

Everybody Get Subscriptions

Written to Be Read By Every Subscriber

DOES the Courier meet with your demand? Does the merit of its news-worth measure up to the standard you have set?

A Special Appeal to Courier Friends

We feel that it does or you would not be one of our patrons year after year. The Courier is fighting a battle of principal and needed reform. Where do you stand on the question now at stake? If you are an enlisted soldier in the cause then you are ready to fight and help.

Whether the rural people of Clackamas County will receive a just return from the capital they have invested, and the amount of energy expended in daily toil—that is the question. There is a curable reason why the farmer does not get as high a price for his salable produce as he should. There is a curable reason why the farmer is not organized, as other great fields of labor, to protect his interests and home. The Courier stands to herald and protect just such rights politically, socially and economically. If you are a believer in the cause, see that your neighbor gets the Courier.

We feel that it does or you would not be one of our patrons year after year. The Courier is fighting a battle of principal and needed reform. Where do you stand on the question now at stake? If you are an enlisted soldier in the cause then you are ready to fight and help.

THE Courier is now carrying on a great subscription campaign. It is a call for 1000 new subscribers. Are you ready to do your part? It won't be a great task but you can help by securing at least one new subscription to the Courier within the next 24 hours. Do it now, and enable the Courier to carry its war cry into hundreds of new homes. This is the one big way you can help along the cause. Do it now—get one subscription and turn it into the Courier office at once. You will help the Courier; you will help your favorite contestant to win a trip to the World's Fair or get some other prize, and you will serve your county, your state and your country as well.

This Is the Point We Are Getting At

The least you can do, if you are interested, is to pay up your own subscription from three to five years. Look the list of contestants over and pick out the winner and help. Now is when your help will be needed because the first trip will most likely be given this week.
