Upon their return from British Columbia, Mr. Moody and wife will take up their residence in this city.
A very pretty, but quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Paul's Episcopal church Wednesday afternoon, November 12, the contracting parties being Miss Mary Ellen Long and Mr. William Bitzer Howell, the impressive ring ceremony of the Episcopal church being used by the rector, Rev. C. W. Robinson, in the presence of only a few intimate friends and relatives of the young couple. The bride wore a becoming traveling gown of blue, with large picture hat. Mr. and Mrs. Howell were unattended.
After the marriage ceremony the bride and groom left on their honeymoon, which will be spent at Sound points, including Seattle, Wash., Vancouver and Victoria, British Columbia. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Howell will take up their residence in their new bungalow, which is one of the handsomest residences in this city, and which was but recently completed.
Mr. and Mrs. Howell, who are among the most popular young people of this city, are the recipients of many handsome gifts. The bride is the eldest daughter of T. M. Long, of Canemah, and of the late Elizabeth Long. For some time she has been employed as stenographer for the Government Fish Hatcheries, under Henry O'Malley, making her headquarters in this city. She was for several years employed as clerk at the Oregon City Legislature and was one of the most capable young women of the sessions where she served in the capacity of stenographer.
Mr. Howell, who has been connected with the Oregon City postoffice during the administration of Postmaster Randall, is one of the prominent young men of this city, being a member of the Commercial Club, Elks and has taken an active part in the organization of the Elks' Order in this city. He is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Howell, of this city. Mr. Howell and his wife have a host of friends in this city.

Some Chicken Raiser
F. F. Fisher, one of the well known poultry fanciers and farmers living near Stone on the Clackamas river, was in this city Friday. Mr. Fisher, who is always in the lead when it comes to showing chickens or ducks, winning all of the prizes at the Oregon State Fair in the class of Single Combed White Leghorn chickens.
His place on the Clackamas is an ideal location for a poultry ranch, this consisting of 6½ acres, and the chickens and ducks are allowed the freedom on this farm. Mr. Fisher has 350 chickens of the Single Comb White Leghorn breed and 31 Pencil Indian Runner ducks. From October 10 to November 10 there were 601 eggs, the product of the ducks, which commanded a price of 50 cents per dozen in the Portland market, and found a ready market. He receives the same price for the eggs of his chickens. He believes in having the best of foundation stock, and before starting in the poultry business he purchased a setting of eggs from J. W. Wyckoff of New York, and has shipped eggs to California, Idaho, Washington and throughout the State of Oregon. Two years ago he sold 2,612 eggs to outside markets for hatching.
Mr. Fisher came to Clackamas Co. three years ago from New Rockford, North Dakota. He has given his farm the name of Fisherdal Farm.
