Train Holdup in Portland
Almost in the heart of Portland three men held up the Spokane limited on the O. W. R. N. Tuesday night and robbed the passengers of $600 in cash and jewelry.

Must Get Final Papers
After September 29, the government officials will contest every application for final papers that does not date since 1906. C. T. Taylor, one of the naturalization officers, was in the city Tuesday and notified the county clerk that all of the first papers that bear dates prior to 1906 will be contested unless the applicants take out their final papers before September 29.

Equity Warehouse Notes
The business of the "Equity Warehouse Co.," of Portland is increasing everyday. Members of "Equity" who are selling their produce through the Warehouse in Portland are well satisfied. Why should a farmer spend the entire day in Portland peddling a load of potatoes, when he can sell the same through the "Equity Warehouse Co.," for 25 per cent to 100 per cent more?—And it is being done everyday.

Mrs. M. F. DesLarzes returned to Coitage Grove Tuesday after an extended visit with friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. C. W. Smith and daughters, who have been visiting in Victoria, B. C., for the past week, will return to their home at Gladstone this week.

Born, Aug. 6, to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stewart of Gladstone, an eight and one-half pound boy.

Miss Vera Hill, of The Dalles, but formerly of this city, was the guest of the Misses Pratt recently.

Rev. C. A. Smith will preach at the Baptist Church, Oregon City, Sunday morning. Sunday afternoon he will preach at East Clackamas, and Sunday evening at Logan, Oregon.

Of Interest to Equity
Members of the Farmers' Society of Equity will do well to find out what spuds are worth in Portland before they sell to others at two-thirds the wholesale price. This was also done this week.

The "Equity Warehouse Co.," will endeavor to keep the Secretaries posted on what products are in good demand in the markets.

A circular on the proper grading of potatoes is being prepared, and will be in the hands of the local secretaries for distribution soon.

EAST EAGLE CREEK
Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglass and Mrs. Walter Douglass made a business trip to Estacada last Friday afternoon.

Guy Woodie is building a new porch and belfry on the Douglass School-house.

The threshing crew was at Ed Douglass' place last Wednesday.

Few attended the Grange Saturday, but those present had a very pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass were in Logan Sunday.

Miss Annie Greenwell spent one day last week at her home in Lents.

Mrs. Mary Charman, who has been on the sick list for several weeks, is improving.

Attorney John Loder and family have returned from a two week's sojourn at Newport.

Mrs. Hugh Hendry is seriously ill at St. Vincent's Hospital in Portland. She returned to this city from the beach last week in poor health and her condition grew worse, and upon the physician's advice, she was taken to the hospital Sunday.

TWILIGHT
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Marsh of Grants Pass were callers at Totem Pole ranch last Wednesday.

Mr. Adolph Speiss of Clackamas has been engaged to teach our school the coming year.

Several parties have been looking over the old Fancher place the past ten days with a view to purchase.

G. M. Lazelle is re-constructing his large cattle shed, which collapsed during the silver thaw last winter.

Why is it country people give so little attention to home surroundings, when but the expenditure of a little effort adds so much to the pleasures of life?

It is said that Wallace McCord is doing unusually well in the ice cream business recently opened up in Oregon City.

How it grates on the nerves when the groceryman replies, "twenty-five cents in trade," to the inquiry how much are eggs? Why should two values be placed on a farmer's produce, compelling him to swap with them to realize the top price? How do they expect we tillers of the soil to gain access to a picture show, or enjoy a lemonade at a country picnic, trade eggs for 'em?

To be located on the wrong side of a country road in Oregon during the dry season augurs a surplus of grit.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bentley Sunday. Another case of two pair beating three of a kind.

A one-eyed man with a small team of mules and an ardent supporter of Ex-Judge Beattie transported a wagon load of ladies to the polls at Canemah at the late election. All of them voted for Anderson and walked home.

Miss Marie Harvey will return to her home from Seattle about Sept. 1st to remain during the fall and winter.

The late rains have given an added impetus to late planted potatoes and all green feed, such as kale, ruta bagas and turnips.

Mr. G. M. Lazelle's man of all-work left him Sunday, leaving an opening for a new man. I note in Monday's Oregonian that Ex-Judge Beattie's future is unprovided for, and suggest he submit an application for the position. No references required.

Our hat is off to M. J. Brown for late services rendered, and assure him of the peoples' appreciation.
