

Claims That Are Backed By Quality

The man who does the most talking doesn't necessarily have the most enthusiastic listeners. The business men who make the strongest claims are not necessarily the leaders in their line. We make strong claims but we back them up with the right kind of jewelry. It is easy to match our prices, but it's hard to match our quality.

Jewelry Gifts of Quality

Our stock of fine jewelry affords a wide choice for beautiful remembrances such as good taste dictates. Rare conceptions out of the common—designs from art workers in gold and silver who have left the impress of a skill that stands for real merit. Gifts of pearls, diamonds, sapphires, rubies, opals. Gifts to be put to practical use. Gifts for the home beautiful.

Glorious Gems

Full many a gem of purest ray serene may at our store be seen. If you wish Jewels that have sparkle and snap—Jewels that gladden the heart of every recipient—then see us. Whatever the purpose, bridal gift, engagement token or birthday presents, we have the gems at reasonable prices.

If you want the very best in jewelry see us. And a good time to drop in is

Sparkling Silverware

Sterling table silver and plated wares of the highest standard in the greatest variety are now on display here. Our silverware stands for all that's good in quality, all that is rich in design, all that can be desired by the discriminating buyer. And the prices have been squeezed down to the most modest pocket book.

Mrs. S. S. Walker returned to this city Saturday evening from the Clackamas County Fair grounds, where she was in charge of the Domestic Science department. Mrs. Walker was accompanied by her niece, Miss May Walker.

M. J. Lazelle, formerly publicity manager and secretary of the Oregon City Commercial Club, is critically ill at his parents' home at Twilight suffering from typhoid fever. Mr. Lazelle has been very ill for several weeks.

Mrs. William Burghardt, of Salem, who has been in this city visiting Mrs. M. Draper, returned to her home the first of the week. Mrs. Burghardt was on her way from Pendleton, Ore., where she has been visiting friends and visiting the Round-Up.

A. O. Hollingsworth, of Gladstone, secretary of the Clear Creek Creamery Co., who has been at the Clackamas County Fair grounds during the fair, where he has been in charge of the dairy test, returned to his home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes, of Logan, who have been at the Clackamas County Fair, where they have been showing some of their thoroughbred Guernseys, and where they have carried off the sweepstakes, have gone to Salem with their cattle, and no doubt will win prizes at the State fair. The Guernseys owned by Mr. and Mrs. Hughes are among the finest in the Northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Freytag have gone to Salem, where they will remain during the week, Mr. Freytag being superintendent of the pavilion. Mr. Freytag, who is secretary of the Oregon City Commercial Club, took with him a large amount of grains, grasses and various kinds of produce, which will be placed in the Clackamas County exhibit. It is Mr. Freytag and his assistants' plans to have Clackamas County win one of the big prizes.

Takes Prizes at Dahlia Show

Mrs. F. T. Barlow, who is one of the well known lovers of flowers of Oregon City, and whose garden at Gladstone speaks for itself of the selection and care in which Mrs. Barlow has given it, was awarded first and second prizes on her dahlias at the dahlia show held in Portland Saturday. On the varieties that the prizes were awarded were first on the D. M. Moore and second on the "Dreadnaught." The former is of unusual size and of a velvety purple, while the latter is of a lighter shade, but rich in color. Mrs. Barlow has over 50 varieties of dahlias at her home, one of which she prides herself on being of her own production. The seed of a flower was planted and a plant sprung from this whose blossom is much different than any of those in the Barlow garden. Mrs. Barlow had to contend with many hundreds of fine blossoms at the dahlia show in Portland, and those exhibited by her were among the finest.

H. H. Bower, who has been spending the past week at Canby, where he has been in charge of the Wiley B. Allen Music Company's booth at the Clackamas County Fair, returned to Oregon City on Sunday evening. It was at this booth where several musicals were given during the fair, and which attracted large crowds, when several of the prominent musicians of Canby favored the Fair visitors with musical selections under the supervision of Mrs. Calvert, a well known musical instructor formerly of New York, but now of Canby, who recently arrived in the West.

OSWEGO OREGON
A WOMAN'S WORK sometimes reduces her strength to the depths of weakness—her devotion to household cares prevents sufficient rest and recreation. Thousands of women in this condition find Scott's Emulsion exactly what they need; it is predigested body-food so medically perfected that every drop yields direct returns in strengthening the organs and tissues and in making healthy, life-sustaining blood. Scott's Emulsion is devoid of alcohol or any harmful drugs, and overcomes tiredness and nervousness in a marvelous way.

LOGAN

Fine rain on Sunday. Jack Frost injured some of the corn Tuesday night. Fred Rehloff lost a valuable cow, and another one is sick. Wonder what is the matter with them? W. P. Kirchem gave an option on 50 acres unimproved land to parties in Portland. Prices not divulged. The County Court convened Wednesday at regular session. Don't ask too much, boys; then the $100,000 hair-loom from the former county court is a heavy load to carry. County Judge H. S. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Hagemann, Frank Hutchins and family, Ralph Tracy and family and many others attended the fair at Canby. Timm Pahl, who attended the Round Up at Pendleton, has returned. He says that it was a sight the way some of the stunts were pulled off by men and women. How about the new railroad the Boosters' Club were going to build last year? Yes, it has adjourned "Sine Die" like the Oil Well, only not so costly. Jay Gould, the star witness for the prosecution in the W. E. Mumpower Report has it that he had a good sized wad in his pocket the day of his departure. Maybe he got a loan from some friend. In a Portland paper under date of Sept. 27, appears the following special from Oregon City: Calvin S. White, of the State Board of Health, found that H. S. Anderson, County Judge, is "set in his ways" after the doctor had an interview with the Judge and tried to get the court to remove J. A. Van Brakle, County Health Officer, on the ground that he is not a qualified physician of the county. The Judge declared that he made the judgment in good faith that it was accepted in the same spirit and that he would stick to it, regardless of the State Board or any other body of men, including the local medical society. He has made the same remarks to the members of the local medical society. Say, hasn't the Allopathic Doctor Trust got gall, in asking Judge Anderson to revoke the appointment of Dr. Van Brakle, our County Health Officer, when our statutes provide that for cause he can be removed except by the court? Did not the Doctor help to clean up Oregon City as a member of the Live Wires? And is he not attending to his duties today? Stick to your appointee, Judge, and if the Trust should get too fresh, take the matter into court as promised some time ago. The poor taxpayers will back you and the Gentlemen can have all the fight they want. Would it not be a good idea to regulate this—one of the worst combines in existence by having our constitution amended on the following points? 1st—To regulate their fees and charges; 2nd, compel them to write all prescriptions in plain English; 3rd, let every reputable person, who holds a diploma from any reputable school, whether it be an Allopath, Osteopath, Naturopath, Homopath or any other path, be allowed to practice provided, however that he or she be of good moral character; 4th, put a heavy penalty on all doctors who commit malpractice.

Mrs. Davies Dead.
Mrs. Maggie H. Davies, wife of David H. Davies, died at her residence in Oregon City, 801 Madison street, Sunday evening at 9 o'clock. She had been ill for the last year of cancer. She was born in New York City, April 30, 1846, and in 1863 went to Wisconsin, where she married D. H. Davies at Watoum in 1867. The family came to Oregon City to reside in September, 1911. Besides her husband, she leaves two daughters, Mrs. Marian Snover, of Salem, and Miss E. Ethel Davies, of Oregon City, and a sister, Mrs. E. B. Evans, of Wild Rose, Wis. The funeral will be held from the family residence Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, and the interment will be in Mountain View Cemetery.

Bids for Construction of a Bridge
Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received at the office of the County Clerk of Clackamas County, Oregon, up to five o'clock in the afternoon of October 9th, 1913, for the construction of a Howe Truss Bridge over Salmon River, on the Mt. Hood road in Clackamas County Oregon, according to the plans and specifications of said bridge now on file in the office of the said county clerk, except however, that the piers will be constructed by Clackamas County.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check to the amount of five per cent of the amount bid to insure entering into a contract by the successful bidder, which check shall be forfeited to Clackamas County, should said successful bidder fail or refuse to sign said contract within ten days after the award is made.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish a satisfactory undertaking as a guarantee for the completion of said bridge as provided for in the contract.

Clackamas County reserves the right to reject any or all bids.
