

No man in all our history was a firmer believer in law and order than Thomas Jefferson. The right of a man to labor is inalienable, and the right of a man to quit work is just as undeniable. Neither capital nor labor has the right to take the law into its own hands. If capital does wrong that is no reason why labor should do wrong, or vice versa. Two wrongs never did and never will make a right. In a government such as ours the reign of law must not give way to the reign of force. The law must be obeyed by all. The best advice that any friend can give labor, organized or otherwise, in its struggle for its just rights, for better conditions, for greater progress and for a more equitable distribution of its fruits is to obey the law. Labor's only hope is here. No man is greater than the law in this country.—William Sulzer, Governor of New York.

THE PLAYGROUND OF DEAD CHILDREN.

Soft moss grew here for tender stumbling feet.
Low seats upon smooth rocks they found, apple seeds
And aromatic leaves for seats.
Gay beads
They hunted hid in fragrant pods, and sweet,
Tart berries far in witches' wild retreat
Brisk squirrels dropt them nuts,
and water weeds
Piped gladly when they danced upon the meads.
Birds brought them tidings,
Brooks conveyed their feet.

'Twas always summer, and the days were bright
With brightness lost from homes bereft and dark.
All seemed abundant, glad, save when at night
They went for arms but dimly missed by day.
Then slinging angels held them till the lark
Bid all the God's cherished children wake and play.
—Gertrude H. McGiffert.

ASK YOUR GROCER Why He Sells So Much DRIFTED SNOW FLOUR

He will tell you it's because Drifted Snow Flour never fails to give absolute satisfaction. Good cooks make better bread, biscuits, pies and cakes when they use Drifted Snow Flour. Lighter, whiter and more wholesome.

Just for proof, order Drifted Snow next time—if you are not convinced of its goodness, don't keep it. Your grocer will buy it back, and what you've used won't cost you a cent.

Why can we afford to make such a money-back guarantee? Because there is "satisfaction in every sack."

All grocers sell Drifted Snow Flour.
