25th ANNIVERSARY

Presbyterian Church has Enjoyable Anniversary Celebration

The 25th anniversary of the organization of the Presbyterian church was celebrated at the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening of last week. The church parlors were filled with members of the church, many of whom were in Oregon City at the time of the organization of the church, who have watched with interest the growth of this denomination. The early part of the evening was devoted to a programme, which consisted chiefly of addresses, the principal one of the address of the evening being made by Rev. A. J. Montgomery, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church in this city, filling the pulpit for seven years and who is now of Portland, recently returning to Oregon from the East, where he had been for several years. The programme was opened with a selection by the choir. Mrs. J. W. Draper, who was the organist of the church in this city at the time of the organization, presided as same on this occasion. Dr. Mulligan, who has had the distinction of being the oldest member of the Presbyterian denomination in Portland, made the opening address, and was followed by Mrs. Angus Matheson, who is also a prominent member of the church, uniting with the same shortly after its organization. Mrs. E. P. Rands, now of Vancouver Washington, but formerly a resident and member of the church of this city, made a few remarks telling of the church's early organization. C. Scheibel, who is one of the officers of the church, told of the work that the officers have accomplished. After the programme the members repaired to the church parlors, where refreshments were served and a social time was enjoyed. Miss Mabel Volkmar and Ted Miller played several instrumental selections during the evening.

The church parlors were pretty decorated, orange colored crepe paper being festooned about the room, and huge bunches of red and golden colored autumn leaves being arranged artistically.

Declare War on Colds

A crusade of education which aims "that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation" has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of the "don'ts" which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the cold:

- "Don't sit in a draughty car."
- "Don't sleep in hot rooms."
- "Don't avoid the fresh air."
- "Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Over eating reduces your resistance."
- "Tow hich we would add—when you take a cold get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most excellent. Sold by Huntley Bros. Co.

Nervous and Sick Headaches

Torpid liver, constipated bowels and disordered stomach are the causes of these headaches. Take Dr. King's New Life Pills, you will be surprised how quickly you will get relief. They stimulate the different organs to do their work properly. No better regulator for liver and bowels. Take 25c and invest in a box to-day. At all druggists or by mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co. Philadelphia and St. Louis.

A lazy liver leads to chronic dyspepsia and constipation—weakens the whole system. Doan's Regulets (25c per box) act mildly on the liver and bowels. At all drug stores.

Morbid Parisians.

Public executions in Paris prove very profitable to the owners of houses commanding the scene. Windows are let out for the occasion, the landlords watching for the first sign of the execution and then at once sending word to the persons who have hired the room. If an ordinary criminal is executed the charge is usually about $4 per seat, but should the offender have committed any remarkable crime the price runs up to as much as $30.

Exaggerated Impressions.

"Mr. Meekton says his wife is competent to hold any office in the government."

"That opinion," replied Miss Cayenne, "is the result of his vanity. He thinks that because she can govern him she must be able to govern the entire nation."—Washington Star.

Flattery.

Flubdub—What do you consider the most delicate form of flattery? Cynicus—Telling a married man he doesn't look it.—Judge.

Chance generally favors the prudent.
