MARSH-SCHOENBORN WEDDING

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Church of Christ at Eldorado Sunday noon at 12:00 o'clock, the contracting parties being Miss Mable Marsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Marsh, of Molalla, and Mr. Harry Schoenborn of Eldorado. Rev. Witty, pastor of the Church of Christ, officiated. Many friends of the young couple attended the marriage ceremony, and only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties attended the reception given at the home of the bride's parents, following the ceremony. The church was beautifully decorated by the young people of the church, an archway being arranged where the ceremony took place. The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of white silk with an overdress of white chiffon with silver trimming. Her shower bouquet was of white carnations and smilax. Her attendant, Miss Elsie Schoenborn of this city, and sister of the bridegroom wore a very becoming gown of pale blue messaline with an overdress of blue chiffon with trimmings of silver. She carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations. Mr. Claude Marsh, brother of the bride, was best man. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Marsh where the reception was held, was artistically decorated with cut flowers and evergreens. The dining room and table correspondingly decorated, were in holly. Mrs. Marsh was assisted in serving by Mrs. Jackson. Mr. and Mrs. Schoenborn have gone on their honeymoon, which will be spent in Portland and Washington. Upon their return they will go to Carus, where they will make their future home, and where Mr. Schoenborn is engaged in farming. The bride is one of the popular young ladies of Molalla, where she has a host of friends. The bridegroom is the youngest son of Mrs. Augusta Schoenborn, of this city, and of the late Richard Schoenborn. He is an industrious and well known young farmer of Clackamas County, having resided in this county all of his life. Among those attending the reception were: Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. William Jackson, Mr. Cordell, Mrs. R. A. Schoenborn, of Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schoenborn, also of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schoenborn, Mr. and Mrs. Fernian, Miss Rosa Marsh, Miss Esther Marsh, Miss Mary Backus, Miss Belle arsh, Miss Elsie Schoenborn, Claude Marsh, Lukey Marsh, Hiram Marsh, Clifford Marsh, Henry Schoenborn, Donald Schoenborn and Mrs. Augusta Schoenborn.
