ficials will take part in the celebrat-ion and will be on the first train that rolls in Molalia on the morning of the 19th. Many special features have been prepared for the day's celebration, and in the speaking line Oregon City's spell-binders will be well represented. The new line runs from Canby by way of Kraft to Liberal and thence to Moialla. From there it will run via Marquam to Silverton where it will again connect with the main line of the P. E. E. after running to Salem. Molalla then will become the shipping center of the vast territory surrounding, feeding by wagon route, Liberal, Colton, Union Mills, Meadowbrook, Monitor, Marquam, Wilhoit, and the Scotts Mills country.
