BANNON'S GREAT JANUARY

CLEARANCE SALE

One of the fundamental rules laid down for the management of "Bannon's" is that no goods must be carried over from one season to the other, but that all must be closed out no matter at how great a sacrifice. While this rule will entail a substantial loss on many items "Bannon's" rightly consider this a wise business policy because of two reasons. In the first place, the money realized from goods sold now will pay for spring goods soon to arrive. Secondly, those who take advantage of these wonderful clearance sale bargains will have mighty good reason to bear Bannon's in mind pleasantly and will certainly come to this store again and again. We want to impress this also on your mind: Every dollar's worth of goods offered in this sale is fresh, new, perfect and up-to-date in every particular—hardly any longer in the store than 30 to 60 days. We also want to impress upon you the need of coming as quickly as possible because first comers naturally secure best choice. And furthermore, lengthy as this list is, it doesn't give only a small part of the bargains in the store. To tell them all we'd have to catalog the entire stock. So come and share in the bargains. The more you buy the larger your savings. It's the one occasion where you will save money by spending it.

All Millinery at Half Price

It seems a shame almost to sell these beautiful hats at half price! But this store's policy forbids taking chances—winter goods must be out of the way before spring goods come in and we propose to make virtue out of stern necessity. You can therefore buy the very hat you perhaps felt you couldn't afford—and still wanted badly—at just half its regular former price. Remember too that you've many months of winter weather ahead yet and can surely get full worth out of your investment. Buy any hat here at half.
