

The Most Loved of All Presents

The glowing Ruby should adorn Those who in warm July are born...

Your Birthstone the Beautiful Ruby

IF YOUR BIRTHDAY falls this month the Ruby, one of the most beautiful of all gems, is your lucky stone.

PRICES TO SUIT ALL Watch our window for display of RUBY RINGS.

BURMEISTER & ANDRESEN Oregon City Jewelers

CITY NEWS.

Miss Hazel Cole has accepted the position as stenographer in the law office of Hicks & Brownell.

Mrs. G. G. White and two children of Mt. Angel, Oregon, are in this city visiting the former's mother, Mrs. F. Pursiful of this city.

Miss Ethel Pursiful, who has been teaching the Glad Tidings school, has returned to Oregon City, to spend her vacation with her mother, Mrs. F. Pursiful.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Darringer and little son of Portland, passed through Oregon City Monday on their way to Union Hall where they will visit with relatives.

Perry O. Stacy of Canby, was in Oregon City on business Monday. Mr. Stacy is a prominent real estate man of that city, being connected with the Canby Real Estate Company.

Mrs. Richard Glasspool and daughter Miss Alice Glasspool of Portland, who have been in the city the guests of Mrs. Julia Haskell, have returned to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Shively and daughter Elizabeth, accompanied by Mrs. S. Moxilton of Portland, passed through Oregon City in their automobile Sunday on their way to Willott Springs.

Mrs. Fred A. Spangler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Castro, Mrs. Dennis Driscoll and two children, Miss Ethel and Clyde, of Canby, were among the people attending Chautauqua Saturday.

H. H. Bowers the well-known representative of the Wiley B. Allen Co. of Portland, who formerly had headquarters in this city, has returned to Oregon City, where he will remain for several weeks in the interest of the Company.

Miss Mildred Kruse, instructor in the School for Blind at Salem, but who is in charge of the public playground during the summer at that place, spent Saturday and Sunday in this city, visiting her mother, Mrs. Anna Kruse of Eleventh and Center Street.

Mrs. Mary Freeman, who has resided in Canemah for many years, has gone to Camas, Wash., where she will make her future home. Her son is employed at the paper mills at that place. Mrs. Freeman has been the guest of Mrs. George Reddaway and other friends for several days.

Mrs. H. A. Berkman and little daughter of Portland, spent Monday as the guest of Mrs. C. O. T. Williams and Mrs. C. G. Miller at Gladstone, where Mrs. Berkman was formerly Miss Veda Williams of Oregon City, Miss Marian Lawrence of Portland, is also a guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Williams.

For sale—7-room bungalow, living-room, dining-room, bath-room, kitchen, 3 bed-rooms, sleeping porch, electric lights, pipes spring water, barn, chicken houses, garden, large lawn, on car line between Oregon City and Portland. Third house south from Risley Station. Phone. Oak Grove, Black 145.

THE HUB

Each month our business increases, and there is a reason—Come here for your GROCERIES and you will learn the reason.

If you can't come, send the children—They will be treated with the same courtesy as yourself, and are always welcome.

When ordering don't forget to include a pound of HUB SPECIAL COFFEE. It's better than other coffee at a higher price.

THE HUB GROCERY Seventh and Center Sts.

W. A. Beck of Molalla was in Oregon City Friday.

Floyd Kirchem of Logan, was an Oregon City visitor Thursday.

Peter Wilson has returned to California after a short visit here.

William Herman of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City Wednesday.

Mrs. Albert Schoenborn of Eldorado was in Oregon City, Friday.

Miss Rose Mulvany of Meadowbrook, was in Oregon City Friday.

O. Myers of Salem, was registered at the Electric on Thursday and Friday.

Otis Johnson of Sheridan, was transacting business in Oregon City on Thursday.

Nathan and Carl Cassidy of Canby, made a business trip to Oregon City Thursday.

S. F. Shay of Sherwood, was among those transacting business in Oregon City Thursday.

M. Trullinger of Molalla, was in Oregon City on business on Thursday and Friday.

Joel Jarl, a well known resident of Boring, was among the Oregon City visitors Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schuebel of Shubel, were visiting relatives in Oregon City Thursday.

Miss Leila Hiatt, who has been visiting friends in Portland, has returned to her home at Mt. Pleasant.

Mrs. William Andersen and children have gone to Newport to spend the summer at the Andersen cottage.

Charles Spence, a prominent farmer of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Lyman Shorey, of Woodburn, is in this city the guest of Miss Sedonia Shaw and Miss Vada Elliott.

Grandma Bly of Canby, accompanied by Mrs. Elmer Bly and the latter's son Lee—were Oregon City visitors Friday.

Doris Meldrum, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Meldrum, is mending rapidly from her recent serious illness.

Mrs. Robert Schoenborn of Eldorado, was the guest of her mother-in-law, Mrs. August Schoenborn of this city, Friday.

WANTED—position as cracker for auto. Applicant is experienced and knows the late twists. Enquire at Courier office.

Mrs. F. H. Gooding of Portland, who has been the guest of Mrs. Frank Moore of Green Point, has returned to her home.

Malcolm Telford of this city, has gone to Bridal Veil, Wash., where he has accepted a position with the Bridal Veil Lumber Co.

Freb Schaffer, the sawmill man of Molalla, was transacting business in Oregon City Thursday, returning to Molalla Friday morning.

George Holman of Beaver Creek, passed through Oregon City Thursday to attend the Chautauqua, returning to his home Thursday evening.

Fred Legler, who has been enjoying a two weeks vacation at Welch's Summer resort and at Mt. Hood, returned to Oregon City Friday evening.

Miss Stella Criswell, a well known Clackamas County school teacher, has arrived in Oregon City and is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. S. M. Ramsby.

Gertrude Neffger, who has been teaching in Portland during the past year, has returned to Oregon City to spend her vacation at her home. Miss Neffger expects to visit her brother in Seattle during the summer.

Miss Bess Reynolds, who underwent a surgical operation on the throat for the removal of tonsils, has resumed her position as bookkeeper for the Miller-Parker Company.

Mrs. George Brown has gone to Gold Beach, Southern Oregon, where she will join her husband, who left several weeks ago. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will remain in Southern Oregon during the summer.

Among those camping at Chautauqua are Mr. and Mrs. William Mulvey, Mr. and Mrs. C. Schuebel, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dye, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leon DesLarzes, and Mrs. C. O. T. Williams.

G. W. Killen, one of the prominent residents of Woodburn, was transacting business in Oregon City one day the latter part of last week. Mr. Killen is an Indian war veteran and has some thrilling experiences with the red skins during active service.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Ware, formerly of this place, but now of Albion, Washington, are in this city where they were called by the serious illness of the former's father. They are visiting also with Mrs. Ware's mother, Mrs. S. Surfus.

Miss Blodwyn Rhomas of Beaver Creek, one of the popular young women of that place, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday and Thursday, visiting her sister, Mrs. Blount, and also attending the Chautauqua.

Henry May, formerly of this place but now of Baker, Oregon, is in this city visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willey May of Mountain View Addition. Mr. May since leaving here has become interested in one of the best mines at Baker.

Miss Carrie Gundloch, of St. Paul, Minn., who has been visiting in this city as the guest of Miss Alma Moore, has gone to Bremerton, Wash., where she will visit her brother until September when she will return to St. Paul. Miss Gundloch is one of St. Paul's prominent teachers.

Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Smith and family have moved into their pretty new bungalow on Jackson street between Sixth and Seventh streets. Mr. Smith recently bought the property and assisted in building his new home. The residence is of five rooms and modern throughout.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant White, the former a well known business man of Canby, were in the city Thursday last and from here attended Chautauqua. FOR SALE—cheap and on easy terms, 6 room cottage, 3 bed rooms, dining room, kitchen, sitting room, pantry, bath, electric lights, telephone city water, one-half acre of ground; at Meldrum station. Enquire of Wm. Gardner, Oregon City.

Mrs. Maggie Cross of this city, has received word from her mother, Mrs. William Etters, who accompanied her husband to Gettysburg several weeks ago, stating that Mr. Etters is seriously ill, and has been removed to Baltimore where he will remain until he is able to be brought to his home in this city. Mr. Etters is one of the old soldiers who fought in the battle of Gettysburg, and one who was recently honored by a trip to the old battle ground. His illness is due to the being overcome by the intense heat prevailing in the East.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Latourette and Mrs. M. L. Driggs left on Saturday from a trip to Alaska.

Attorney A. S. Dresser of Portland, formerly of Oregon City, was transacting legal business in Oregon City Friday.

Mrs. Ott, who has been undergoing medical treatment at the hospital in this city, has improved so that she is able to be removed to her home.

Mrs. Ethel Johnson of Chico, California, formerly Miss Ethel Jefferson of this city, arrived in Oregon City on Sunday and is the guest of Miss Amy Toban and other friends.

Mrs. Arthur Milln, who recently underwent an operation at the St. Vincent Hospital, is improved so that she is able to be brought to her home in this city on Main and Ninth Sts.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Blanchard and daughter, Miss Elva, who have been for the past three months camping near Mt. Pleasant, where Mr. Blanchard has been engaged in building, returned to Oregon City Saturday.

Mrs. Lena Charman and daughter, Miss June, left on Saturday for their trip to Alaska. They will spend several weeks or perhaps a month visiting many interesting parts of Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Kelly, who have been spending a few days at their farm near Canby returned to Oregon City Tuesday. They will soon return to that place, where Mr. Kelly will spend his vacation.

Professor Ralph D. Hetzel, who is at the head of the Extension division of the Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis, was in Oregon City a few days ago promoting the extension work of that institution.

Mr. and Mrs. Winnie Boylan and family, who have been in this city visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Boylan and sister, Mrs. Annie R. Williams, have returned to their home at Cathlamet, Wash.

Mrs. Frank Schoenborn was the recipient of a pleasant surprise at her home on Eighth and Madison Streets, on Wednesday afternoon, when a few of her friends called in a body, spending the afternoon in a most delightful manner. Refreshments were served during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Peterson and daughter Miss Goldie Peterson of Forest Grove, passed through Oregon City Sunday. They were accompanied to that summer resort by Miss Lois Courtney and Miss Genevieve Courtney.

Miss Libker of Goldendale, Washington, arrived in Oregon City Sunday evening, accompanied by Frederick Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Porter, who has been visiting her. The little fellow has been very ill suffering from measles, and as soon as he was able to travel he was brought to his home in this city. He is now rapidly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bollinger, of this city, accompanied by the former's sisters, Misses Helen and Alice Bollinger, of Portland, who have been camped on the banks of the Willamette at the mouth of the Yamhill River, returned to Oregon City by Mr. Bollinger's motor boat on Saturday. A most delightful time was had by the party.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Daulton, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Latourette and son Edward, Mrs. J. N. Wisner and son Nelson, Miss Helen Daulton, Miss Cis Pratt, Miss Bess Daulton of this city, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cheney and son Oren of Portland, Miss Polly Bronough and Earl Bronough, of Jennings Lodge, formerly of an automobile party that went to St. Helens Sunday. A most enjoyable time was spent.

Miss Lilli Schmidt, of West Oregon City, and one of the well known teachers of Clackamas county, has been elected to teach in the Portland schools, commencing her duties in September. Among the other teachers of Oregon City who have been re-elected to positions in the Portland schools are Miss May Kelly, Miss Fannie G. Porter, Miss Kate Porter, Miss Emily O'Malley, Miss Gertrude Neffger, Miss Margaret Williams, Miss Roma Stafford, Miss Maude Cooke and Miss Maude Matt ley.

Albert Frederick, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Friedrich of Ninth and Monroe Street, who was among the militiamen who left this city for Tillamook for their annual outing, has been very ill at his home suffering from tonsillitis. Mr. Frederick was brought home with the rest of the company, and was in a critical condition when camp broke. He underwent a surgical operation immediately upon his arrival in Oregon City and taken to his home.

Miss Frieda Goldsmith of Eugene, who has been in Oregon City visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. A. Goldsmith, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Goldsmith of Eugene, has just returned from Wellesly College, Boston, Mass., where she took a post course and has accepted the position as instructor in the University of Oregon the coming fall term. Miss Goldsmith is a bright and talented young woman, being a graduate of the University of Oregon. She is one of the most popular young women of Eugene.

NO DIFFERENCE The Proof Is Here the Same as Every where

For those who seek relief from kidney backache, weak kidneys, bladder ills, Doan's Kidney Pills offer hope of relief and the proof is here in Oregon City the same as everywhere. Oregon City people have used Doan's and Oregon City people recommend Doan's, the kidney remedy used in America for fifty years. Why suffer? Why run the risk of dangerous kidney ills—fatal brights disease. Here's Oregon City proof. Investigate it.

Edwin Albee, Washington and 17th Streets, Oregon City, Oregon says: "For five or six years I suffered with kidney trouble. There was pain in the small of my back and twinges from stooping or lifting. I tired easily. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and I had to get up two or three times during the night. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they helped me greatly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

When baby suffers with croup, apply and give Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil at once. Safe for children. A little goes a long way. 25c and 50c. At all drug stores.

Former Well Known Resident Mrs. Walter Wentworth, who has been at Starbuck, Wash. for the past month where she was called by the illness of her brother-in-law, B. W. Myers, has returned to her home in this city.

Mr. Meyers, who was a prominent miller at the time of his death, which occurred June 17, was well known here where he had visited on many occasions with his family. He was for many years connected with the Portland Flouring Mills Company until he entered business for himself. He was considered one of the most efficient millers on the coast.

The funeral services were conducted at Starbuck and the remains shipped to Dayton, Washington, where they were interred in the family lot.

Deceased was 59 years old at the time of his death. He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Ann Marshall of Canemah, and also by three children.

News of An Old Resident Captain John W. Kelly, of the West Side, a few days ago received word from John Daugherty, a resident of Oregon City for many years, who is now at the Soldier's Home at Los Angeles, California. Mr. Daugherty is enjoying the best of health, and states that he is still able to handle the drum sticks as he did during the Indian war, when he was stationed at what is now Vancouver Barracks. Captain Kelly and John Daugherty enlisted at the same time as drummer boys in the 50th, Captain Kelly being a member of Company F, Fourth Infantry, and John Daugherty of Company H, Fourth Infantry. The former enlisted at Fort Humbolt, California. These men were considered among the best drummers for their age on the coast, Daugherty being a "fancy drummer." He is now 77 years of age, and he stated in his letter that there were but few living in his company that took part in battle.

Captain Kelly is one of the well known residents of this city. He is known by young and old, and ever has a word of cheer for all 36 years he was engaged in steamboating. He enjoys taking tarts in G. A. S. It's a mighty puzzle, the enigma of the ages. In the world's field there's forever a mixture of wheat and tares. They grow in the same soil. There's a rift in the lute, a discord in the music. The heart is a Noah's ark with creatures clean and unclean—Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, the demon and the angel forever at war on our soul's battlefield. The gold lies not in masses, but in sand or quartz.

While Men Slept. Yet the kingdom is positive as well as negative, invisible as well as visible. When tadpole turns to frog the skeptic says it is a miracle of nature. When grass turns Samuel Hadley from sinner to saint he calls it "psychical phenomena." The color of the diamond changes with the angle of vision. But we often need the taunt of the Philistine. The kingdom of God ought to be as much concerned with Tenderloin tenements as heavenly mansions, with crying children as with choir surplices. Wake up, slumbering church! There's something characteristically devilish in the expression, "while men slept." The good sower goes out in the gray of the morning; the evil one waits till the sun sets. The church rests; this malignant spirit tires not. While the church menders orer mode of baptism, style of confession, order of succession and denominational standing, this modern sower of tares is starting "furnished rooms" in the red light district, non-

Two Sowers—Two Crops. The problem of evil in the world. Nightshade, thistles, poison ivy, are among the flowers. Back in Eden the good sower began to scatter his seed. "Sons of the kingdom" were the plants. Then came the evil one, the ape of God. By stealth he enters the garden and sows tares. Hate, violence and malevolence spring up in his path. If there be no personal devil this parable is meaningless and the Nazarene is simply perpetuating a bugaboo. If there be no devil does God do evil? Evil and devil, good and evil, are strangely similar. How account for centuries of poverty and pain, cruelty and crime, sorrow and grief. It's a mighty puzzle, the enigma of the ages. In the world's field there's forever a mixture of wheat and tares. They grow in the same soil. There's a rift in the lute, a discord in the music. The heart is a Noah's ark with creatures clean and unclean—Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, the demon and the angel forever at war on our soul's battlefield. The gold lies not in masses, but in sand or quartz.

While Men Slept. Yet the kingdom is positive as well as negative, invisible as well as visible. When tadpole turns to frog the skeptic says it is a miracle of nature. When grass turns Samuel Hadley from sinner to saint he calls it "psychical phenomena." The color of the diamond changes with the angle of vision. But we often need the taunt of the Philistine. The kingdom of God ought to be as much concerned with Tenderloin tenements as heavenly mansions, with crying children as with choir surplices. Wake up, slumbering church! There's something characteristically devilish in the expression, "while men slept." The good sower goes out in the gray of the morning; the evil one waits till the sun sets. The church rests; this malignant spirit tires not. While the church menders orer mode of baptism, style of confession, order of succession and denominational standing, this modern sower of tares is starting "furnished rooms" in the red light district, non-

SATURDAY NIGHT SERMONS BY REV. SAMUEL W. PURVIS, D.D.

A STUDY IN MALICE. Text, "An enemy hath done this."—Matt. XIII, 28.

Possibly yesterday the Master met Jareze-Jahas by the roadside, frantic with anger and grief. He tears his garment as he looks over his wheat-field, thickly grown with tares. It was a diabolical act. Malice and sturdily cowardice could do no more. "From whence hath thy field these tares?" "An enemy hath done this," answers the broken hearted husbandman. "While men slept my enemy came and sowed the tares and went his way. May his days be shortened!" "Ah, Jareze," consoles the Master, "the ears which God hath best bow their heads, but the devil's darnel stands brazenly, proud as Lucifer. How bold is guilt! Let be till harvest—then separation." Today by the seashore Jesus tells the story of the tares in a parable.

Two Sowers—Two Crops. The problem of evil in the world. Nightshade, thistles, poison ivy, are among the flowers. Back in Eden the good sower began to scatter his seed. "Sons of the kingdom" were the plants. Then came the evil one, the ape of God. By stealth he enters the garden and sows tares. Hate, violence and malevolence spring up in his path. If there be no personal devil this parable is meaningless and the Nazarene is simply perpetuating a bugaboo. If there be no devil does God do evil? Evil and devil, good and evil, are strangely similar. How account for centuries of poverty and pain, cruelty and crime, sorrow and grief. It's a mighty puzzle, the enigma of the ages. In the world's field there's forever a mixture of wheat and tares. They grow in the same soil. There's a rift in the lute, a discord in the music. The heart is a Noah's ark with creatures clean and unclean—Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, the demon and the angel forever at war on our soul's battlefield. The gold lies not in masses, but in sand or quartz.

While Men Slept. Yet the kingdom is positive as well as negative, invisible as well as visible. When tadpole turns to frog the skeptic says it is a miracle of nature. When grass turns Samuel Hadley from sinner to saint he calls it "psychical phenomena." The color of the diamond changes with the angle of vision. But we often need the taunt of the Philistine. The kingdom of God ought to be as much concerned with Tenderloin tenements as heavenly mansions, with crying children as with choir surplices. Wake up, slumbering church! There's something characteristically devilish in the expression, "while men slept." The good sower goes out in the gray of the morning; the evil one waits till the sun sets. The church rests; this malignant spirit tires not. While the church menders orer mode of baptism, style of confession, order of succession and denominational standing, this modern sower of tares is starting "furnished rooms" in the red light district, non-

While Men Slept. Yet the kingdom is positive as well as negative, invisible as well as visible. When tadpole turns to frog the skeptic says it is a miracle of nature. When grass turns Samuel Hadley from sinner to saint he calls it "psychical phenomena." The color of the diamond changes with the angle of vision. But we often need the taunt of the Philistine. The kingdom of God ought to be as much concerned with Tenderloin tenements as heavenly mansions, with crying children as with choir surplices. Wake up, slumbering church! There's something characteristically devilish in the expression, "while men slept." The good sower goes out in the gray of the morning; the evil one waits till the sun sets. The church rests; this malignant spirit tires not. While the church menders orer mode of baptism, style of confession, order of succession and denominational standing, this modern sower of tares is starting "furnished rooms" in the red light district, non-

While Men Slept. Yet the kingdom is positive as well as negative, invisible as well as visible. When tadpole turns to frog the skeptic says it is a miracle of nature. When grass turns Samuel Hadley from sinner to saint he calls it "psychical phenomena." The color of the diamond changes with the angle of vision. But we often need the taunt of the Philistine. The kingdom of God ought to be as much concerned with Tenderloin tenements as heavenly mansions, with crying children as with choir surplices. Wake up, slumbering church! There's something characteristically devilish in the expression, "while men slept." The good sower goes out in the gray of the morning; the evil one waits till the sun sets. The church rests; this malignant spirit tires not. While the church menders orer mode of baptism, style of confession, order of succession and denominational standing, this modern sower of tares is starting "furnished rooms" in the red light district, non-

While Men Slept. Yet the kingdom is positive as well as negative, invisible as well as visible. When tadpole turns to frog the skeptic says it is a miracle of nature. When grass turns Samuel Hadley from sinner to saint he calls it "psychical phenomena." The color of the diamond changes with the angle of vision. But we often need the taunt of the Philistine. The kingdom of God ought to be as much concerned with Tenderloin tenements as heavenly mansions, with crying children as with choir surplices. Wake up, slumbering church! There's something characteristically devilish in the expression, "while men slept." The good sower goes out in the gray of the morning; the evil one waits till the sun sets. The church rests; this malignant spirit tires not. While the church menders orer mode of baptism, style of confession, order of succession and denominational standing, this modern sower of tares is starting "furnished rooms" in the red light district, non-

While Men Slept. Yet the kingdom is positive as well as negative, invisible as well as visible. When tadpole turns to frog the skeptic says it is a miracle of nature. When grass turns Samuel Hadley from sinner to saint he calls it "psychical phenomena." The color of the diamond changes with the angle of vision. But we often need the taunt of the Philistine. The kingdom of God ought to be as much concerned with Tenderloin tenements as heavenly mansions, with crying children as with choir surplices. Wake up, slumbering church! There's something characteristically devilish in the expression, "while men slept." The good sower goes out in the gray of the morning; the evil one waits till the sun sets. The church rests; this malignant spirit tires not. While the church menders orer mode of baptism, style of confession, order of succession and denominational standing, this modern sower of tares is starting "furnished rooms" in the red light district, non-

While Men Slept. Yet the kingdom is positive as well as negative, invisible as well as visible. When tadpole turns to frog the skeptic says it is a miracle of nature. When grass turns Samuel Hadley from sinner to saint he calls it "psychical phenomena." The color of the diamond changes with the angle of vision. But we often need the taunt of the Philistine. The kingdom of God ought to be as much concerned with Tenderloin tenements as heavenly mansions, with crying children as with choir surplices. Wake up, slumbering church! There's something characteristically devilish in the expression, "while men slept." The good sower goes out in the gray of the morning; the evil one waits till the sun sets. The church rests; this malignant spirit tires not. While the church menders orer mode of baptism, style of confession, order of succession and denominational standing, this modern sower of tares is starting "furnished rooms" in the red light district, non-

While Men Slept. Yet the kingdom is positive as well as negative, invisible as well as visible. When tadpole turns to frog the skeptic says it is a miracle of nature. When grass turns Samuel Hadley from sinner to saint he calls it "psychical phenomena." The color of the diamond changes with the angle of vision. But we often need the taunt of the Philistine. The kingdom of God ought to be as much concerned with Tenderloin tenements as heavenly mansions, with crying children as with choir surplices. Wake up, slumbering church! There's something characteristically devilish in the expression, "while men slept." The good sower goes out in the gray of the morning; the evil one waits till the sun sets. The church rests; this malignant spirit tires not. While the church menders orer mode of baptism, style of confession, order of succession and denominational standing, this modern sower of tares is starting "furnished rooms" in the red light district, non-

While Men Slept. Yet the kingdom is positive as well as negative, invisible as well as visible. When tadpole turns to frog the skeptic says it is a miracle of nature. When grass turns Samuel Hadley from sinner to saint he calls it "psychical phenomena." The color of the diamond changes with the angle of vision. But we often need the taunt of the Philistine. The kingdom of God ought to be as much concerned with Tenderloin tenements as heavenly mansions, with crying children as with choir surplices. Wake up, slumbering church! There's something characteristically devilish in the expression, "while men slept." The good sower goes out in the gray of the morning; the evil one waits till the sun sets. The church rests; this malignant spirit tires not. While the church menders orer mode of baptism, style of confession, order of succession and denominational standing, this modern sower of tares is starting "furnished rooms" in the red light district, non-

While Men Slept. Yet the kingdom is positive as well as negative, invisible as well as visible. When tadpole turns to frog the skeptic says it is a miracle of nature. When grass turns Samuel Hadley from sinner to saint he calls it "psychical phenomena." The color of the diamond changes with the angle of vision. But we often need the taunt of the Philistine. The kingdom of God ought to be as much concerned with Tenderloin tenements as heavenly mansions, with crying children as with choir surplices. Wake up, slumbering church! There's something characteristically devilish in the expression, "while men slept." The good sower goes out in the gray of the morning; the evil one waits till the sun sets. The church rests; this malignant spirit tires not. While the church menders orer mode of baptism, style of confession, order of succession and denominational standing, this modern sower of tares is starting "furnished rooms" in the red light district, non-

While Men Slept. Yet the kingdom is positive as well as negative, invisible as well as visible. When tadpole turns to frog the skeptic says it is a miracle of nature. When grass turns Samuel Hadley from sinner to saint he calls it "psychical phenomena." The color of the diamond changes with the angle of vision. But we often need the taunt of the Philistine. The kingdom of God ought to be as much concerned with Tenderloin tenements as heavenly mansions, with crying children as with choir surplices. Wake up, slumbering church! There's something characteristically devilish in the expression, "while men slept." The good sower goes out in the gray of the morning; the evil one waits till the sun sets. The church rests; this malignant spirit tires not. While the church menders orer mode of baptism, style of confession, order of succession and denominational standing, this modern sower of tares is starting "furnished rooms" in the red light district, non-

While Men Slept. Yet the kingdom is positive as well as negative, invisible as well as visible. When tadpole turns to frog the skeptic says it is a miracle of nature. When grass turns Samuel Hadley from sinner to saint he calls it "psychical phenomena." The color of the diamond changes with the angle of vision. But we often need the taunt of the Philistine. The kingdom of God ought to be as much concerned with Tenderloin tenements as heavenly mansions, with crying children as with choir surplices. Wake up, slumbering church! There's something characteristically devilish in the expression, "while men slept." The good sower goes out in the gray of the morning; the evil one waits till the sun sets. The church rests; this malignant spirit tires not. While the church menders orer mode of baptism, style of confession, order of succession and denominational standing, this modern sower of tares is starting "furnished rooms" in the red light district, non-

While Men Slept. Yet the kingdom is positive as well as negative, invisible as well as visible. When tadpole turns to frog the skeptic says it is a miracle of nature. When grass turns Samuel Hadley from sinner to saint he calls it "psychical phenomena." The color of the diamond changes with the angle of vision. But we often need the taunt of the Philistine. The kingdom of God ought to be as much concerned with Tenderloin tenements as heavenly mansions, with crying children as with choir surplices. Wake up, slumbering church! There's something characteristically devilish in the expression, "while men slept." The good sower goes out in the gray of the morning; the evil one waits till the sun sets. The church rests; this malignant spirit tires not. While the church menders orer mode of baptism, style of confession, order of succession and denominational standing, this modern sower of tares is starting "furnished rooms" in the red light district, non-

While Men Slept. Yet the kingdom is positive as well as negative, invisible as well as visible. When tadpole turns to frog the skeptic says it is a miracle of nature. When grass turns Samuel Hadley from sinner to saint he calls it "psychical phenomena." The color of the diamond changes with the angle of vision. But we often need the taunt of the Philistine. The kingdom of God ought to be as much concerned with Tenderloin tenements as heavenly mansions, with crying children as with choir surplices. Wake up, slumbering church! There's something characteristically devilish in the expression, "while men slept." The good sower goes out in the gray of the morning; the evil one waits till the sun sets. The church rests; this malignant spirit tires not. While the church menders orer mode of baptism, style of confession, order of succession and denominational standing, this modern sower of tares is starting "furnished rooms" in the red light district, non-

While Men Slept. Yet the kingdom is positive as well as negative, invisible as well as visible. When tadpole turns to frog the skeptic says it is a miracle of nature. When grass turns Samuel Hadley from sinner to saint he calls it "psychical phenomena." The color of the diamond changes with the angle of vision. But we often need the taunt of the Philistine. The kingdom of God ought to be as much concerned with Tenderloin tenements as heavenly mansions, with crying children as with choir surplices. Wake up, slumbering church! There's something characteristically devilish in the expression, "while men slept." The good sower goes out in the gray of the morning; the evil one waits till the sun sets. The church rests; this malignant spirit tires not. While the church menders orer mode of baptism, style of confession, order of succession and denominational standing, this modern sower of tares is starting "furnished rooms" in the red light district, non-

While Men Slept. Yet the kingdom is positive as well as negative, invisible as well as visible. When tadpole turns to frog the skeptic says it is a miracle of nature. When grass turns Samuel Hadley from sinner to saint he calls it "psychical phenomena." The color of the diamond changes with the angle of vision. But we often need the taunt of the Philistine. The kingdom of God ought to be as much concerned with Tenderloin tenements as heavenly mansions, with crying children as with choir surplices. Wake up, slumbering church! There's something characteristically devilish in the expression, "while men slept." The good sower goes out in the gray of the morning; the evil one waits till the sun sets. The church rests; this malignant spirit tires not. While the church menders orer mode of baptism, style of confession, order of succession and denominational standing, this modern sower of tares is starting "furnished rooms" in the red light district, non-

While Men Slept. Yet the kingdom is positive as well as negative, invisible as well as visible. When tadpole turns to frog the skeptic says it is a miracle of nature.