

It Will Rain To-morrow

So says the weather man and he generally knows
So be prepared—
Get under one of our umbrellas and you will keep dry.
You will find a good selection from which to choose, from a good serviceable one for $1 to the beautiful silk covered, gold handled kind.
A good umbrella makes a mighty nice birthday gift, too.
Don't put off buying another day.
Today is the time to prepare for a rainy day.

CITY NEWS.

Miss Nan Cochran..... Local Editor
WE WANT THE NEWS
When you have a little item, SEND IT IN.
There is no time like the present to begin;
We'll appreciate it too—
Just like we always do—
If you'll promptly send your little item in.
When you hear that something's happened MAIL IT IN—
It will only take two pennies worth of tin;
You'll feel better every day—
All along life's rugged way,
If you think about the printer, so begin.
If you know of any news note PHONE IT IN—
It will make us smile from forehead down to chin;
It will drive away the blues
When your neighbor reads the news,
So phone your local paper—phone it in.
When you hear of some occurrence STEEP RIGHT IN—
We will greet you with a "howdy" and a grin;
For we like to print the news
And 'twill save our only shoes
If we do not have to chase the items in.

WAITING FOR THE MEAT
Big Feed Promised When Freight Gets in With Hunters' Venison
C. L. St. Clair, engineer for the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company, and Thomas Hunkins, who is superintendent of the sulphite department, who have been enjoying a week's hunting trip in the vicinity of Cow Creek Canyon, Southern Oregon, returned to Oregon City Saturday evening. Both men are "crack shots" and before returning (they say) they succeeded in getting several deer, two mountain lions, a large bear and several chipmunks. A portion of the deer was brought home but the mountain lions were used for trapping the bear, and will have the hides prepared for shipping to their homes in the East to show the people of their old home towns the kind of game that abound in the wilds of Southern Oregon. The friends of both hunters have anxiously awaited their return hoping to at least have a glimpse of some "nothing doing" in the passing out of the deer meat. John Tobin, proprietor of the Electric Hotel, where the "deer-slayers" are making their headquarters, had planned to celebrate their home coming by giving his patrons a feast of deer meat on Sunday, but this feast is postponed owing to a delayed freight train, which is bringing the carcasses of the animals of the forests of Cow Creek Canyon. Upon their arrival the hotel guests will be given a feast that has never been enjoyed before in this city. Charles Tobin will be toastmaster of the occasion, and John Tobin will act as chef. The affair will be in the form of a "stag" party. St. Clair and Hunkins will be the guests of honor.
